the city's interests and the added attention to detail resulting from the work of a paid employee whose duty it is to see that the city's administrative operations, including street cleaning, repairs, policing, etc., are carried on with business-like despatch. Therefore he it resolved, that the Pendleton Commercial Association in regular session convened hereby endorses the commission government-city manager plan for adoption by the people of Pendleton. To Prepare Amendment. Be it further resolved that the subject be referred to the committee on city interests with instructions to investigate the subject more fully, and to prepare a charter amendment providing for a commission consisting of four commissioners and a mayor, all to be elected from the city at large, all to serve without pay, the commission to have authority to employ a city manager to serve as its executive agent and to pay the city manager such a salary as may be deemed reasonable; the city manager to be chosen on a basis of his witness and without reference to whether or not he is at the time of his election a resident of Pendleton. He it further resolved, that after the proposed charter amendment or amendments have been drafted and approved by this association that steps be taken to present the subject to the people at the first regular or special election that is held. Many Favor Plan. Considerable discussion took place before the resolution was voted upon, most of the speakers strongly supporting the city manager plan. Among those expressing themselves as favorable to the new plan were G. M.

Rice, E. J. Murphy, President J. B. Haley, J. W. Maloney, Clyde McKay, E. B. Aldrich and others. Sam Wright recalled what he had heard of the experiences of La Grande with the manager plan. He said at La Grande has a commission of three first the people were elated with it but
