METHODIST STILL HEAD LOCAL CHURCH LEAGUE

How They Stand

Intermediate teams:	W.	L.	Pct.
Methodists	2	0	1.000
Episcopalians	1	0	1.000
Christians	1	1	.500
Presbyterians	1	2	.333
Baptists	0	2	.000

Last night's intermediate league game between the Presbyterians and Christians resulted in a victory for the Presbyterians. The Christians were held helpless by the superior pitching and airtight fielding of their opponents.

Friday night, as a part of the senior league series, the Episcopalians will play the Methodists, and in the same series, the Baptists will play the Methodists May 25 while the Christians will play the Presbyterians May 25.

Games of the intermediate league include one between the Christians and Methodists May 26, and one between the Baptists and Episcopalians May 24.

From the senior league will be picked players to compete with the Pendleton Buckaroos later in the season.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The National Fruit Preservers, and Fruit Products Association announced here today that its members would stay out of the sugar market until the price comes down from the present level.

HOUSE EXPECTED TO PASS BONUS BILL

(By United Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The soldier bonus bill, approved by majority republicans in caucus last night, will be passed by the house within a few days, republican leaders predicted today. Despite opposition of the treasury department to any bonus, republican advocates are certain that enough democrats will vote for the bill to frustrate any effort to block its passage.

SAN FRANCISCO CHEMIST DROPPED FROM SIGHT IS DISCOVERED ON TRAIN

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Dr. Arthur Lachman San Francisco chemist and scientific author, who mysteriously dropped from sight in December, 1919, was found yesterday on a train en route from Chico, Cal., to this city and has been returned to his home here. A nation-wide search for the missing scientist had been in progress for five months.

FOOLING FAN IS ONLY FUN FOR REGULARS

The only consolation the first team of the Pendleton Bucks got from the game yesterday was the fooling of one of the three spectators present.

After the smoke had cleared away the afore mentioned gent was heard muttering, "Well the scrubs came close to walloping the firsts." When asked just how or where he got that way, and finding himself due for a battle royal between the other two fans he said, "Well you see I am a stranger here, just came up from Boardman to see this game. Manager Spell told me it was his first team that won; how was I to know that the seconds were better than the regulars? But now I see why they are called scrubs, for they surely did mop up on the boys."

The whole thing in a nut shell is that the boys who are wearing the new uniforms felt in need of a little hitting practice so chose the Yanni-gans for their meat. They proved most a little too tough to chew and at the end of five torrid innings found themselves on the short end of a six to five score. With "Rube" Williams pitching and "Boonie" Hays receiving, backed up with almost errorless support the scrubs proved good material. Williams pitches like Cicotte, that is he throws with the same arm and goes good in warm weather, and yesterday was hot enough to enable him to put plenty of stuff on the old ball. But three hits were garnered off his delivery while Hull was touched up for six. Errors save the regulars a two run lead in the first inning. Three baggers by Williams, Vaughan and Rosenberg started things a rolling for the winners and from then on they were never headed.

PLAY CHESS BY RADIO

Hegnan T. Whitaker, former inter-collegiate champion, and Edward Lasker of Chicago, but formerly of London, recently figured in a contest conducted by radio.

The plays on the chess-board were transmitted by the radio station of the United States navy at Anacostia, Va. It is claimed this was the first time this ancient game was conducted in such a novel fashion.
