28 YEARS AGO

(From the East Oregonian March 8, 1926.)

Charles Cunningham reports stock fat, grass growing and everything as favorable as possible for stock-owners. Mrs. Moulton wishes to thank her friends for the support offered in her behalf at the coming election for school district officer. She however desired to state that she is not a candidate for the office of school clerk. Friends here extend a welcome home to James Trobaugh, well known Umatilla county farmer, who has returned with his family from Sheridan. John King fell from a load of hauled hay on the reservation, Saturday last and sustained a severe fracture of the collar bone. Charles Beale has finished driving his band of cattle, 230 head, to range of the head of McKay Creek.
