CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS IN MEXICO ABANDONED

LLOYD-GEORGE SAYS GERMANY NOT TO BLAME

British Government Does Not Consider That Treaty Has Been Violated Nor Bad Faith Shown Says Premier.

STATEMENT FOLLOWS CHARGE OF MILLERAND

Request for Doubled Army Declared Not Unreasonable and Leniency Said Allowable for Nation That is Sick.

(By United Press.) SAN REMO, April 23.—The British government does not consider that Germany has violated the treaty or has shown bad faith in its execution, Lloyd-George stated in an interview today. He indicated that Britain does not consider unreasonable the German request to increase the army from the 100,000 allowed by the treaty to double that number.

His statement followed a statement by Premier Millerand of France, declaring that Germany had repeatedly violated the treaty. "Germany is a sick country," declared the British premier. "She may be compared to a paralyzed man whose members will not longer obey the commands of his brain. Consequently we cannot expect of her what we would demand of a healthy country."

HENRY HOBSON TO LEAD COLORED BOYS IN FIELD

Pendleton's Colored Tigers are once again on the baseball map, following a reorganization meeting which was held last night at Bazell's cleaning works. M. H. Hobson was elected to manage the nine and he is ready to sign up games with any and all comers. Mr. Hobson may be found at Patton's barber shop.

LIBERTY BONDS HOLD UP THROUGH STOCK SLUMP

(By United Press.) WASHINGTON, April 23.—Liberty bonds gave a "wonderfully good account of themselves," Assistant Secretary Leffingwell of the treasury department said today in discussing the recent period of great depreciation of miscellaneous securities. This period came to a climax Wednesday when the New York stock exchange suffered the most hectic day in months through a rush of selling orders which broke the quotations of practically all securities. "Liberty bonds are standing on their own feet without artificial support," said Leffingwell. He and other treasury officials believe Liberty bonds and Victory notes will reach par.

GRUNAU ADMITS THAT STRIKE HAS FAILED

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, April 23.—Striking switchmen met here today at the call of insurgent union officials, in another attempt to bring about settlement of the unauthorized walkout. Admitting defeat of the outlaw movement, John Grunau, president of the Chicago yardmen association, said he would advise the men to return to work.

Take Testimony in Homestead Case Testimony was taken Thursday afternoon before Justice J. H. Parkes in the case of the United States vs. Ernest Whitely, a homesteader who lives beyond Milton. The government has brought suit to cancel proof on Whitely's entry. The contest will be settled at Washington.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS HUMILIATE SENATOR REED BECAUSE OF FIGHT AGAINST THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

WIFE MISLAID, WILL GIVE $10 TO ANYONE WHO CAN FIND HER

(By United Press.) HUGO, Okla., April 23.—J. H. Miller, railroad man, lost something, so he advertised in a local paper, offering $10 reward. It is his wife that's missing.

AMERICAN BARRACKS IN MANCHURIA FIRED ON

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, April 23.—The barracks of the American railroad inspector at Hallar, northwestern Manchuria, were fired on during fighting between Japanese, Czechoslovak and Chinese forces recently, according to a cablegram to the war department today. The message said that Japanese did the firing which is believed to have been accidental.

Major Inouye, Japanese military attaché here, yesterday denied the newspaper report from Hallar that Americans had been fired upon from Hallar. Today's war department dispatches apparently referred to the same incident. Nothing was said about any American being in the barracks during the firing. The war department cable added that the Japanese attacked a Czechoslovak troop train, killing an officer and wounding an officer and 12 men. The situation is described as "extremely critical."

HIGH MEXICAN HELD FOR VIOLATION OF MANN ACT

DOUGLAS, April 23.—General Ignacio Pesquera, chief justice of the supreme court of Mexico, was arrested upon arrival here today by United States department of justice agents who preferred a charge of violation of the Mann "white slave" act against the distinguished Mexican. Pesquera was said to be the Carranzista peace delegate to the Sonora rebels. He is said to have admitted intimacy with Maria Rodriguez, 23, beautiful Mexican girl, extending over a period of five years. She accompanied him here and on other trips into the United States, according to department of justice agents. He has a wife and nine children residing in Mexico.

HANDICAP GOLF MATCH TO BE STAGED SUNDAY

The first handicap golf tournament of the year will be held Sunday over the course of the Pendleton Golf Club. Competition will be over the 18-hole course, with regular medal play rules in force. Two and possibly more trophies will be put up for the winning cards turned in. Charles Jefferson, professional at the club, is arranging the tournament and he has asked that all men who intend to enter the handicap notify him today or Saturday so that he can work out the handicaps. A large entry list from the club is looked for. If the handicap tourney on Sunday is a success, further such events will be held each Sunday until the weather becomes too warm for golf. It has been some length of time since tournament play was tried at the local club.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Senator McNary today announced that he will introduce a bill in the senate tomorrow seeking to curb shoe profiteering. The measure will provide that manufacturers shall stamp on the soles the price for which the shoes are to be sold to retailers.

BUTTE IS QUIET WITH SOLDIERS GUARDING MINES

Strikers no Longer Try to Picket Mines But Only Few Men are Reported at Work; Soldiers Guard Approaches.

(By United Press.) JOPLIN, April 23.—Senator Reed was humiliated early today by the democratic convention when it refused to accept him even as a district delegate to the national convention. Due to Reed's fight on the league of nations, administration forces flatly refused to send him to the convention, although the fifth district named him as one of its delegates. The wets won a victory when four delegates at large convention elected, the dry candidates being defeated.

JOHNSON MAINTAINS 15,849 VOTE LEAD

LINCOLN, April 23.—Johnson today maintains the lead as the choice of Nebraska republicans for president. Of 1549 precincts in the state, votes in 1363 have been counted, giving Johnson a lead of 15,849 votes. William Jennings Bryan who is running in fourth place for delegate-at-large to San Francisco, continued to show slight gains over Berge, a Bryan candidate, who is in fifth place. On the face of returns received Neville and Shallenberger, Hitchcock's delegates, lead the field of eight candidates, with Stephens, high man of the Bryan candidates, in third place and Bryan fourth.

END OF TOMBSTONE TRIAL IS IN SIGHT

(By United Press.) TOMBSTONE, April 23.—Prosecutor French today announced that he has decided to reduce the length of his case materially and hopes to close his rebuttal testimony today. "That's a very encouraging prediction," said the court.

FORTY BOYS AND GIRLS JOIN LIVESTOCK CLUBS

Over 40 Umatilla county boys and girls have signed up for livestock clubs which are being organized cooperatively by the County Farm Bureau and the public schools. Umatilla boys and girls will engage in club work, as 25 have signified a desire to join either a pig or calf club. At Columbia and Hermiston, pig and calf clubs are also being formed. These localities also show great interest in garden clubs and in May, Fred Bennett, county agent, will visit the gardens to see that they get the right start. Five Umatilla boys are doing good work in their dairy herd project. Each boy keeps a record of cost of the milk production and the cost of feed consumed. The milk is weighed and tested for butter fat each month at the high school. Pigs for the pig clubs will be purchased in the Walla Walla valley, but it will be necessary to get the Jersey calves in the Willamette valley, states Mr. Bennett. L. J. Allen, state livestock club leader, is rounding up a bunch of good calves in the valley for this purpose.
