DISTINGUISHED GUEST HONORED
Honoring Commander J. H. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson were hosts for a dinner party yesterday at their home at 111 East Washington street. Red roses and ferns centered a charmingly appointed table where covers were laid for Commander Blackburn, Judge and Mrs. G. W. Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCook, Miss Florence Sweet, Miss Elsie Fitzmaurice, Miss Tess Snyder, R. Alexander, Chauncey Bishop and the hosts, Commander Blackburn, who commanded the Leviathan during the war, is an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson. He was here yesterday on an inspection trip, and left last night for Spokane.

RETURNS TO CHICAGO
Mrs. Maurice E. Metz, who has spent the past nine weeks in Pendleton with Mr. Metz, left on No. 18 Sunday evening for their home in Chicago.

LEAVE FOR PORTLAND.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alexander left last night for Portland.

BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED.
Little Miss Elita Dale celebrated her eighth birthday Saturday afternoon when she asked in a few of her friends. The motif of St. Patrick's day was carried out in green and white. After playing games the party adjourned to the dining-room where dainty refreshments were served. Guests asked to share the little hostess' hospitality were Miss M. Johnson, instructor of her class at school, Marion Moorhouse, Jean Frasier, Mary Schaefer, Merian Hull, Helen Martin, Ellen Hampton, Grace Hale, Elizabeth Steiner, Ida Hoesch, Louis Oliver, Margaret Oliver, Rollo Jones, Raymond Reese, Francis O'Gara, Richard Geist, Emil Geist, Ralph Penland, John Chloupek and Tony Chloupek.

VISIT FROM PENNSYLVANIA.
Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pinney of Erie, Pennsylvania, who are touring the South and West, arrived in Pendleton last week end and are to spend a fortnight as guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wylie, 415 Lewis street.

ILLINOIS FOLK VISIT
Mr. and Mrs. George Clore, of Abingdon, Ill., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. King, departing for their home last evening. Mrs. Clore who is Mr. King's niece has visited in Oregon for the past several weeks but was only recently joined here by her husband.

RETURN TO YOUNGSTOWN
Mr. and Mrs. K. P. McLean and little son, Francis, returned Saturday to their home in Youngstown, Canada, after spending the winter months in Pendleton. Mrs. McLean is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. King.

MISS BOYLEN IS BRIDE
At a 10 o'clock service yesterday read in the living room of the Thomas Boylen home beneath a bower of ferns and spring blossoms. Miss Winnie Boylen became the bride of Henry J. Childs. Only a small group of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony at which Rev. Alfred Lockwood, rector of the Church of the Redeemer, officiated. The only attendant chosen by the couple was little Miss Jeanne Margaret Cronin who acted as flower girl.

The bride was attired in a becoming tulle of deep blue worn with a small hat of the same color and a bouquet of Ceville Brunner roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Childs left on No. 17 for a short journey to Portland and before their departure a buffet luncheon was served at the Boylen home. A cluster of pink roses centered the dainty table and presiding there was Mrs. Helen Titus, grandmother of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson were the only wedding guests other than relatives. Out of town members of the family to come for the event included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boylen Jr., of Echo, Mrs. Howard Bull (Lillian Boylen) who came from her home at Arlington, and Ernest Boylen and Eugene Boylen who also came from Echo.

The marriage united two well known young folk, Mrs. Childs being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boylen and a popular Pendleton girl. Her husband who came here recently from Los Angeles is bookkeeper at the Simpson Auto Company.

MISS CUNNINGHAM TO LEAVE.
Friends of Miss Cecilia Cunningham will regret to learn that she expects to depart this evening for Portland en route to Auburn, Washington, after a short visit with Pendleton friends. Miss Cunningham has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Mathew Mooney, and is studying pharmacy. She is a graduate nurse, having recently had her training at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton.

MRS. THOMPSON IS HOSTESS.
At the home of Mrs. John K. Thompson, at 510 Jefferson street, members of the Entre Nous club enjoyed a delightful afternoon Saturday. Three tables of cards were in play in the rooms of the Thompson home and a St. Patrick's motif was uniquely developed in the appointment of a dainty luncheon which followed the hours of bridge.

MISS LYNDE WEDS
Beneath a candle lighted archway of ferns and white carnations in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lee D. Drake, Miss Mildred Lynde Saturday evening became the bride of Marvin Roy young business man of Pilot Rock. The charming service was performed at 8 o'clock in the presence of a small group of relatives and friends. Miss Geraldine Phillips, with whom Miss Lynde was in nurse's training at St. Anthony's hospital, was chosen as her bridesmaid and little Miss Cornelia Pound, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Pound, and a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. William O'Rourke acted as best man. Rev. Father Van Hoomison of St. Mary's church officiated.

Preceding the service Miss Marjorie Williams sang "I Love You Truly." The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, James A. Drake, and the strains of "I Love You Truly" were continued softly throughout the exchange of vows. Miss Ida Eldridge

Deputy Clerk Has Mumps.
Cyril C. Froebel, deputy county clerk, is absent from his post today suffering from mumps which developed Sunday.

You Can Stop That Cough
Do not imagine that because you have tried various remedies without any permanent benefit that your cough is incurable. Bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has cured others, lots of them, why not you. Read what Mrs. J. L. Jones, New Kensington, Pa. says of this remedy. "About a year ago I contracted a severe cold that settled on my lungs and caused a terrible dry hacking cough that alarmed as well as annoyed me. Upon the advice of a druggist I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it relieved me almost immediately."

Takes Cold Easily
"I take cold easily and during the winter always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best medicine for colds and coughs I ever used," writes Mrs. S. E. Kinnan, Roseville, Ohio. When you have a cough or cold give this remedy a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords.

Hit of Women
Many women suffer miserably from constipation, causing headache, nervousness and sallow complexion. They will find that Chamberlain's Tablets invariably bring relief. These tablets are easy to take and pleasant in effect. They only cost a quarter.

presiding at the piano.
The bride was lovely in a costume of white Georgette banded in cloth and a veil which fell to the hem of her gown was caught up by rosettes of pink and her bouquet was a great cluster of pink rosebuds. Her maid chose a frock of blue worn with a large white hat and her bouquet was of violets.

The dainty ring bearer was gowned in a fluffy frock of white and the gold circlet was carried in a basket of pink. An informal reception followed the service. Living room lights were shaded in red and red blossoms predominated in the decorations there while in the dining room was a profusion of pink flowers used with pink-shaded candles.

An interesting feature was the cutting of the bride's cake made by her grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Davis.

Besides members of the bridal party, those present were Mrs. J. A. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Pound, Wallace Pound, Mrs. J. T. Lynde, Miss Mary Leslie, Miss Laura Dunne, Miss Josephine Cressy, Miss Mary Hickland, Miss Grace Roumoux and Miss Ada Roberts, the latter being a bridesmaid with whom the bride was in training.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy left Saturday evening for their home at Pilot Rock where the groom is engaged in the automobile business and yesterday his parents entertained for the couple with a wedding dinner. Pendleton folk who motored to Pilot Rock for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Pound, Cornelia and Wallace Pound, Mrs. Drake and her son James Drake.
