ENJOYS EASTERN VISIT

Friends of Mrs. Sylvia C. Cohn will be interested to hear that she has been enjoying a visit in New Brunswick, New Jersey, as the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Henry Campbell Avery. In a letter received today from Mrs. Cohn and mailed on June 15, she says:

"I attended today the commencement exercises of Rutgers' college, which under the name of Queen's college, was established by Royal Charter in 1776. In 1825 the name was changed to Rutgers. Queen's college building still stands and bears a memorial tablet erected by the U. S. Sons of the American Revolution to the men of the college who fought in 1775. The poet Joyce Kilmer, who fell in the world war, was a member of the class of 1908.

The special interest of this year's commencement lay in the ceremony in which an honorary degree was conferred on Herbert Hoover. In the long list of his achievements, "sometimes this and "sometimes that," one could have added, "and sometimes an Oregonian."

The feature race was a three-legged affair, in which Brooke Dickson and "Doc" Crommell led the field. Perfect teamwork was evident, the picnickers report. All brought lunches and a large spread was held at noon in the groves at the springs. Swimming was indulged in by all members of the party, some not being content with just one plunge. The affair was considered a big success and it is to be repeated next year in a more ambitious manner. L. C. Scharf, Brooke Dickson and Oscar Schults handled arrangements and "god" was supervised by Mrs. J. B. Meek, Mrs. Schapiro and Mrs. Dickson.

Gornall officiated. The bride chose an attractive gown of blue taffeta and her corsage was a lovely cluster of Cecil Brunner roses and maidenhair fern.

A buffet supper followed the wedding and from a table centered by pink roses, the guests were served by Miss Blanche Furnish and Miss Ruth Hill. The list included Mrs. Furnish, Mrs. Eva Stephens, Miss Hill, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hanscom, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hanscom, Elmer Crow, Johnnie Crow, Claud Crow, Miss Margaret Crow, Miss Furnish and Roy Furnish.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.
