Shoes Short of Vamp

Tassels long, heavy and gray bob from almost every form of head covering but seem most at home from the little close round Chinese hats of straw, silk faced in contrasting tint. Beds of gayly colored wood in shapes quaint and bizarre circle crowns of tulle amidst a fluff of tulle for brim and swaying strands of varicolored beads anchored to opposite sides of fan brimmed Cleopatraesque head dresses hang in festive festoons beneath the chin or ching of ladies addicted to the Oriental modes. Foot notes of the season become more and more short vamped and Frenchy as well as ornate of strap, buckle and bow. Their prices are as high as their French heels and after you have purchased the necessary summer quota of one white pair, one patent kid pair, one brown suede pair and one of grey you will undoubtedly be as short of cash as they are of vamp. They are worth most any sacrifice however, for so seductively alluring and high arched and small do they make the foot that the female who longs to be a vamp will find the short vamp a telling factor in her heart's desire.

CHICAGO HAS GREATEST HOME LACK IN HISTORY

CHICAGO, April 8.—Chicago faces the greatest home famine in its history, according to Robert Bartlett Jr., manager of a real estate concern here. "Practically every available space for sub-dividing has been sold," Bartlett said. "It isn't the land question that's worrying real estate dealers—it's the building question. There are more families in Chicago now than it has room for. Builders are unable to erect houses because of the high price and scarcity of material. Material can't be touched regardless of the money the contractor is able to pay. Where the material goes I cannot say definitely. The only plausible reason I can find for the shortage is the large number of factories under construction. Dealers seem to give this class of trade preference to the home builder. If drastic means are not adopted soon to cope with the situation, Chicago will lose a great number of its populace because of the inability to house them. The situation is so pressing that many people are moving into unfinished buildings with possibly no roof, or unheated. There are many buildings in Chicago now under construction with little hope of immediate completion. Because of the building shortage many families of three to five are required to live in a single room where they are forced to pay unheard of rent."

TURKISH SUIT AND JAZZ DRESS SHOWN

Today's shopping tour disclosed a novelty, the new Jazz dresses in net, in satin, in cloth—for "jazz" refers to embroidery. Illustrated is a Gidding model of navy twill with an apron effect of silk cord and wooden beads. Beside it is one of the most interesting of spring's tailored suits. It's Turkish. The skirt consists of two equal widths of material, tricotine, with a space left free at either side for the feet.

A close turban made of narrow bands of alternating varicolored ribbons, quaintly frayed presents a surface not unlike the grooved hair edged back of the armadillo. A small round hat of rose straw has a turned up brim all faced with narrow rose hued grosgrain ribbons sewed together in neat and vertical rows that fray out in a riot of silky rosy fluff at the brim edge. Another quaint ribbon conceit is a tall narrow turban of midnight blue sath shaped like a Cosma's cap which is completely covered with wee wiggly loops of tiny blue velvet ribbon to simulate
