What the play-house managers have to tell you about present and coming attractions.

ALFA TODAY

Mabel Vere is a young and popular writer. She shares a pretty little flat with Hans Hray, a suffragette of determined character. Mabel is engaged to be married to Gerald Wantage, but she has become aware of growing dissatisfaction with her somewhat priggish fiance. However, she tries to ignore this discontent, working off her unrest in her own original ways. One of her "ways" is to advertise for a husband. She hopes to obtain good copy from the applicants, and she invites three of them to call. Adams, a butler, arrives, in whom Mabel sees prospects for a good story. She accepts his invitation to tea for the following afternoon at the house where he works, telling her that his master will be out. Noel Corcoran is the third applicant, to whom Mabel does not show the interest that she feels in him. The next day she keeps her engagement for tea, only to find that the butler works at Noel Corcoran's house. He informs her that her fiance is making bets with the men at the club that she will not answer any more letters in reply to her ad. Mabel decides to punish him, so she answers two of the newly arrived, lurid letters. Wantage discovers it and after a quarrel they break their engagement. When Noel learns of the broken engagement he calls and succeeds in impressing Mabel with the fact that he is the right man for her. This is the brief story of the interesting and amusing comedy, "A Lady's Name," in which Lewis J. Selznick presents Constance Talmadge, and which Select Pictures will offer to the Alta Theatre today.

ARCADE THURSDAY

WOW, BRUTUS! HOW HENRY LEHRMAN "KIDS" THOSE DRAMATIC "ILLUMS" These motion picture fans who have been waiting for some fearless comedy producer who would dare to bring forth a "take-off" on the high-spots in filmdom, will realize their fond desire if they see "A Twilight Baby," Henry Lehrman's initial production for First National Exhibitors Circuit which will be shown at the Arcade theatre, commencing Thursday. For the first time in memory Mr. Lehrman has produced a picture that contains every laugh-essential of the funniest comedy, but which at the same time is built around a logical plot that provides for amusing satire on the average motion picture of today. As an instance of the cleverness with which "A Twilight Baby" is characterized, the tearful, heart-rending, verbose sub-title of today is subtly burlesqued. These pictures, which have been featuring wild rides of the night-riders come in for a share of the fun-poking and many other spots in the present-day motion picture are used for laugh purposes. Lloyd (Ham) Hamilton and Virginia Rappe are seen in the leading roles of this attraction.

"SAWED-OFF SHOTGUN" OBSOLETE SAY BANKERS

CHICAGO, March 11.—Abolition of the "sawed-off shotgun" as a means of preventing bank holdups and substituting in its place state constabularies, was advocated here by bankers attending the annual conference of the Central States Bankers' Association. Bank robberies last year, according to officers of the association, netted greater loot than in any previous year. They believe the use of weapons to prevent bank holdups is obsolete and that the only way to stop them is for every state to have a constabulary like Pennsylvania, equipped with horses, motor cycles and automobiles.

To Use Navy Radio.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The senate today adopted Peindexter's resolution directing the navy department to permit the use of its radio facilities for transmission of press and commercial business.

Official Exploits of GERMAN SUBMARINE U-35

This Film was made for German Eyes Only and if WE had lost YOU never would have seen it, But—

Our Boys seized the negative when they occupied Coblenz and it is to be used as evidence at the trial of the Kaiser.

Authentic record photographed by German official photographers from the deck of the Kaiser's "pet" submarine—the U-35—during the trip on which she sank a hundred allied and neutral ships and took ONLY SIX PRISONERS. Three reels of horrible facts. It brings before your eyes: The actual firing of the torpedoes and their contact with their helpless victims. The placing of bombs in the ship's hold. The firing of the submarine's deck guns into the doomed ship. The final plunge of these fine big ships to the bottom of the ocean. The crews of the sinking vessels calmly facing—without a chance to win—their battle against the deep seas. It shows you the life and activities of the submarine crew as recorded by the official cameraman of the German government.

SENATORS STRIVE FOR AGREEMENT BUT FAIL

WASHINGTON, March 11.—A score of democratic senators met in Senator Owen's office yesterday in effort to agree on some reservation to Article 10. Republican mild reservationists simultaneously exerted themselves, trying to reach an agreement. But when the senate met none of those efforts had succeeded. It was stated that 28 democrats had tentatively agreed to accept some modification of the Lodge reservation to Article 10 but none had pledged to any particular draft.

SAYS BONUS PROGRAM WOULD INFLATE PRICES

WASHINGTON, March 11.—A large issue of government bonds to aid service men might cause financial panic, Republican Leader Mondell told the house ways and means committee today. He said such an issue would greatly depreciate market value of securities, inflate credit and send prices "ballooning." Mondell also said he sees no means by which additional taxes could be imposed to obtain revenue necessary for any of the soldier aid program proposed.
