Freshmen Elect Lyceum Queen
Through the hard work of her class mates Thelma DuPuis, freshman candidate for Lyceum Queen in the high school contest, was elected over the other candidates by a safe margin. The contest was between the various classes of the high school, the one selling the most season tickets for the lyceum course being permitted to elect its candidate as queen. As a result of the freshman victory Miss DuPuis will receive the promised honors.

Men Urged to Aprily.

The Umatilia county Red Cross is urging all ex-service men who were injured or who contracted disease while in the service, to apply for a certificate of injury. The application must be made before a year after the date of discharge or resignation from the service. The Red Cross states that even though the injury or discase were of minor character, the certificate should be secured to protect service men and their dependents.

Boy Goes Through Window.

Alvin Ross, errand boy for The Peoples Warehouse, ran his bicycle through the two pane window of the Carrier Millinery store yesterday afternoon. The boy was coming down the street from the post office, and was attempting to turn into the alley near the shop when the wheel swerved, the bandle bars hitting the corner where the two panes join. Both panes were shamsed into a thousand pieces but the boy fortunately escaped entirely unhurt. The windows were insured.

LONG AND SHORT OF IT

"He reached so high he touched the sky"—and on the other hand—"he's only as big as a minute." The giant is Van Albert of Am-sterdam. He's 19, weighs 165-pounds and stands 8 feet, 5 inches in his socks. His little friend, Sopptoni, the midget, hails from Switzerland, and towers two feet in the air.
