PLAN APRIL SALE

A sale of aprons, caps, handkerchiefs and articles of cooked food was planned yesterday for Saturday, April 3, by the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church at an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. A. J. Owen on Thompson street.

An informal social hour followed the business session and a feature which afforded much amusement was a description by each guest of her wedding costume. The whims of fashion varied from the effing mode of simplicity to the bouffant conceits of bustle, hoops and crinolines. "Brides" who were guests at Mrs. Owen's home ranged from the wife of forty-three years to the more recent one who attended the tea in her wedding attire of a modernly smart tailor.

Hostesses who assisted Mrs. Owen yesterday were Mrs. G. H. Mowry, Mrs. G. S. Holsington, Mrs. Charles Peacock and Mrs. L. G. McAtee.

WALLA WALLA GIRL WEDS

Concerning the wedding of a popular Walla Walla girl who has attended a number of social affairs in Pendleton and who is known to many friends here, the Union has the following note:

The marriage of Miss Catherine Elliott of this city and Mr. Mayhew Fulton of Langdon, Alta. Can., took place last evening at the home of the bride, 414 South Palouse street. Relatives and a few close friends of the families were present at the ceremony, which was read by Dr. O. H. Holmes of the First Congregational church. The double ring service was used and the ceremony, which was most impressive, was the Knox form, written by Mr. Fulton's father, Rev. Fulton of Langdon, Alta., and especially worded to fit the occasion.

As Mrs. Edzar Fischer played the "Norwegian Bridal Procession," by Grieg, the bride and groom, unattended descended the stairway, which was decked in sprays of huckleberry, and were married beneath a canopy formed of Ophelia roses, greenery and pink tulle. During the service Goldmark's "Rustic Wedding Symphony" was softly played by Mrs. Fischer.

The bride's gown was of delicate pink crepe meteor, with bodice trimmed in crystal cut beads and finished with a flowing drape of tulle. She carried an immense shower bouquet of old-fashioned flowers.

The living rooms of the Elliott home were beautifully decorated in Ophelia roses, palms, ferns and huckleberry; the dining room in daffodils, greenery, yellow tulle and candles.

Following the ceremony refreshments were served. Mrs. George Ginn presided in the dining room. Mrs. Jay Williams served and Mrs. Walter Ginn poured. Assisting in serving were Misses Carleen Brunton and Marion Talbot.

Out of town guests were Mr. Paul Fulton of Langdon, Alta., and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson, of Colfax, Wash. Mr. Fulton is a brother of the groom, Mrs. Thompson a sister of the bride.

Mrs. Fulton wore a traveling suit of navy blue, embroidered, and navy blue turban.

The couple left on the evening train for Portland where they will spend a few days. Before going to Langdon, where they will make their home, they will return for a short visit in Walla Walla.

MRS. MATHEWS IS HOSTESS

Club colors, crimson and white, developed in combination with a motif of Easter, marked appointments of a delightful affair for which Mrs. C. W. Griswold proved delightful. Adjoining to the dining room the guests enjoyed a dainty collation, each place at the pretty table being marked by a gay Easter egg nestling in a little basket to which extended streamers of red and white caught up at the electrician. Mrs. Charles Olooff assisted Mrs. Mathews in serving.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantage of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

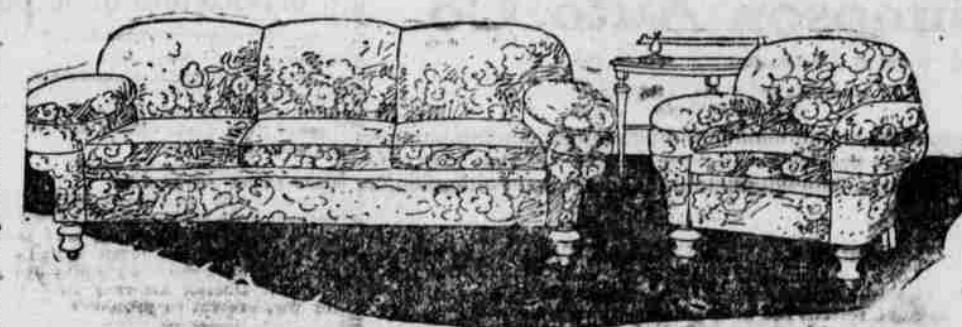

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation because it darkens the hair beautifully besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.
