New Minister Takes Church
Rev. Samuel Snively has been chosen as pastor of the Nazarene church of Pendleton, to succeed the late Rev. E. V. Hulse. Rev. Snively comes to Pendleton from Walla Walla, but was originally in the ministry at British Columbia. He was formerly a minister in the United Brethren church.

Pendleton Boys Honored
Lowell Stockman and Theodor Hayden, former Pendleton high school students now attending O. A. C., have recently been elected sergeant-at-arms and athletic manager, respectively, of the class of 1921 at the college for the coming year. Both are members of the sophomore vigilance committee.

Work on Bank Starts Monday
Work on laying the foundation for the new Bank of Echo will start Monday, according to T. H. Banfield, of Parker & Banfield, who have the contract. Excavation has already been finished for the building, which will be 30 by 65 feet. A foreman will come from Portland Monday to take charge of the work at Echo.

No 'Y' Hike For Saturday
There will be no 'Y' hike tomorrow, Cash Wood, county secretary, announced today. Instead, Mr. Wood will assist in the local track championships, which are to be held at Round-Up park between the school children of Pendleton and the Pendleton district. This afternoon Mr. Wood went to Athena to assist in the championships being held there between the schools of the Athena-Weston-Helix district.

Elks Admit Three
Three new members were admitted to Pendleton lodge of Elks at the weekly meeting last night. They are H. G. Thompson, W. H. Goodman and R. Leisinger.

New Employee Arrives
Lynn Neal, a recent graduate of Link's business college in Portland, has accepted a position with the Horne-Wirth agency. His duties will be those of book-keeper and stenographer.

Leave for Montana
John Montgomery and Charles H. Marsh departed this morning on a business trip to their land holdings in the Judith Basin country in Montana. They plan to be absent from the city for several days.

Indian Disgraced With Chief
James Williams, a Nez Perce Indian, was quite indignant at Chief of Police Al Roberts for suggesting last night that he had been drinking lemon extract. James said it was hard cider. Whichever it was, the effect cost James $10 in police court this morning. He paid.

Man Fined $50 in Police Court
Dyke Hill forfeited $50 bail in Police court this morning when he failed to appear for trial on a charge of violating the morals code of the city ordinances. He was arrested in company with a Jane Doe last evening by Patrolman Myers. Her case is to be called later.

Baptist Sunday School Picnic
Forty-five boys and girls of the Baptist Sunday School went on a picnic yesterday afternoon to Myers' grove in the east end. Games of all kinds were played and a picnic lunch served, consisting of fried eggs, toasted wieners and lunches brought by the youngsters. The party started at 4 o'clock and ended at 8 o'clock. F. M. Riley and Miss Ninta Clark were responsible for the success of the affair.

Education Day Set for May 16
Sunday, May 16, has been designated by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Churchill as Education Day and efforts are to be made to have every church in Oregon take up the two-mill tax and the higher educational relief bill. The importance of these two measures is to be spread in the churches as it has been for several weeks among other institutions of the state.

Nevada Man Not Yet Appointed
Although endorsement of the candidacy of J. H. Shaughnessy, of Reno, for interstate commerce commissioner has been sent in by nearly every commercial body in the northwest, he has not yet been appointed by President Wilson, according to word received by the Pendleton Commercial Association. Ten senators also recommended the Nevada man. It is considered doubtful if the recommendations will be followed, it is said from one source.

Arrange for Joint Offices
Arrangements were completed last night by the Tri-State Auto Club to have joint offices with the Pendleton Commercial Association in the new Elks building. The agreement was reached in a meeting between officers of the club and the president and heads of committees of the Pendleton Commercial Association. The action of the club probably will result in ratification before the board of directors of the Tri-State Auto club, which meets at Walla Walla.

Track Squad Has Good Practice
Following the track pep meeting held yesterday at the high school a large number of boys signed up for work, and appeared on the cinders to await instructions. As a result the best work-out held this year was made possible. Coach Orville B. Reeves is quite pleased at the showing which was made. The try-out for the school track team and the inter-class meet will be held at the Round-

How About Your Catarrh? Do You Want Real Relief?
Then Throw Away Your Sprays and Other Make-shift Treatment.
Why? Simply because you have overlooked the cause of catarrh, and all of your treatment has been misdirected. Remove the cause of the clogged-up accumulations that choke up your air passages, and they will naturally disappear for good. But no matter how many local applications you use to temporarily clear them away, they will promptly re-appear until their cause is removed.
S. S. S. is an antidote to the millions of tiny Catarrh germs with which your blood is infected. A thorough course of this remedy will cleanse and purify your blood, and remove the disease germs which cause Catarrh.
