Offices Are Painted.
 The Northern Grain and Warehouse offices on Court street and the Sloan Bonnet Shop, also on Court street, have been painted on the outside. The offices and shop were recently painted and papered on the interior.

New Skylight Is Added
 A new skylight is one of the recent improvements to the Hamley & Co. Saddlery. The exterior of the building was painted this week as a finishing touch to renovations.

House Is Remodeled.
 The E. J. Murphy residence on Perkins avenue is being remodeled and renovated. Included in the new improvements already completed are new windows, a few fireplaces, complete new basement and furnace. Later a sun room is to be added.

Are In New Building.
 The International Harvester Company offices are being moved to a new building on Court street, owned by J. C. Clemens, the building is of hollow tile and replaces an old building, thus improving the corner location.

New Garage Occupied.
 Henry Schultz has completed a new garage building on Willow street. It is modern in every detail and is occupied by John Leuer, local automobile man.

Church Redecorated.
 Improvements to the Christian church are nearing completion. The church auditorium has been reinterred and repainted, and the basement has also been renovated. The woodwork on the exterior of the building has also been repainted and the stained glass windows, which are an attractive feature of the church, are being repaired.

RED BATTLE LINES SWAY TO AND FRO

(By United Press.)
 WARSAW, May 24.—Bolsheviki are today attacking in waves on the northern fighting front in a thrust to break the Polish lines, to open communication with East Prussia. The fiercest fighting in months is raging along a 30 mile battlefield. Villages are changing hands daily and lines are swaying to and fro.

"Oh, yes, indeed," the hospital corpsman replied. "I don't let him come near the others except for chow."
 The Arklight.

Dear as a Gift
 Billy was an ironmolder, but being on strike he could not pay his rent. So on rent day Bill went out of the way of the landlord, and left Mrs. Billy to face the music.
 "Well, Polly, how did the goo on w' th' landlord?"
 "Oh, Billy," she cried, in ecstasies, "what does that think. Th' landlord's giv' u th' hooose for our very own."
 "What," roared Billy, "an' did tha accept it?"
 "Sittently," said Polly.
 "Well, tha foo!" continued Billy. "We's ha' to pay t' rates noo."—London Telegraph.
