

CAR FROM ELEVATED CATAPULTS INTO STREET AFTER COLLISION, NO ONE KILLED IN BIG ACCIDENT

Car Was Knocked Off the Track When Train Collided With Another; Twelve Taken to Hospital. One is Serious.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Passengers on an elevated train had a remarkable escape from death here yesterday when they were catapulted into the street, a distance of 25 feet, in the midst of the debris of the car. The car was knocked off the elevated structure by collision with another train and was demolished. About a dozen passengers were removed to hospitals, but only one woman was seriously hurt.

RUMORS SAY BAVARIA PLANS FOR SEPARATION

BY CARL D. Groat
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
BERLIN, April 12.—Reports of a new revolutionary plot and a movement to declare a separation of the south German states, led by Bavaria, continue to be current here today. The Russian commissioner of order admitted he had been advised that the plotters had armed students, who were to be among the active forces in the proposed uprising.
