JOHNSON LEADS WOOD IN VOTE OF OREGON
UMATILLA COUNTY GOES OVERWHELMINGLY FOR ALL EDUCATIONAL BILLS IN VOTE

CHAMBERLAIN LEADS 2 TO 1, KOZER LOOKS LIKE SECRETARY AND STANFIELD LEAD SWELLS

(By United Press.)
PORTLAND, May 22.—Johnson this afternoon increased his lead over Wood, with incomplete returns from 23 of 36 counties of the state, to 2074, the vote compiled being: Johnson 14,098 and Wood 12,024. Wood managers refuse to concede the defeat of the general, claiming up state returns will overcome the opponent's present lead and show Wood the winner. However, indications are that Johnson has received the republican presidential endorsement. Hoover has 3970 and Lowden 4963.

(By Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, May 22.—Incomplete returns from 23 counties including 144 complete Multnomah county precincts, give Hoover 3,747; Johnson, 12,116; Lowden, 4,321 and Wood 11,358.

PORTLAND, May 22.—Returns compiled at 2:30 this afternoon from 27 counties, incomplete, including 144 complete precincts in Multnomah county give the following for president: Hoover 4041; Johnson 14,375; Lowden 5,640 and Wood 12,169.

CLAIMS 12,000 PLURALITY
PORTLAND, May 22.—Sanfield McDonald, state manager for Johnson, today claimed the state by a 12,000 plurality, based on returns at 11:30 this morning.

(By Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, May 22.—On the face of returns compiled at 11:30 today Senator Johnson had retained his lead over General Wood. Figures at this hour, compiled from 17 counties, including 96 complete precincts in Multnomah county, gave Hoover 2346; Lowden 2012; Wood 7229 and Johnson 8296.

Johnson Vote Jumps
PORTLAND, May 22.—Johnson jumped into a 1480 lead over Wood with compiling of incomplete returns from 22 or 23 counties of Oregon, following yesterday's primaries. Returns show Johnson 8494, Wood 6928, Lowden 4061 and Hoover 2943.

(By Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, May 22.—Returns from precincts complete in Multnomah county in yesterday's primary election gave Johnson 1847; Wood 1398; Lowden 644 and Hoover 431. State returns are exceptionally slow coming in, the latest figures showing Wood is leading outside by about 300 votes. Fifty six complete Multnomah county precincts give Chamberlain 650 and Starkweather 365.

CHAMBERLAIN WAY AHEAD
PORTLAND, May 22.—Chamberlain today continued to lead Starkweather by practically a two to one vote. Stanfield is 7527 ahead of Althaus for the republican senatorial nomination, with his lead increasing as returns come in. Chamberlain, according to latest figures, has a total of 4262, including Multnomah county and Starkweather 2291, a majority of 1971. Multnomah county gave Chamberlain 1955 votes to 1029 cast for Starkweather.

McARTHUR AND SINNOTT
McArthur and Sinnott are apparently both renominated for congress. Kozer looks like the secretary of state winner. All measures with the possible exception of capital punishment have been adopted. Lockley is now running next to Kozer, Schulderman having dropped to fifth. Jones is third and Wood is fourth. Parsons and Coburn come next. Joseph and Moser are leading for the senate from Multnomah. Farrell, Hume and Staples are next. Harburt is renominated by the republicans for sheriff. McCann and Olson are leading for republican delegates at large. Carey and McDonald are next. Evans is renominated for district attorney, Beveridge for county clerk.

Wood Starts Lead
PORTLAND, May 22.—Figures compiled at midnight by the Oregonian shows Wood is leading Johnson by 254 votes. Latest compilations show Wood 2859; Johnson 2495; Lowden 924 and Hoover 727. These returns are from 23 counties in the state, incomplete, including 96 scattering precincts in Multnomah county. Johnson leads Multnomah county and Wood leads outside counties.

Wood Leads Outside.
PORTLAND, May 22.—Returns early today from yesterday's primary indicated that General Wood had carried the state outside of Multnomah county and that Senator Johnson had carried Multnomah county. Johnson had a lead in the county of 277 votes early today and Wood's lead outside of Multnomah was 487. Chamberlain, according to early returns today, leads Starkweather, and Sinnott, Hawley and McArthur appear on the face of returns, to be renominated. Kozer appears to have a substantial plurality.

