

News of Pendleton

Recovering from Operation.
Ed Lyday is reported recovering as well as expected from his recent operation for appendicitis at St. Anthony's hospital.

Returns From Portland.
L. H. Campbell returned yesterday after a visit to Portland. Mrs. Campbell, who accompanied him, was taken ill while in the city and will not return here for a few days.

Three Violate Traffic Laws
H. C. Wahring was fined $5 in police court late Wednesday on a charge of speeding. William Batchelor, arrested for parking his car on the wrong side of the street, paid a fine of $2. John Doe, charged with operating an auto with the muffler open late last night, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $5.

Looking for Machinists' Mates.
A. Carr, local recruiting officer for the United States navy, is looking for machinists' mates (gals), in response to a call from the navy department. The men are needed to go to Alaska as part of the crews of submarines 224 and 219, to be used as Alaskan patrol.

F. W. Kehrli Coming.
F. W. Kehrli, of the U. S. department of agriculture, dairy division, will be here tomorrow from Salt Lake. He will go to Stanfield tomorrow to look at the new bulls which have been purchased by the Hermiston Bull Association, which includes Stanfield and Hermiston. Mr. Kehrli, who organized the association five years ago, will accompany Fred Bennion, county agent.

Josephine Kirtley Heads Club.
The Girls' Forum at Pendleton high school today elected officers for the remainder of the year. Josephine Kirtley being chosen president, Mary Matthews, secretary, and Helen Matthews, treasurer.

Man's Whereabouts Sought
The present whereabouts of Dr. George Tool, who is understood to have resided in Pendleton about four years ago, is sought by Dr. G. Frank New York, who has written the postmaster here asking that anyone having the information communicate with him at the address given.

Work Is Progressing
Work is progressing on the addition to Huer's hardware on Main street. The shelling in the addition has been completed, while the space for the business office is nearly completed. In the old quarters of the store, improvements are well under way. The final touch will be to the new store front, with one large main street entrance.

Running For Commissioner
A phone message to the East Oregonian today from the Press-Telegram states that petitions for the candidacy of R. E. Bean for the republican nomination for commissioner are being circulated in that section today and that Mr. Bean will make the race. Mr. Bean is a farmer and creameryman and a son-in-law of the late D. C. Sanderson.

Canadian Vet Seeks Chum
T. W. Smart, Vancouver, B. C., is seeking A. Hildebrand, formerly a corporal in "C" Company, second battalion, Canadian engineers, first division, with whom he soldiered in France, Belgium and Germany. Smart says in his letter that he believes Hildebrand has a farm near Pendleton and that his mother lives here. He gives his address as Vancouver, B. C., care of G. W. V. A.

Clothing Meetings Successful.
Clothing school held at Umatilla and Umatilla during the past few days have been successful. Miss Jessie Biles, of O. A. G., and Miss Ella May Harmon, county demonstration agent. The school was especially successful at Umatilla, where the attendance reached 21 women and girls. A lunch was served by the Umatilla women for those who attended the school. Today Miss Harmon and Miss Biles will open a school at Columbia, which will continue for three days.

Banks Join Federal Reserve.
The First Bank of Pilot Rock and the Bank of Helix today received notice of their admission to the federal reserve system, having made application at a recent meeting held here between the state bankers of the county and a representative of the federal reserve bank in this district. They are the first state banks in the county, outside of Pendleton to join the system. The membership is said to aid in the floating of loans and in giving stronger backing to the banks.

Students Boost Activities.
A meeting of the student body of Pendleton high school was held this morning. Tonight's lyceum number was discussed and indications point toward a large audience. John Simpson, cell leader, spoke briefly, urging the students to attend the Baker-Pendleton basketball game tomorrow night and the debate, Saturday night. "The debaters appreciate your support as much as the basketball team and every loyal student of Pendleton high school should be present to encourage the team," Simpson said.

Auto Pilfering Prevalent.
Complaints about the loss of autos and auto accessories have been increasing of late, the police say, and warning has been issued not to leave robes, coats or other valuables in autos at night when parked. Not only are autos being taken for joyrides at night, but robes are being stolen from parked machines. Among recently reported losses is a coat from the Glen Dudley car and a robe from the Fred Lamplin car.

Grass Is Getting Longer.
Grass on the ranges is growing with warmer weather and recent rains and better pasture is in sight for the sheepmen. The grass will be welcomed owing to the long feeding period made necessary by the long cold of the past winter. Lambing operations are under way in nearly full swing now, with good results reported. The market for sheep in the east is said to indicate that good prices will be paid this summer for Umatilla stock.

Light-Hearted Wickedness.
"Light-Hearted Wickedness" will be the theme of Evangelist Wilhite's sermon tonight at the First Christian church. Several men and women were baptized last evening and today. Preparations are being made for the closing services next Sunday which will be in the nature of a reception to the new converts as well as a farewell to Mr. Wilhite and his singer, Prof. Gates. The Sunday morning communion will be conducted entirely by men who have united with the church during the present revival. Prof. Gates urgently requests all the members of his chorus choir to be present both morning and evening, Sunday.

JILL'S LOVELY IN VELVET, IN LACE SHE'S A QUEEN, BUT OH, SHE'S A KNOCKOUT IN SIMPLE SATINE

BY MARGARET ROHE
(Written for the United Press.)
NEW YORK, March 11.—We've taken the olecloth from the kitchen table to turn into a nifty chapeau so no one need be surprised when we go further in appropriating the household furnishings to our sartorial needs. Some genius has discovered that the lovely lustrous satine which we use to line our bedsprads and our cretonne window draperies is "just too sweet for words" when done into a chic but simple frock.

The satine frock then is the pet of the mode for spring and early summer wear. Touched up with a bit of bright embroidery in colored crewels it is effective indeed and so elegant and expensive looking withal that one would never suspect it of having a lining part. It comes in so many exquisite shades of old blue, rose, lavender, Nile green, old gold and French rivedent glories of the peacock and grey that it is hard to pass them by for the more sombre charms of black and yet the black satine frock is perhaps the very smartest of all. It is more elaborately yarn embroidered than the colored satines and often shows a motif of applique fruit outlined in the yarn as a distinctive detail.

For Youth of Species.
For the young of the species the little dresses of satine are adorable. From eight years up one may be correctly smart in satine. For the youngsters the little black satine dresses are gay with corse yarn cherries and stitchings in red and green wool while some stunning old gold models are done in old blue, mauve and black with little frills and veeties of sheer white net and sashes with embroidered ends.

From the simple charms of satine it would seem to be a far cry to the iridescent glories of the peacock and yet to emulate Juno's favorite fowl is the aim of every chic chicken. Calling it by its French name of Paon that peculiar shade of greenish blue found only in the peacock's resplendent tail is the favored color of the spring. In the use of changeable blue and green taffeta we find again the fashionable finisher on the peacock and the use of its feathers in reality and in embroidered replicas knows no end. A stunning evening gown of black is absolutely plain save for one straggling peacock feather starting at the waist line and embroidered down the front of the skirt.

Fair Means or Fowl.
A gown of peacock blue satin has a train which is a mass of embroidered peacock feathers and dazzling evening turbans of gold tissue sprouting a half dozen peacock feathers at the rich rear so ahead and hand with a huge unfurled fan of the same tail plumage. Veiling a bright blue gown with a chiffon, Georgette or net in vivid green or a bright green one in the blue is nothing if not a veiled illusion to the peacock's pride and the wearing of two lengths of maine one blue, one green is just another one of these popular peacock effects. For the modern
