WESTON ODDFELLOWS AT BAKER SESSION

(East Oregonian Special.)
 WESTON, May 26.—(S. A. Daily.) J. A. Johnson and H. H. King, representing the Weston lodge No. 28, F. O. E. P. M. in session there. Mrs. Orel McPherson and Miss Gladys Hinch are attending the session at the residence of Mrs. Orel McPherson.

Mrs. Eleanor M. Warren returned Tuesday from Baker where she has been visiting since early in the winter. She was accompanied home by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Will Nor Dean and their daughter, Peggy.

C. M. Schneider and son-in-law, Thomas Dober, shipped a carload of household goods Tuesday to Miss Wash, where they will remain in storage. Mr. Schneider having disposed of his land holdings in the Weston mountain country has moved to farm land in the Spokane country.

Miss Orel Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, has been confined to her home for two or three weeks with typhoid.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Zerilda C. Price was held last Sunday, services being conducted at the Methodist church, of which she had been a member for many years. She was buried in the cemetery at Baker.

Arthur Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Warner, who has been dangerously sick with pneumonia, is recovering by the attending physician to be out of danger.

George W. Stokes is away for a few days looking after his extensive farming interests in the Hatfield Snake Flat country in Adams county, Washington.

Wallace Nelson of Walla Walla, was visiting in Weston Tuesday morning. Charles Melville and Homer Melville of Walla Walla, attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Z. C. Price, last Sunday.

Workings are being engaged in putting a new stone front on the Memorial hall. It will be finished with wood pilasters and will be ornate. Figures of plaster of paris. When completed it will present a pleasing appearance.

The Weston Library Association has succeeded in getting their building moved into the new foundation on the south side of Main street. It is centrally located and will be easily reached and when finished it will be an improvement for which the library association may justly feel proud.

Wednesday will mean more to the Weston boys than circus day is supposed to mean to him. Every youngster is determined that he will get a "shove up" look at the airplane which is billed to perform here on that day.

SEVERAL GO INTO AIR IN AIRPLANE AT HELIX

(East Oregonian Special.)
 HELIX, May 25.—A number of men went up in the airplane which was here a few days. It was "The Hawk." There was a collection taken up to send two ladies up.

The dance given for the baseball boys was attended by a large crowd and at a late hour coffee and sandwiches were served to the crowd. A large cake was served to the baseball boys.

Helix was victorious, 24 to 4, over the Bears at Walla Walla Sunday.

Miss America Hutchinson is expected home Friday from Cheney, Wash., where she is attending school. Mrs. Jennie Leslie and children are expected to arrive here about June 10 from Liverpool, England.

Miss Catherine Wright is visiting her grandparents in Weston.

Mrs. Grover Temple is visiting her sister in Walla Walla.

Miss Iva McKinney, who has been attending school here, has returned to her home in Weston.

Miss Wanda Aispach was a guest of Miss Katherine McIntyre this week.

Mrs. Emma Zeiske and Mrs. L. D. Clark are attending the grand lodge at Baker.

George Zeiske is spending a few days with relatives in Pendleton.

when he befriends an old man who has been chucked from a freight train upon which they were heading their way westward. Later he rescues the heroine from the advances of an escaped convict, though it is necessary for him to place himself in circumstances that convict him as the criminal.

But through the unwitting assistance of the town drunkard and the use of his two fists and ready wit, the fake evangelist becomes his victim and his gallant rescue of the heroine convinces her that she has found the man of her heart's desire.

Juanita Hansen, the former Hollywood comedy beauty, is strikingly attractive in her interpretation of the part opposite the vicar Crane Wilbur.

COULDN'T SPELL IT SO HE DIDN'T GO

LYNN F. REYNOLDS, who directed "The Brute Breaker," a story of the North Woods which will be shown on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Arcade Theatre, was detaining a letter to go to the production manager at Universal City, he began.

"Dear Mr. Blank: I am leaving for Siskiyou County to film scenes for 'The Brute Breaker' and—"

"How do you spell Siskiyou?" Mr. Reynolds' interrupted the stenographer.

"Siskiyou—why, that's easy," said Reynolds.

"Ski—Ski—Ski—"

"Oh, thunder, write and tell him I am leaving for Riverside county. I'll rewrite the story to fit that locale."

Frank Mayo and Kathryn Adams, both well liked Universal stars, hold equal honors in the leading roles of the production.

Johnston McCulley, a well-known magazine author, wrote the story.

UMAPINE GRADUATION TOOK PLACE WEDNESDAY

UMAPINE, May 27.—School at Umapine closed last Friday, after a successful term. The graduating class of 1920 held their commencement exercises on Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church with a large audience present. Six graduates go out from the high school at Vincent this year but only four were present at the exercises. Miss Opal Peffer delighted the guests with an essay on local history while Faye Owens with a reading "The Story of Juan DePena" was excellent. Thelma Phillips sang a beautiful solo, "Sing Sing, Birds on the Wing." Floyd Martin another graduate was present while Albert Stark was confined to his home with a coughing cough. Ivan Galtner is in Portland. The church was decorated with snow balls and red poodles while the class motto "Forward" was made of evergreens. Miss Severance presented the diplomas and Miss Phillips with the blue club gave splendid chorus singing. Della Records and Dealer Dean gave a piano duet "Simple Avon."

The several teachers of the Umapine schools left on their summer holidays this week. Miss Severance, principal will spend the vacation in the Walla Walla valley and Seattle while Miss Phillips goes to her home at Astoria. Misses Beck and Wilson go to their homes in Willamette valley. Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel will attend summer school. Miss Severance will in all probability be on the teaching staff of the Pendleton high school next winter. D. W. Hamrick of Vale, Oregon will be the new principal at Umapine with Miss Phillips as assistant. One more teacher has to be secured as yet for the high school staff. The grade teachers will all return in the fall.

Miss Nina Deane of Prosser, spent last week with Will Records family.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Primm, were guests this last week with the W. W. Phillips. On Tuesday they left for their Astoria home, and with them left Miss Leora Phillips, Della Records and Rebekah Kirk.

C. W. Records and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bean left Tuesday for Baker Oregon where they will attend E. O. O. P. Grand Lodge. During their stay at Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Bean will be guests at the C. F. Godwin home.

Miss Doris Wilson who has been teaching a school at Clatskanie, Wash. returned to her home at Umapine Saturday, after a successful term. Next year she will teach at Yellow Creek.

The Three Methodists are holding a Camp Meeting at Umapine at this time. Rev. Kline of Walla Walla is conducting the services.
