Convalescing From Burns.

Little Carol Kennedy, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Kennedy, is convalescing after severe burns on the feet. Although the injuries were serious, they will leave no permanent effects and the child will be able to walk again in a month.

Bank Deposits Show Well.

Although the call for a statement of banks on February 28 came at the slack time of year, Pendleton's three banks show combined deposits of nearly $7,500,000. All are showing a healthy growth compared with the year previous and indications point to a $10,000,000 total of deposits by the time the harvest is over.

Reading Room Hours Extended.

The Christian Science Reading Room, 813 1-2 Main street, is open to the public daily from 1:30 to 5 p. m., except on Sundays and holidays, and will also be open every evening except Wednesday and Sunday. The hours will be from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. beginning March 8. At the reading room the Bible and all Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased. The evening hours are for reading only.

Return from Conference.

Rev. R. E. Gornall, pastor of the Methodist church, and Rev. W. H. Cook, pastor of the Baptist church, returned this morning from Portland, where they attended the Interchurch World conference. Both report that the conference was one of the most wonderful they ever attended.

W. D. Chamberlain Returns.

W. D. Chamberlain, deputy revenue collector, returned today and is in the office at the federal building. He will be here until after March 15, the final date upon which income tax returns can be made. His office is crowded with Umatilla county taxpayers who must make returns before the time limit expires.

Club Enjoys Meeting.

Merry Go Round Club met at Mrs. Omer Blasinger's in North Cold Spring last evening. Decorations carried out a St. Patrick motif and guessing games were enjoyed. Four prizes were awarded, winners being Mrs. Frank Brown, Mr. Ralph Porter, Mrs. Nettie Parrish and Mrs. Claude Hansom. A delicious luncheon was served in the final hour. Pres-

Bond Exchange Delayed.

The exchange of permanent for temporary liberty bonds of the first, second and third issues, has been delayed for about 30 days, according to a wire from the twelfth federal reserve district bank at San Francisco to local bankers today. The issues will be issued as soon as possible and will be exchanged by local banks free of charge. The exchange bonds are made necessary by the expiration of the interest coupons on bonds originally issued by the government.

Pendleton Site Has Chance.

Although California was voted upon as the site for the new $100,000 Woodcraft Home, Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall, grand guardian, plans to look over the Pendleton site nevertheless, says Mrs. Margaret Cronin, who returned last night after attending a meeting of the home board in Portland. Mrs. Van Orsdall is interested in Pendleton as the location for the home, which is for the old members and orphans of members of the lodge. Mrs. Cronin went to Seattle with other neighbors of Woodcraft officials and attended initiation for 50 new members.

Boys Play Games.

The Baptists defeated the Episcopalians in the junior baseball game today. Spectators say the game was Wheat Looking Better.

Wheat is looking better with a few days of warmer temperatures, according to local authorities. There has been no frost for several nights and the occasional rains have helped considerably the condition of the winter crop. Flowering is now on in full swing east and north of town and the farmers are turning over their last year's stubble-
