DOROTHY GISH FOILS PLOTTERS IN LATEST PHOTOPLAY PARCE

If a plotting aunt and an unscrupulous physician had arranged to have you confined in a private sanitarium, under the pretext that your mind was unbalanced; if the car was ordered and the nurse on hand; and if your room was already waiting for you, what would you do?

Did you ever meet the condition in which a nurse would say "You were insane and you would try to prove your sanity?"

That is one of the situations that confront Dorothy Gish in her latest Paramount picture, "Turning the Tables," which will be shown at the Alta Theatre today.

ARCADE THURSDAY

WOW, BRUTUS! HOW HENRY LEHRMAN "KIDS" THOSE DRAMATIC "FILMUS"

These motion picture fans who have been waiting for some fearless comedy producer who would dare to bring forth a "take-off" on the high-spots in filmdom, will realize their fond desire if they see "A Twilight Baby," Henry Lehrman's initial production for First National Exhibitors' Circuit which will be shown at the Arcade theatre, commencing Thursday.

For the first time in memory Mr. Lehrman has produced a picture that contains every laugh-essential of the funniest comedy, but which at the same time is built around a logical plot that provides for amusing satire on the average motion picture of today.

As an instance of the cleverness with which "A Twilight Baby" is characterized, the tearful, heart-rending, verbose sub-title of today is subtly unrequited. These pictures which have been featuring wild rides of the night-riders come in for a share of

Sure Death to Corns

The first thing "Geta-It" does when it lands on a corn or callus is to snuff out the pain. Then it shrivels the corn or callus and loosens it.

Soon, it is almost ready to fall off. You help it just a little by lifting it off "twist thumb and finger." You don't even feel it, because there is no hurt left in it. Millions have proved it the cleanest, surest, safest and most pleasant method.

"Geta-It," the never failing, guaranteed money-back corn remover costs but a trifle at any drug store. Sold by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Fendleton and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Tallman & Co. and Economy Drug Co.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush of the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestive pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable. 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

the fun-poking and many other spots in the present-day motion picture are used for laugh purposes.

Lloyd (Ham) Hamilton and Virginia Rappe are seen in the leading roles of this attraction.

CLEMENCEAU VISITS

"VOLCANO'S JANITOR"

PARIS, March 12.—Virtually nothing has been heard of former Premier Clemenceau since his departure for Cairo for a vacation and it is only now that accounts of his voyage are beginning to reach Paris from his fellow passengers aboard the Lotus.

The Tiger was seen but little except at meal time. He went to bed early and on waking in the morning performed his customary gymnastics with the aid of apparatus which had been attached to his cabin ceiling.

When the ship's wireless picked up Premier Millerand's declaration that he intended to continue the Clemenceau policy with regard to Russia, M. Clemenceau murmured, "that will be funny." As the steamer passed the Stromboli volcano M. Clemenceau declared whimsically that "a villa around here ought not to be very expensive, as the heating is supplied gratis."

Must Be Volcano's Janitor. Observing a small house on the mountainside he wondered who could live in the smoke which came from the volcano, commenting:

"It must be the volcano's janitor—what a beautiful job for a retired man to be a guardian of a volcano."

The former premier attended a theatrical entertainment on board for the benefit of the widows and orphans of sailors and signed a dozen programs which were auctioned for 1500 francs. The highest price paid was 500 francs, and the lowest 60. M. Clemenceau declared that at that rate "I would be willing to sign all day."

The former premier declared that he had not made any plans nor had he yet formulated an impression, except that the ship's vermicelli which had been excellent on the first day had become very poor.

Is Taking Vermicelli Cure. "I eat vermicelli every day," he said. "I am taking the vermicelli cure. I have to have all sorts of curries, as I have 14 maladies—the same number as President Wilson has points—one malady, one point; everybody has what he can."

M. Clemenceau shrugged his shoulders when the danger of an attack on him at Cairo was suggested, saying: "Yes, yes, I have been warned, but perhaps it was only humbug. They may miss me anyway. One must die some time; what does the place matter?"

The sea proved kindly throughout the voyage and although he was greeted by rain, fog and wind on his arrival in Egypt, he declared he had never felt so young.

"If only there was a little sunshine I would become a child again," he said.

BAKER WILL VOTE ON CONSTRUCTION OF DAM

BAKER, March 12.—At a special municipal election to be held April 19, Baker will decide whether the city shall be authorized to spend $40,000 in constructing a new dam on Goodrich creek, one of a series of water supply sources now used to furnish local mains, and also whether to spend $12,000 in renovating and enlarging the quarters of the fire department. The construction of a road for the delivery of materials to the site of the new dam is included in the cost estimates.

$20,000 IN JEWELS ARE MISSING AFTER CRASH

SAN DIEGO, March 12.—Jewels valued at $20,000 are missing, and police today endeavored to find a trace of them, following an automobile accident yesterday when a machine driven by Mrs. S. S. Block of Pasadena collided with one driven by two sailors.

Report of the loss of the jewels was the handling of Mrs. Block when the accident occurred. Occupants and contents of the car were thrown to the road, and when a search was later made for the jewels they could not be found. Two diamond brooches, several single stones and a string of 100 pearls are missing. The sailors are being sought by the police in an effort to throw light on the mystery.
