

People Here and There

W. H. Thomas, who owns women's apparel shops here, in Walla Walla and Wenatchee, returned on No. 1 this morning from Walla Walla after visiting his two Washington stores on business.

Ben Colvin, formerly engaged in the stock raising business in Umatilla county, now a resident of Walla Walla, arrived this morning from Walla Walla to transact business.

Every now and then Dr. D. N. Reber of this city sees in a New York newspaper or magazine the features of a young lady whose looks are familiar. She is Jean Reber, Dr. Reber's daughter, known on the stage as Jean Ribera who attained success in New York during the past season in "The Magic Melody." This month it is Munsey's magazine which shows a picture of Miss Reber.

In order that his students may become better Americans, Prof. J. A. Yeager, of Adams school, brought in a class Monday afternoon to witness the naturalization examination in circuit court.

There are five W. F. Smiths in Portland and they have quite a time keeping their mail separated. For that reason, the one in Pendleton Monday prefers to be called Wilfred F. Smith. Mr. Smith is now assistant to V. W. Tomlinson, in the naturalization department, and during the war he had charge of the government employment service in Oregon.

Nine good citizens and true of Milton were in Pendleton Monday in interests of the proposed Union high school there. The party, which met at the home of Mrs. M. J. Cocksburn, former county commissioner; Robert McEwen and Henry Groth, school directors; H. L. Frazier, banker; C. S. Cheahire, hardware merchant; P. E. Cocksburn, farmer; C. E. Spence, Bruce Shangle, postmaster, and C. A. Norman.

There was six inches of snow in Duncan when F. W. Kendall left there Friday. Mr. Kendall who is a forest ranger and who is in the forestry office here for a few days detail work, says that the snow will be good for the range.

Recent heavy winds have not damaged wheat fields in the Cold Springs country but in stage and Despain gulches some bad losses were experienced, according to Everett King, of Cold Springs, who is in town today. The soil is heavier in the Cold Springs than in the regions south and west. One farmer is reported to have had 200 acres of wheat badly blown.

One hundred or more persons who attended the Parish Aid dinner for the Church of the Redeemer last evening partook of one of the most famous dishes known in this section. It was Major Lee Moorhouse's chicken mulligan. The mulligan required two days in the making and contained among other things, the following ingredients: 50 pounds of potatoes, 12 fat hens, 10 pounds of onions, large quantities of peas, string beans, corn, mushrooms, tomatoes and carrots, garlic and water. This made 20 gallons and it cooked two days. Mrs. Glen Bushee assisted the major in the preparation of this dish.

W. W. Green, county school superintendent, visited the school at Athena yesterday afternoon.

L. M. Peterson, attorney from Echo, spent yesterday in Pendleton on legal business.

Claude Pritchett, of Freewater, was in town Monday. He was appointed trustee for W. N. Brady, bankrupt. C. W. Husted of Echo is a Pendleton visitor today.

W. J. Conley of Arlington is at the Golden Rule. W. F. Pabst is here today from Prairie City, Washington.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

TOO TIRED TO EAT?

Rest a Bit, Eat Slowly, Then Take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

In this way you will avoid indigestion, your stomach will feel tonic effect, and in a short time you will have better appetite, more digestive strength, better assimilation, and will find your "food tastes good."

One grateful woman writes: "I earnestly recommend all women who wish to be made new, or who are troubled with that tired feeling, to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It wonderfully relieved me of sour stomach, distress and belching."

A well-known Justice of the Peace in Indiana says Hood's Sarsaparilla made "food taste good," as after taking three bottles he can now eat three hearty meals a day, works hard and sleeps sound. Doesn't this appeal to you—to eat well, work hard & sleep well? Then get Hood's Sarsaparilla. As a gentle laxative, Hood's Pills help greatly.

GERMANY IS DARING ALLIES SAYS MAIL

(By United Press)

LONDON, April 6.—Germany is attempting to see "how far the treaty of Versailles may be disregarded with safety," the Mail said today, commenting on the advance of Reichwehr troops into the neutral zone in violation of the treaty. Newspapers generally looked upon the advance of Teutonic troops as a deliberate militaristic challenge to the allies. They took the position that the German excuse that the advance was necessary to restore order is unwarranted because the communist groups had already agreed to lay down their arms.

OTTO HELL GETS NEW APPELATION WHEN HE STRIKES U. S. PORT

HOQUIAM, Wash., April 6.—When the army recruiting sergeant here asked a husky applicant for his name, his visitant said, "O. Hell." Then he hastened to explain. He said his full name was Otto Hell and he came from Bavaria. But the name of "O. Hell" stuck to him ever since he left Ellis Island. He asked that the nickname be removed if he joined, as he wanted to be called "Private Hell" or "Otto Hell," instead of being known all the time as "O. Hell." The recruiting sergeant was sympathetic, but thought it couldn't be done.
