DOLLARS ARE NOT SYNONYMOUS WITH HAPPINESS

"The reformers do not have the patience to wait out their changes gradually, by evolution, he said.
"In defining the essence of Americanism, Mr. Taft said that it lay in individual liberty, in initiative and in equality of opportunity. "There is an individual responsibility for the character of government we have."
"It is for America, Not Humanism."
"The government proposed by the socialists would fit snugly but not human beings, Mr. Taft opined. "Men and women are selfish. That is the truth and it cannot be denied. A government which would take away the incentive for individual gain and place all men on the same plane is a beautiful thought, but it will not work, because men and women are selfish."

"Russia's present system of government, the soviet, is as tyrannical as the old rule of the Romanoffs, which the proletarian overthrew," the speaker said. "No man may vote in the soviet government if he employs a helper. Thus the farmer who works without employees is entitled to one vote, the manual laborer who hires no one may have eight votes and the soldier is entitled to 80 votes. The government rests on the military just as much as it did under the old regime. It is now a rule of an autocracy of 180,000 against the old rule of 250,000 nobility."
Human Side Surprises.
"Taft, the man, impressed his hearers as a thinker and a logician. He talked straight from the heart, unfolding his argument carefully and with remarkable reason. He made no resort to oratory nor appeals to the emotions. It was a heart-to-heart talk that sent away 700 persons feeling more secure in their stand as Americans and patriots.

A frequent chuckle, like the carriage laugh of the minstrel, interjected itself frequently into his talk. The big ex-president poked fun at the constitution of Oklahoma and chided his bolshevistic and socialistic theorists in a good-natured way. His occasional joke was enjoyed as hugely by himself as by the members of his audience. Not a person who heard him felt that there was anything more human, less pompous, than this man who had spent four years in the white house.
Mr. Taft was met on his arrival from Walla Walla by J. R. Haley, president of the Commercial Association, Superintendent F. P. Austin and H. E. Inlow, principal of the high school. As he stepped from the train the familiar Taft smile spread over a visage that seemed tired from the long trip he had taken. Dozens shook his hand.

Photographed With Queen.
Miss Thelma Dupuis, chosen queen of the lycoum by virtue of her class at high school having sold the most lycoum tickets, spirited the big man away from those who would meet him and they posed for a photograph together beside the station. "This is serious business," Mr. Taft told her as they both were cautioned by the photographer to "look pleasant."
Many in the crowd remarked at the striking resemblance of Mr. Taft and A. W. Pezay, fuel expert of the O. W. R. & N., who accompanied the ex-president from Walla Walla. One of those to comment was James Johns, who once was mistaken for William Jennings Bryan when he entered a hall where the great commoner was to speak.

While Mr. Taft was Pendleton's guest, his home at New Haven was the scene of an announcement party that had considerable interest for the statesman. His daughter, Miss Helen, announced her betrothal to Frederick Johnson Manning, a Yale man, according to an Associated Press dispatch received by the East Oregonian. Mr. Taft was also a Yale man.
Following the lecture, many in the audience met or renewed their acquaintance with Mr. Taft. Roy W. Pittner, Umatilla county senator, introduced the speaker. At 1:15 this morning Mr. Taft and his secretary left for Boise.
MISS MARIE MORRISEY NOT ALWAYS A SINGER AS OWN STORY SHOWS
Miss Marie Morrisey, whose concert on Friday, June 4, at the Christian church, promises to be one of the most delightful of the season, insists that her voice was not always received with the same favor as it is today.

It seems that Miss Morrisey has always been determined to sing. And when she was a little girl, she used to lift up her voice and carol loudly for the edification of herself and all the neighbors.
One day, the policeman on the beat passed Miss Morrisey's house, and hearing strange sounds issuing forth, he finally concluded to investigate.
He was a good policeman, was Pat, and he took an interest in all the affairs of the street. So he presented himself before Miss Morrisey's mother.
"Madame," said he, "is that your child?"
"Yes, Miss Morrisey," said he, "is that your child?"
"Well, Madam," said Pat, "what in the world is the matter with her to make her cry all the time?"

Gypsy Band Invited to Move
A band of gypsies, numbering more than a score, was intercepted yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police Roberts and told to pass on, without tarrying in Pendleton. The nomads were traveling in cars and had picked out a camp spot in the east end of the city.
