COMMUNITY CLUB HAS SCHOOL DAY SESSION

(East Oregonian Special.)

PILOT ROCK, June 5.—Pink, green and white paper streamers, chrysanthemums and wild roses beautified the reception room of the Pilot Rock church Wednesday evening, when the ladies of the school committee were hostesses to the members of the community club. Mrs. O. T. Curnutt was elected to preside at the business meeting as neither president or vice president was present, and after the adjournment of this meeting the ladies enjoyed the hospitality of the entertaining committee. A spelling match and a drawing lesson were the main features of the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served. Misses Velma Royer and Maxine Schanep were asked to preside at the punch bowl which was placed on a table prettily decorated with sweet Williams. The hostesses were Mrs. I. M. Schanep, Mrs. Frank Byrd, Mrs. Frank Duff, Mrs. John Royer and Mrs. Alonso Knott.

Elmer Wegner was a business visitor in the city Thursday.

Friends are glad to hear that Benjie Smith, who has been at the Portland sanitarium for some time, is much better, and reported to be improving rapidly.

Miss Elma Boylen, who has been taking a business course at the O. A. C. since January, is expected to arrive home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cash Wood of Pendleton were in the city Wednesday while Mr. Wood was making visits to various boys in the community. He is planning a summer camp for a number of boys in the county to begin probably June 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Rugg, of near Spokane, Washington, who are guests at the Carl Hemphill ranch, were in the city Wednesday visiting old friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rugg formerly lived here.

Among those who motored to Pendleton Tuesday evening and enjoyed the lecture by William Howard Taft were Mr. and Mrs. Elery Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hutchinson, Prof. and Mrs. J. O. Russell and son Elmo, E. R. Lester and Judge and Mrs. I. M. Schanep, Dwight and Miss Maxine Schanep and Thomas Jacques.

John Casteel departed Thursday for his former home in St. Louis, Missouri, after an extended visit with his brothers, Henry, Lemuel and Elbert. Mr. Casteel, who has been in this country for some time has been assisting Henry Casteel on his ranch west of this city.

A fishing party composed of Frank Duff, Thomas Elliot and Carl Jensen, returned Thursday after a several days trip on Pearson creek. They came home with their baskets more than filled with trout.

Mrs. Emory Knott and daughter, of Hermiston, arrived in the city Wednesday for a visit with friends and relatives. Mrs. Knott is a guest at the George Done residence.

Miss Martha Wright is on the sick list but is reported to be better at present.

Plans are being made for a "children's day program to be rendered on June 13. The annual picnic of the Pilot Rock Sunday school will be held on that day. Superintendent C. J. Miller announced that if their plans carried out that the picnic would be held in Duff's grove.

Rev. Joseph Herbert, a former pastor of Ukiah, but now of Walla Walla, spent a few hours in this city on Thursday.

House guests at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Macomber were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Everett, a couple of days this week.

After several days' illness Archie Bond is again at work.

Camping parties are being formed to spend the weekend near some mountain stream, and among them is a party composed of Dr. Lassen and family, and Garland Gray and family of Pendleton, and Carl Jensen and family of this city, who will motor to Bear creek for a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman of Butter creek made a business trip to Pilot Rock Friday.

A team of mules driven by Trig Hinkle were frightened Friday morning and ran from the hill on the Echo road northwest of town to the ally in the rear of the telephone office. No damage was done to the wagon. They were stopped by a group of men who were standing in front of the Pilot Rock Lumber yard.

Three cubs and the mother bear, whose home was in California Gulch, were killed by James Laven, a camp tender for Charles Johnston. The bears were brought to Pilot Rock and have been on display in the window of the C. G. Bracher Hardware Co.

Mrs. Charles Russell is visiting in Pendleton at the home of her son, Dan Russell and family. Mrs. Russell expects to be gone for a week or so. Mrs. L. E. Roy, who has been ill for several days with pneumonia poisoning, is reported to be much improved.

TRADES UNIONS SEEK TO BRIDGE CHASM

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 5.—The executive body of the national railway union has decided to ask the calling of special congress of Irish and British trades unions "to try to bridge the gulf between the Irish people and the government." It was announced today by J. H. Thomas, member of parliament and secretary of the railway organization.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—A minimum wage of $15 a week has been established for all women employed in agricultural occupations, including picking fruit, vegetables and berries, the state industrial welfare commission announced here today.

A fool and his money are soon parted, but it's different with a lazy boy and his warm bed.
