Leave on Business Trip

Mrs. W. J. Matlock, accompanied by her brother, George Swaggart, are in Echo today on business.

Ralph Temple's Ford Stolen

A Ford delivery car belonging to Ralph Temple was stolen either late Saturday or early Sunday morning, according to report made to the police. No trace of it has been found.

Distillate is Plentiful

Forty-eight thousand gallons of distillate were distributed in this county during the past week. The distillate was ordered through the county Farm Bureau. Three more carloads are on the road here, says Fred Bennion, county agriculture agent.

Legion Will Meet Tonight

A special meeting of the American Legion tonight will be held to elect delegates to the state convention at Astoria next month and to hear Dr. Fred A. Lisenell explain the workings of the new federal vocational education act.

Frank Kenasek Dies

Frank Kenasek, formerly a resident of Pendleton but recently of Walla Walla, died last night in that city, and will be brought here for burial. The funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday from St. Mary's Catholic church. He is survived by his wife and a son, E. W. Kenasek, O. W. ticket agent at Walla Walla. The deceased resided here for many years, coming to Pendleton in 1884. He was a railroad man until he retired from active work, and made his home on his acreage on West Webb street.

Boys in Camp Are Happy

Boys in the Y. M. C. A. summer camp at Conway are all well and happy. James Johns said today after having visited the camp on Sunday. All the youngsters are having a fine time and everything is running smoothly. Mr. Johns is the only one of the parents of boys in camp who had paid it a call.

Lambs Will go Forward

The first trainload of 1920 lambs to be shipped to the Chicago market this year by Smythe Brothers will leave Sloan station, near Duncan, on Thursday, July 1. The shipment will go east under the direction of Jim McGovern and will be placed on the Chicago market shortly after the opening of the next week. Last year there were about eight trainloads of lambs sent east by this company.

Alexanders Holds Picnic

Alexanders department store held its annual picnic on Sunday at Gibbon, with 62 employees and friends present. The party left here in the morning by special train, laden with picnic lunches and equipment for a day's outing. The party did not indulge in organized sports but did do justice to a couple of hearty picnic meals and everyone enjoyed to the fullest the opportunity for having a full day in the mountains. The return trip was made early last evening.

Three Drunks Today

The police court this morning collected $35 as the result of three drunk cases over the week end. Sam Lollan charged with being drunk and disorderly, forfeited bail of $15, and George Doe, drunk, forfeited bail of $10. A Shippentower, drunk, was fined $10. The last named is a red man.

John Crow Unimproved

John Crow, well known Umatilla county man who recently suffered a stroke while at Junction City is unimproved in health and his son, Claud Crow, left Saturday night to be with his father. It is hoped that the elder Mr. Crow will soon be sufficiently recovered in health to permit his being removed to Portland.

Umatilla to Have Picnic

Umatilla will have a farm and home picnic on Wednesday, under the auspices of the county Farm Bureau. The affair will be a general get-together picnic. Fred Bennion, county agriculture agent and H. K. Degen of the Hermiton experiment station, will speak, and efforts are being made to have G. R. Hyslop, professor of Farm Crops at O. A. C., attend, as well as County Agent Hunt of Morrow county. Miss Ella May Harmon, home demonstration agent, will direct the games at the picnic.

Transfer Being Made

Formal transfer of the big Cunningham Sheep & Land Co. plant to Fred W. Falconer, of Enterprise, is being consummated here today and tomorrow. Mr. Falconer is due in Pendleton tonight and will confer with J. M. Keeney, retiring director of the company, as to details of the change. Mac Hoke, who will be in charge of the local office for the new owner, arrived from Enterprise today and will be established here shortly. Mr. Keeney came in from Portland this morning. The ranch recently sold involved a transaction of nearly $600,000.

Scott to Sing for S. A.

The Salvation Army will be assisted tomorrow night by George Wallace Scott, who has been creating quite a favorable sentiment here as a singer and convincing preacher. Mr. Scott comes to the pulpit attired in full Scotch costume. He has been a theater singer, but eight years ago was converted and since then has devoted all his time to the ministry. He makes no charges for his lectures and entertainment. Mr. Scott has traveled with a great many of the leading evangelists and has a large store of entertainment as well as a wide theme for his services.

Chautauqua Sale Lagging

The committee in charge of the sale of season tickets for the chautauqua program opening here on Saturday night announces that the sale so far has been lagging. The committee has been divided into nine parts and each has a portion of the city to canvass. Rev. R. E. Gornall, chairman of the committee, today issued an appeal to local citizens to support the institution and purchase season tickets before noon Saturday. Tickets purchased prior to that time, he says, count towards meeting the guarantee of $1650, while after that time the money goes entirely to the chautauqua company without credit to the local backers. The tickets also sell for 50 cents less for the season when purchased of committee members.

HELEN MILNE, AGED 3, IS CALLED BY DEATH

Little Helen Milne, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milne, died suddenly yesterday morning. She had been ill for only a few days but succumbed to whooping cough which affected the bronchial tubes.

The little girl was the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Munro of this city, the parents of Mrs. Milne. This is the second bereavement of Mr. and Mrs. Milne in the past eight months, as they lost their two months old son last October. They have the sympathy of their many Pendleton friends.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. from the Munro residence, 211 Lewis street, with Rev. R. L. Buschberger, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating.

TRAIN 5 MAY TAKE PENDLETON SLEEPER

The Pendleton-Portland sleeper, which at present leaves here at 10:15 as a part of train No. 21, will after July 11 probably be picked up by train No. 5, which on that date adopts a new schedule and will pass through here at midnight instead of at 5:05 a. m., according to T. F. O'Brien, local O. W. agent. With the new schedule, No. 5 will reach Portland at 7:45 a. m. instead of at noon.

Agent O'Brien has not yet received definite announcement as to the change, but states that it is probable. He says that in his opinion there is little hope that the railroad will resume running the motor from Pendleton to the west end of the county, if No. 21 is taken off, it will cause some hardship to west end residents and there is talk of making efforts to have the motor reinstated. No. 5 is a fast mail train and goes over the cutoff, missing west end towns.

The announcement of the new schedule of No. 5 is welcomed by local people. It will permit better train service to Portland and will also cause the eastern mail to arrive earlier in the day.

11TH HOUR PERSHING BOOM IS LAUNCHED

(By United Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Assemblyman Louis Cavillier, of New York, a member of the delegation of that state, launched a "Pershing for President" boom. "There are no reasons, at least in the minds of American voters, why Pershing would not be a logical democratic nominee for president," said Cavillier, "except that the drummer, Bryan, whose sense of the real is often defective—the Judah of his party, who loses himself in vague generalities and pitiless abstractions. American voters have repudiated Bryan three times at the polls, so his opinion doesn't count.

MAURITANIA BRINGS GOLD

NEW YORK, June 28.—The liner Mauretania arrived here with twelve kegs and 66 boxes of gold and 42 bars of silver from England. The shipment was intended for further aid in the stabilizing of the foreign exchange rate.

DUBLIN RAILWAY SITUATION WORSE

(By United Press.)

DUBLIN, June 28.—The railway situation at Dublin is becoming steadily worse. The service to Limerick is entirely suspended. Few trains have moved to Cork and the British troops who are encamped at Dolly's Mount have erected barricades, sandbags and wire entanglements around their tents. Some of the soldiers also built dug-outs.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The state department today announced that it is investigating the unconfirmed report that the Turkish nationalists captured Mrs. Paul Nilson, an American missionary, near Tarsus, in Asia Minor.
