LONDON. May 1.—Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, has carried the whole of his budget proposals. Motions for the rejection of an increase in the excess profits duty and the corporation tax were defeated in the house of commons tonight by a vote of 257 to 75.

Mr. Chamberlain, defending his propocals, said it was his duty to make a real effort while trade was prosperous to reduce the vast load of debt which was a potential danger to the country's credit.

In telling the story she occasion, all y asked a few questions. One of them was brought to the governor of the feast, what did he say?"

A little girl, remembering what she had heard, probably on some feative occasion, called out:

"Here's luck!"—Geveland Plain Dealer.
