

Good Style and Economy

You know that clothes are sometimes stylish, and nothing else: they're made to catch the eye of the man who's going to buy clothes.

They do catch it; and he thinks he's getting something substantial, when he's only getting style. If there's no sound quality back of it, the style is soon gone; the clothes look pretty bad.

LIVING ORGANISMS FOUND IMPRISONED IN ANCIENT AMBER

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, May 15.—Living organisms, imprisoned in amber and believed to be incomparably older than the microbes found in Egyptian papyrus, have been discovered by Dr. Galippe, of the French Academy of Science, and it is thought by some biologists that these organisms may probably be among the very early elements possessing life, to inhabit the earth. Amber is said to have been formed in the very early stages of the earth's history but Dr. Galippe is convinced the micro-organisms could only have been imprisoned in the amber while it was in course of formation. As soon as these organisms were set free from their prison they are said to have manifested very evident signs of life and, when carefully cultivated developed great activity. The organisms are of course very elementary but this fact detracts little from the marvel that they are living survivors from a period far earlier than that of prehistoric man.

FOUR PERCENT SECOND BONDS CONVERTIBLE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—In connection with the exchange of temporary Liberty Bonds of the second and third loans and converted first loan bonds for permanent bonds carrying the full number of interest coupons, the federal reserve bank of San Francisco announces to holders of four per cent bonds of the second Liberty loan that they still have the privilege of converting such bonds into bonds bearing four and one-quarter per cent interest, known as second Liberty loan converted four and one-quarter per cent bonds. If presentation is made through banks to reach the federal reserve bank of San Francisco on or before May 14, the increased rate of one-quarter of one per cent will become effective commencing the following day. Second Liberty loan four per cent bonds presented on or after May 15 will still be convertible into four and one-quarter per cent bonds. But the increased rate of interest will not become effective until next November.

"It is, therefore, to the interest of holders of second Liberty loan four per cent bonds that they present their bonds for exchange and conversion immediately," says the Federal reserve bank's announcement.
