A Fashion Review of Spring Modes

Man would never admit it—but the woman of today will say for herself that she is no longer the slave of one mode. No more do the tall, and short, the stout and slender figure have to conform to one mode, the edict of designers. This is a day of a many sided mode. Not one but many are the silhouettes for Spring and emphasis is laid on variety, in silhouette, in design and in trimming, and in all the vastly important details, variety is the outstanding feature, and few costumes are content with a single material or even a single color. The American woman, like the Parisienne has come to consult her type more and more and puts no one mode to be the criterion of her tastes. Her one desire in planning her costume is to express her own individuality in a chic manner. Chic after all, is merely being simple in an artful way. The French designers who create it quite dazzle you by their seeming lack of complexity. Does it not seem that the mind of a child is forever entering into the smartest of the imports?

Individuality is the keynote of the season, and will go all the way from grandmother's hoops to straight line frocks. Of course, almost all sleeves are short in varying lengths and skirts have a slim silhouette in spite of the fact that some of them are circular. The length is rather determined by the individual taste. The more conservative are wearing theirs about shoe top length while the extreme throws sensibility to the winds and flaunts hers at nine, ten or even farther from the ground.

Extraordinary Style in these Hand Bags and Party Boxes

They are all the rage, too. Bags of moire silk and leathers, prettily lined and snappy in style. Canteen bags or party boxes in various shapes that are new and very much the vogue. Prices are about what you want to pay.

CLOTHES PRICES TO STAY UP UNTIL 1921

Manufacturers Tell Government Officials High Wages Will Increase Costs.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The price of clothing will not go down until 1921. This announcement was made at the Department of Justice, following a conference between Howard H. Ferguson, special assistant to the Attorney-General, and clothing manufacturers.

The manufacturers declared the increased wages in the needle and textile industries make it necessary to maintain the present level of prices for some time.

Henry Hillman, of the United Garment Workers, announced to the conference that increased wages would be sought, and the manufacturers indicated that this increase would be added to the price of Fall clothing.
