Backache, lame and stiff muscles and rheumatic pains are often symptoms of deranged kidneys. "I had weak bladder, had kidney and liver," writes Willie Carter, Loxley, Pa. "I could not sleep well and my back pained me awful. I had a dizzy feeling in the morning. Since taking Foley Kidney Pills I have been relieved of all such ailments." They rid the system of poisons which cause aches and pains—hold everywhere.

where he will pass the next fortnight. Mr. Lindgren will return here by June 15, at which time he will join the men's clothing department of Alexander's, in its new quarters adjoining the present grocery department.

C. Y. Beale, farmer of Freewater, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Beale says that Milton and Freewater had some chilly weather last week and that the snow could be seen on the hills to the south and east, causing fruit growers some anxiety. The past few days have been warmer, however.

John Casper makes his home in Walla Walla, but farms extensively in Unadilla county. Mr. Casper, who in Pendleton today accompanied by his son, Kirk Casper, says that the wheat on his ranch near Milton, head and is further advanced than the wheat in this section.

Willard Hatch, nephew of Mrs. Mary Hatch and John Bentley of this city, was in Pendleton yesterday visiting his relatives. He is a law student at Gonzaga college in Spokane, and is prominent in athletics, being a member of the football team.

Lyman G. Rice and Herb Green returned last night from a two days' trip to the mountains near the head of Meadow creek. They went on a fishing and hunting expedition.

"We saw some bear but they were too far away to shoot," said L. C. Schaff today while telling of a hunting expedition of Pilot Rock men with whom he spent the week end in the mountains. The party went out to get bear but got well-filled baskets of trout instead. They fished in a little stream called Waugh creek and found the fish eager to take the hook. Those who made up the party, which assembled at the Elkhorn cabin, were: Fred Moon, of Helix; Levi Eldridge Sr., "Jinks" Jacques, Levi Eldridge Jr., Charles Tracher, William Glass, Ed Smith, George Done and L. C. Schaff, of Pendleton.

Walter Lehman, of the Collins grain department, departed today for the Deschutes region on a fishing expedition.

They're not expecting any fire in Pendleton today, for most members of the regular fire department went fishing on Menchum creek today. The lucky man was Alf Peters and he left on No. 6 to try his luck with the finny tribe.

C. P. A. Loneragan returned on No. 3 this morning after spending a few days in Portland.

Carl Cooley returned on No. 5 this morning from Portland where he passed Sunday and Monday.

Four inches of snow fell in the mountains to the south of the county on Sunday, say Pendletonians who spent the week end on hunting and fishing trips. Word of the wintry weather was brought back today by E. J. Somerville and Col. J. H. Raley who were at the Raley cabin over the week end.

Omer Stephens, besides owning a grocery store in Alameda, is director of the Athens team, which is a member of the Blue Mountain league. Mr. Stephens is in the city today.

Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes was on the job today for the first time since Friday after being confined to his home with throat trouble.

Two of Pendleton's young men plan to leave this evening for The Dalles and will go from there by boat to Portland. The travelers are Vernon Fowler and Bob Dunn, aged 13 and 12 respectively. In Portland they will visit Ned Fowler, Vernon's brother and will later go to Seaside.

Charles B. Ogan, district scaler, is here from La Grande today.

C. O. Hinchart left this morning for a business visit in La Grande.

E. Calkins, of Nampa, Idaho, is in the city today on business.

B. F. Butler is here from Heppner today.

P. L. McCullough was in town today from the south of the county.

H. J. Anderson of Helix, is a business visitor today in Pendleton.

William H. La Course, of Adams, was in town today on business.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Seeks Final Papers.

George John Geanakopolos, a native of Greece, today filed with the county clerk his application for final citizenship papers. The applicant resides at Rieth and gives as witnesses, Charles E. Bond and Joe Blakely.

Demaris Has Heaviest Expense.

Of the expense accounts filed so far by candidates for county office, that of C. E. Demaris, of Milton, candidate for the nomination for county commissioner on the republican ticket, is greatest. He spent $55 on advertising, cards, filing fee and travel expenses. T. D. Taylor spent only $29 for a filing fee.

SOCIAL PERSONAL

BRIDE-ELECT IS FETED.

Miss Laura Cahill is soon to become the bride of Clem McCoy and as a compliment to the "attractive bride-elect," Mrs. John Groulich, mother of the groom-to-be, and Mrs. W. D. Humphrey, his aunt, entertained last evening with a miscellaneous shower. Guests were asked to the home of Mrs. Groulich and a color motif of pink and white marked the affair. A profusion of pink and white peonies decked the rooms where an informal musical program was enjoyed. Miss Cahill sang several delightful solos, Mrs. Humphrey playing her accompaniment, and Miss Laura Schwartz and Miss Celia Schwartz contributed a group of piano duets.

Adjoining to the dining room the guests found places at a flower-decked table, over which was a canopy of pink and white streamers. In the center a great May basket held a mound of shower gift packages, which had been received at the door by little Miss Virginia Ayres, and which were later presented to the bride-to-be.

About two dozen friends shared in the compliment and enjoyed the evening of gracious hospitality.

RETURN FROM HERMISTON.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander returned this morning from Hermiston, where they visited their daughter, Mrs. E. F. Dodd. Mr. Alexander attended the picnic at Boardman yesterday.

COLUMBIA

TERMS

10 MONTHS

TO PAY

The Columbia Grafonola is positively the only phonograph equipped with a non-set-stop—a stop that requires no adjusting to different sized records—no setting on a certain line, but a device that actually stops the record. This is only one of the many features you get when you purchase the Standard Columbia Grafonola, and it costs you no more than any other phonograph.

TERMS

Here you make your own terms. If your income will not permit your paying cash—we will arrange terms to suit your particular case to pay by the week or month, with no extra cost to you. We have the machines, you have the home, the rest is easy.

PRICES

The Grafonola comes in small sizes, suitable to use for camping, canoeing or vacation days. These small instruments can be traded in later as part payment on one of the larger Cabinet Grafonolas.