VENUSTIANO CARRANZA, FUGITIVE PRESIDENT OF MEXICO, IS KILLED

(By Associated Press.)
MEXICO CITY, May 22.—Venustiano Carranza, who fled from this city May 6, who took flight into the mountains of Puebla following the battle near Rinconada, was killed at 1 o'clock Thursday morning at Tlaxcalantongo, according to an official announcement here today. His companions, the names of whom are unknown, also were killed.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., May 22.—Exhausted after an all night struggle the pumps the crew of the steamer schooner Baxter came ashore today after winning a fight to save her from sinking. By an almost superhuman effort, the vessel was brought to dock a few minutes before the rising water in the hold reached the boilers and extinguished the fires. Part of the dock cargo was lost. The Baxter left Everett at midnight. The cargo began to shift when the schooner was off Marrowstone Point. The men kept at the pumps heroically and the ship reached here riding at an angle of 40 degrees.

GENERAL WOOD LEADS JOHNSON IN COUNTY VOTE; KEATOR WINS OVER PETERSON; RICHARDS LEADS

Related returns from the Ukiah precinct gave Schanep a majority of 12 there. This report with a five vote correction in the Schanep total reduced Richards lead to exactly 10 votes. With the vote in from 51 precincts Richards leads Schanep for county judgeship by only 17 votes. The missing Pilot Rock precincts gave a majority of 156 for Schanep, thus almost wiping out the Richards lead. The missing west end precincts will decide this contest.

General Leonard Wood was endorsed for president by the republicans of Umatilla county yesterday, having a lead of nearly 300 in the county on most complete available returns. District Attorney Keator on the face of the vote that is in has been renominated over S. D. Peterson by a margin of 250 or more. B. B. Richards is leading I. M. Schanep for county judge by nearly 200. C. E. Bean has a margin of nearly 100 for the republican nomination for commissioner and Barney Anderson has a small lead over Lane Hoon for the democratic nomination for county commissioner. Senator Chamberlain easily defeated Starkweather for the democratic senatorial nomination and neither E. N. Stanfield nor Congressman Sinnott had trouble in carrying this county.

SCHOOL BILLS CARRY
A bright feature of the returns today was the overwhelming support shown for the educational measures. All of them carried by margins of from two to one to three to one. The permanent roads measure carried by a substantial margin as did also the other initiative and referendum measures on the ballot. Complete returns from 49 out of the 84 precincts of Umatilla county were summarized by the East Oregonian this afternoon on the more spirited contests. The results from these precincts is as follows: 49 PRECINCTS COMPLETE Presidency—Johnson, 851; Lowden, 271; Wood, 909; Hoover, 123. District Attorney—Keator, 1213; Peterson, 896. County Judge—Richards, 1048; Schanep, 875. Co. Commissioner—Bean, 965; Demaris, 864. U. S. Senator—Chamberlain, 641; Starkweather, 250. Co. Commissioner—Anderson, 412; Hoon, 394. Precincts missing from the above summary were nine and 41 of Milton, Gibbon, No. 22, Adams, 29; Riverside, No. 28, Rieth, No. 45, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55 and 56 all west end precincts. Also the two Pilot Rock precincts and the Ukiah precincts. In some cases the boxes have not arrived at the clerk's office and in other cases the returns were all locked in the boxes and the results cannot be ascertained until the official count is made. Complete returns from 29 precincts of Umatilla county summarized by the East Oregonian showed Wood at that time leading Johnson by more than 200 votes in this county. The summary of the vote in the 29 precincts was as follows: 29 Precincts, Republican. Delegates—Second District—Cooper, 374; Curt, 1052; Donnell, 424; Brooks, 623. Presidency—Johnson, 42; Lowden, 182; Wood, 657; Hoover, 221. U. S. Senator—Abraham, 416; Stanfield, 882. Congressman—Jones, 425; Sinnott, 849. Secretary of State—Kozer, 324; Lockley, 268; Parsons, 178; Schulderman, 98; Wood, 179; Coburn, 109; Jones, 121. Public Service Com.—Corey, 738; Luper, 446.

TRY TO CALL SOLDIERS BONUS NEXT WEEK
WASHINGTON, May 22.—The House Rules committee today decided by a party vote of eight to four to make an effort to call up the soldiers' bonus bill Tuesday or Wednesday. A special rule was adopted limiting debates on the measure to five hours. The real fight will come on the rule which will be strongly opposed by majority democrats and republican opponents of the bill. Some bonus advocates claimed the rule in the present form is merely a trick to kill the bill.
