BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and live, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.
All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.
Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.
Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c

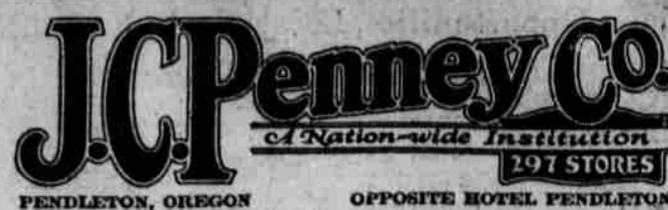

Pendleton the City Courteous

Many cities through the United States and Canada have adopted a slogan, scores of them trying to bring about larger volumes of trade and increase of population.
Presuming that some clever slogan would be instrumental in doubling Pendleton's population, it would not necessarily mean a better place to live in. Nor would its influence for betterment be more beneficial here or elsewhere on account of its larger size.
On the other hand, every citizen would put forth his best efforts to make this a better community, its effects would be instantaneous and wonderful.
Of course the war-hoop, "Let 'er buck" has placed Pendleton on the map, but some slogan, the heading of this ad, which is suggested as one, might be very helpful to make this a better community.
Let us have your suggestions, which when mailed to our advertising manager, will be given due publicity.

Delivery Corn Bid at $62
With Oats at Old Prices
Delivery corn is bid at the week's opening of the Portland grain exchange at $62 a ton, a new high figure for the present slack season. For future delivery corn is sought at $58.50. It is reported that farmers are not yet willing to part with the stocks they still hold. Oats are being bid at $55 and $59. Mill feed bid is at $38.25.

Local Dealers Selling Grain Sacks at 20 Cents.
Both domestic and Calcutta grain bags for this year are selling in the local market at 20 cents, but sales are not very heavy, owing to a belief that lower figures will prevail. Several farmers have laid in a fairly good supply at that price. The domestic bags are more desired but are not always obtainable.

Spring Seeding Mostly Confined to Reseeding
The spring seeding so far has been almost entirely devoted to the reseeded of patches where winter wheat was killed, according to local wheat men. The indications are that little new ground will be put in spring wheat this year, owing to the poor success with the crop last year. One estimate is that the acreage in spring wheat will be less this year than last. Some of the farmers will be able to determine, with a few more days of the present weather, if reseeding will be necessary in their fields. Little seed wheat sold this spring has been for any but reseeding, dealers say.
