Operation is Difficult.

Clair Edwards, Pendleton man who went to Portland to have a piece of steel removed from his eye, has had the fragment removed, according to word received here today. Six surgeons were called in Portland before one could be found who would attempt the delicate operation. It was at first thought that the sight of the eye could be saved but later word says Mr. Edwards will be blind in the injured eye.

PHILADELPHIA ADOPTS

delphis's Director of Public Safety, James T. Cortelyou, recently announced a new code of rules to govern boxing bouts in that city which it is believed will benefit the ring sport there. Under the old rules, which had been in vogue for about nine years, all bouts were limited to six rounds but Director Cortelyou, has decided to allow bouts of eight rounds duration. He claims that by lengthening the number of rounds, bexers will be less apt to "stail" and every fighter who signs up for a match will have to "weigh in" at, or under, the stpulated weight called for in his contract. The director also has asserted that the new code will be enforced to the letter and has warned all promoters, managers and boxers to that effect. Following are some of the new rules:

Seconds shall use a fan and not a
