CLUB MEETING INTERESTING

"Textiles of the United States" and the hospitality of Mrs. Stephen A. Lowell and Mrs. A. J. Owen afforded Thursday Afternoon Club members several interesting and delightful hours yesterday. The club met at the library and a program consisting of talks on various textiles and a group of charming musical numbers made the event enjoyable. It included the following discussions and songs:

- Wool..... Mrs. William Lowell
- Vocal Dishes..... Mrs. D. D. Hobart
- "Barcarolle" (Tales of Hoffman)
- "Beautiful Ohio"
- Mrs. B. L. Burroughs
- Mrs. Harold J. Warner
- Linen..... Mrs. E. T. Wade
- Silk..... Mrs. Mary Lane

Especially interesting was Mrs. Lane's talk because of the fact that she had visited the silk mills in Massachusetts. The final number was an informal talk by Miss Jessie Biles, of O. A. C., who spoke on the pure textile law and urged that since women do 98 per cent of the buying of materials, they should better acquaint themselves with the qualities of textiles.

were coarse and fine wools, in stages unwashed, cleaned and dyed; there was fine batting and wool in different phases of construction into yarn for weaving and there were blankets, robes and finest sitting cloth.

The linen exhibit consisted just of commercial linens but showed fine and coarse qualities, bleached and unbleached.

Silk was represented by samples from the Massachusetts mills which included raw fiber and woven cloth. The final hour of the afternoon was spent over the tea cups. A dainty table was centered by a cluster of daffodils and presiding at the urns were Mrs. Charles Marsh and her house guest Mrs. P. K. Whelpton (Lorene Parker) who is spending a few days in Pendleton en route to Brian, Texas where she is to make her home.

CLUB STUDIES MUSIC
Music had its charms for members of the Research Club yesterday when they met as guests of Mrs. F. A. Liewallen and Mrs. George Stanger. They were entertained at the home of Mrs. Liewallen and shamrocks claimed a place among a host of daffodils which decked the rooms.

Eighteen members powered roll call and a number of additional guests shared the afternoon's pleasure. A discussion of "Modern American Composers" was given by Mrs. T. H. Remboldt and virtuoso numbers afforded delightful illustration. Miss Barbara Liewallen played a group of piano numbers and others were contributed by Mrs. H. E. McLean. Miss Wilma Wade sang a delightful vocal solo, Miss Edmunds playing her accompaniment.

In a tea hour which followed the program the St. Patrick motif again appeared throughout dainty appointments. Guests other than club members were Mrs. W. M. Peterson, Mrs. Joe Cox and Mrs. Kenneth Melton.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" — bad breath — a dull, tired feeling — sick headache — torpid liver — constipation, you'll find quick, safe and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just as you should. Try them. 10c and 25c.

their wives. The affair was held in Eagle-Woodman hall preceding a lodge session over which Mrs. Hamblen presided.

An interesting program included readings by little Miss Hope Sweeney; "Mother Shamrocks," a reading by Mrs. Marietta Jones, and a reading by Mrs. Edith Christensen. Mrs. Ave Edwards sang "Ireland Must Be Heaven," and later responded with a delightful encore.

A program of toasts was given at the conclusion of the supper hour. Mrs. H. E. Cook presiding as toastmistress. The dining room was phantasmic in its St. Patrick appointments, shamrocks appearing in profusion and wick-ed little snakes clamoring for attention.

The committee in charge of the delightful affair included Mrs. Hattie Ferguson, Mrs. Lottie Lane, Mrs. Besse Lovell, Mrs. Zettell Bybee, Mrs. Marietta Jones, Mrs. Fern Fatty and Mrs. Fannie Carney.

LAVENDER CLUB ENTERTAINED
At the home of Mrs. James Hall at 802 West Alta street yesterday. Lavender club members and a few additional guests enjoyed a delightful afternoon. Disposing of business items, Mrs. Hall being assisted by Mrs. Delta and Mrs. Griggs. Guests other than club members were Mrs. Van Allen of Hood River, Mrs. Gadwa, Mrs. Alex McKenize and Mrs. Hemphill. Mrs. Cas Powell and Mrs. Griggs.

Readings were given by Mrs. C. E. Steady and Mrs. J. M. Cook and Mrs. Thomas Robertson sang "Where the River Shannon Flows" and "Tipperary." She was accompanied by Mrs. Frank Griggs.

Mrs. Louise F. Lamplin gave two delightful solos, "I Cannot Sing Old Songs" and "Love's Golden Dreams" while Mrs. Emil Dohmert sang "My Grandma's Advice."

A feature of the afternoon was a handkerchief shower complimenting Mrs. Helen Belts, whose birthday anniversary it was, and during the final hour a dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. Hall being assisted by Mrs. Delta and Mrs. Griggs. Guests other than club members were Mrs. Van Allen of Hood River, Mrs. Gadwa, Mrs. Alex McKenize and Mrs. Hemphill. Mrs. Cas Powell and Mrs. Griggs.

Woman Thinks She is Privileged to Talk

"If anyone ever had a miserable stomach I surely had. It was growing worse, too, all the time. Had severe pains and attacks every ten days or two weeks and had to call a doctor, who could only relieve me for short while. Two years ago last February I took a treatment of May's Wonderful Remedy and I have not had a spell of pain or misery since. My friends just wonder that I am looking so well. I feel I am privileged to talk about it." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

BRONCHITIS CHEST COLDS

When that tightness appears in your chest and the sharp pains signify inflammation and congestion you need a hot application right away. You'll feel lots better in the morning. It's a grand reliable remedy that all who use it praise. 30 cents. R. C. Wells & Co., LeRoy, N. Y.
