PILOT ROCK TAKES ON HELIX NINE TOMORROW

Round-Up Park Will be Scene . of Played Over Game Resulting From Protest and Throwing Out of Recent Contest.

Fur is due to fly tomorrow after-noon at Round-Up park when Helix and Pilot Rock take the diamond to settle their little dispute of three weeks ago, when the Rock nine trot-ted out a bunch of alleged "ringers" and romped hime with a win. The game was protested by Helix, thrown out by President Ellis and ordered played over. Rivairy between the two towns is at fever heat.

Helix is conceded by many to be the strongest team in the teague and probably Pilot Rock is little less formidable, now that the season is well under way. The hill toppers showed their class Sunday by trimming the Walla Walla Bears 24 to 4, or thereabouts, the scorer having worn himself out keeping tab of the runs. All of Helix will move down fomorrow himself out keeping tab of the runs. All of Helix will move down tomorrow afternoon to assist their nine in faking Pilot Rock down the line again.

Out Pilot Rock way they are just as confident that their heroes can repeat the dose handed out at field a few sundays ago. Most of the civilian population in Pilot Rock will also move in and ground rules at Round-Up park may be found necessary, for a lot of Pendletonians will also be on hand for the fun.

Two umpires probably will be used hand for the run.

Two umpires probably will be used so that both sides wil have no complaints to make. The battle is one which vitally effects the standing of both teams and both demand complete both teams and both demand complete satisfaction. One umpire at such a game might have rough sailing.

Just who will be in the respective lineups will not be known until tomorrof. Managers Kendall and Casteel, however, are losing no time in whipping their athletes into shape for the hardest tussle of the year.

The game will be called as on Sundays, at 2:45 and the usual admission charge will be made.

47 FANS IN GAMBLING NET SPREAD AT CHICAGO

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, May 25.—Chicago made its first move Monday to stamp out gambling at baseball games when police and detectives arrested 47 bleacher spectators who were alleged to be making bets. The men will be arraigned today.
The raid was the outgrowth of action decided on recently between John Heydler, president of the National league, and B. B. Johnson, American league head, to stop gambling at reajor league parks.
Detectives have been stationed for Jor league parks.

Detectives have been stationed for a week, in the bleachers where the arrests were made. At th end of the second inning of the game between Philadelphia and Chicago a signal was ounded the men.

William Verek, president of the Chingo club, said all persons found guilty would be barred from his park here-

President Johnson was enthusiastic when informed of the arrests but de-clined to make any statement, because, he said, the arrests were made in a National league park.

The crusade against gambling has spread to the minor leagues. Club owners of the American Association, as well as the Three I and Western agues, have completed plans to com
