

ARCADIE THEATRE
"SADIE LOVE" LAUGHING HIT
 How would you like to plan an elopement with a pretty girl and then find your wife at the top of the ladder in place of the maiden? That's only one of the funny situations in "Sadie Love," the new Paramount-Artcraft photoplay starring Billie Burke, which will be on view at the Arcade Theatre for two days beginning Sunday. It is a screen version of Avery Hopwood's successful stage farce by the same name and is said to be a highly fortunate selection as a vehicle for pretty Miss Burke. The plot concerns a young American girl, just married to a handsome Italian count, who becomes obsessed with the idea that an American with whom she once had a romantic affair is her "twin soul." The unexpected appearance of the latter nearly breaks up an impending honeymoon and leads to all sorts of humorous complications. James L. Cranna again appears as Miss Burke's leading man, and others in the cast include Jed Froudy, Helen Montrose, and Hedda Hopper. The picture was directed by John S. Roberson.

WRIGLEY'S

The largest electric sign in the world advertises on Times Square, New York City: It is 250 feet long, 70 feet high. Made up of 17,286 electric lamps.

The fountains play, the trade mark changes, reading alternately WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT, DOUBLEMINT, and JUICY FRUIT, and the Spearmen "do a turn."

This sign is seen nightly by about 500,000 people from all over the world.

INCOME TAX RETURNS DUE

Business Men, Farmers and Wage Workers Must File Schedules of Income for 1919.

The Income Tax imposed by Act of Congress on earnings of the year 1919 is now being collected. Returns must be made on or before March 15 by every citizen and resident who had a net income for 1919 amounting to:

- $1,000 or over, single; or if married and living apart from wife (or husband); or if widowed or divorced.
- $2,000 or over, if married and living with wife (or husband).

The status of the person on the last day of the year fixes the status for the year with respect to the above requirements.

Under any of these circumstances a return must be made, even though no tax is due.

Husband and wife must consider the income of both, plus that of dependent minor children, in meeting this requirement; and, if sufficient to require a return, all items must be shown in a joint return or in separate returns of husband and wife.

A single person with minor dependents must include the income of such dependents.

A minor who has a net income of $1,000 or more is not considered a dependent, and must file a separate return.

Personal returns should be made on Form 1040A, unless the net income exceeded $5,000, in which case Form 1040 should be used.

Residents of Oregon should file their returns with, and make payments of Income Tax to, Milton A. Miller, Collector of Internal Revenue, Portland, Ore.

How to Figure Income.

The best way to find out whether one must file a return is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income, and if a return is due it tells how to prepare and file it.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office.

Guesswork, estimates and other hit-or-miss methods are barred when a person is making out his Income Tax return. Accuracy and completeness must be insisted upon. The return is a sworn statement. As such it must be thorough and accurate.

Salaried persons and wage earners must ascertain the actual compensation received. Overtime, bonuses, shares in the profits of a business, value of quarters and board furnished by the employer and other items which are compensations for services must be included.

It must be borne in mind that compensation may be paid in other forms than in cash. A bonus paid in Liberty Bonds is taxable at the market value of the bonds. A note received in payment for services is taxable income at its face value, and the interest upon it is also taxable.
