LOCAL FANS TO PEEP AT BUCKAROOS AGAIN SUNDAY AGAINST HELIX

Hilltop Team Has Won Two and Lost One Game and Plays Ball All the Time; New Umpire Will be on Job Sunday.

Local fans will have another chance on Sunday afternoon to see the Pendleton team in action on its home field when Manager Spell trots out his Buckaroos against the Helix nine. The boys from the wheat belt have a fast outfit of local talent and Manager Kendall believes he can give the local men a rubbing.

Many fans were disappointed last Sunday in the calling off of the Milton-Freewater game because of rain during the morning. There will be no repetition of this on Sunday unless a torrent falls and the game will be staged, as scheduled, at 2:45 o'clock.

The boys had another stiff workout last night at Round-Up park, laying their bats aside only when darkness dropped over the field. The team is shaping up in far better manner than in the first game and the team that takes the flag in the little Blue Mountain league is going to have to beat the Pendleton team to do it.

Several changes in the umpiring staff of the league are in prospect, owing to the recent resignation of two of the indicator holders. Just who will officiate here on Sunday is not decided, but Shorty Miles, who worked in the first game here, will be in the Buckaroo lineup.

Other games on Sunday will be played at Athena and Milton. The Walls team plays at Milton and Pilot Rock goes to Athena.
