HOUSING OF THOUSAND ATHLETES TO BE TASK

(By Associated Press.)
ANTWERP, April 23.—The American team of hockey players who have arrived here apparently do not share the optimism of the local Olympic games committee regarding Antwerp's ability comfortably to accommodate the thousands of athletes and visitors who are coming here for the Olympic games this summer. There has been extreme difficulty in finding hotel accommodations even for the one hundred skaters now here in the tourist crowded hotels.

It is the belief of the Americans that the American team, which is coming here in August could charter a steamer and live aboard it, arrangements might be made through the war department to utilize the army barracks in Antwerp as its base. This suggestion will be by Cornelius Fellows, manager of the hockey team, on his return to the United States. The prices at hotels and restaurants, which already were high, have increased considerably since last month.

INDIANAPOLIS MOB STORMS JAIL, TRIES TO LYNCH MURDERER

(By Associated Press.)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 23.—A mob which grew until it numbered more than 700 men made an ineffectual attempt to take a negro from the Marion county jail last night. It is believed that the mob would have lynched William Ray, colored, 19 years old, if it had been possible to break the heavy cordon of police which guarded the jail. Ray is the confessed murderer of 14-year-old Mariah Huff, a white girl. The police directed by Harry B. Smith, adjutant-general of Indiana, forced the mob to disperse. It is feared further attempts may be made to take the negro from the jail.

THE ART OF HUGO BALLIN
Furniture dealers have increased their business many times through the direct influence of Goldwyn's art director, Hugo Ballin. He is recognized as the most profound authority on period furniture and interior decorations now engaged in arranging settings for the screen. His accuracy of detail, his simplicity of arrangement, and his exquisite taste, have given photography enthusiasts a new standard in interior decoration which they try to apply in their own homes. Many of the people who see motion pictures are young married folk; and the hints which Mr. Ballin, Goldwyn's art director, gives them directly through the medium of the screen have been traced through furniture dealers. The Goldwyn Pictures Corporation has received several letters of congratulation recently to the effect that customers have asked for certain particular pieces of period furniture similar to those which have appeared in recent Goldwyn productions.

Mr. Ballin, who designs all Goldwyn settings, is a well-known scenic artist who received his art training abroad. He is a member of the Institute of Arts and Design and of the National Academy of Design.

ROBERT WARWICK IS WARY OF VISITORS WHO LIKE BOXING

While Making "An Adventure in Hearts" Star Has Interesting Hobbies
A husky stranger strode into the moving picture studio recently where Robert Warwick the soldier screen star, was working on "An Adventure in Hearts," his new picture. After the scene was finished the visitor, who took a great interest in the filming, engaged Mr. Warwick in conversation. He mentioned to the ex-Major that he had "done considerable boxing." Now boxing is one of the star's pet hobbies. Before many minutes he had suggested a mill with the gloves and the two retired to the gymnasium near the studio. They fought a couple of fast rounds, then the stranger quite simply slipped over a hard right and Mr. Warwick reeled from the impact. Norman Selby, better known as Kid McCoy and now a film actor at the Warwick studio, was looking on and laughed rather over-heartily. Major Warwick suspected something and stopped. Where upon Selby introduced the ex-soldier's opponent to him. It was Bill Lurie, the well known west coast pugilist, who a few days before had beaten Willie Meehan, twice the conqueror of Jack Dempsey when the latter was not quite so well known as he is now.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.
• Headaches, "dullness" and that laz feeling come from constipation and disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "tired" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c
