PAULIST CHOIR TO SING
Interest is centering in the concert in Walla Walla in which the Paulist Choir is to sing on Saturday. The great chorus of 10 voices is composed largely of boys recruited from ocean to ocean and trained at the New York castle which has been transformed into their home. John Finnegan, famous tenor, will assist the choir in its 1929 continental tour. Motor parties are being organized here for the event and for the accommodation of Pendleton folk who plan to attend, tickets have been made available at Warren's Music House. The concert is to take place in the Mercy Theatre, Walla Walla.

EXCLUSION OF REED TO BE INVESTIGATED

(By United Press.)

ST. LOUIS, July 9.—The backing of those who voted to exclude Senator Reed from the democratic convention will be investigated. Senator Kenyon plainly intimated. Kenyon, chairman of the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures, opening a committee hearing said: "I want to make it plain that certain matters will come up which personally concern Senator Reed. Therefore he will take no part in these proceedings. He is sitting here simply to make a quorum."

Says Enemies Were Paid.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, July 9.—Delegates of Missouri at the democratic convention which helped to oust Senator James A. Reed from his national convention seat, were supplied with expense money by two factions, one favorable to Attorney General Palmer and the other to Governor Cox, according to witnesses today before the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures. A committee is expected to investigate the charges of Edward Goltra, a Missouri national committeeman, who distributed $3000 among 25 delegates at the state democratic convention. The purpose of the alleged fund and its possible bearing on Barring of Reed from the national convention will be probed by the committee.

Patrick O'Neill, member of the democratic committee, at St. Louis, was the first witness. He is said to have received a check for $150 from Lawrence Daily, chairman of the democratic central committee. It is said that the check was signed by Goltra. "What was it to be used for?" questioned Kenyon. "I was told it was to pay the expenses of the delegates at the state convention," he replied. Testimony that A. C. Steuwer, a former brewer, who was a delegate-at-large at the San Francisco convention gave him $200 and a like amount to each 110th ward chairmen of the tenth district, was given by Harry Streutker. Replying to the question regarding the source of the Goltra fund, Streutker said he believed Goltra got it from "Dave Francis," former ambassador to Russia.

CARES OF NOMINEE PUT ASIDE FOR DAY

(By Associated Press.)

DAYTON, O., July 9.—Putting aside cares of being a presidential candidate Governor James M. Cox, democratic nominee for president, spent this afternoon on a farm, his boyhood home, 24 miles from Dayton.

Newspapermen who trailed the governor found him with his coat off roasting potatoes and broiling lamb chops over a camp fire in a small ravine.

Taking the intrusion of the newspapermen good naturedly, he invited them to share the luncheon he was preparing, but finding it would take more potatoes, chops and sandwiches than he had, he dispatched one of his men to Middletown for more. Luncheon was served later.

While the potatoes were roasting and the chops burning the governor answered many questions concerning his early boyhood, which he spent on the farm.

He also discussed many phases of farming. While sitting in the shade of a large willow tree, one of his thoroughbred cows came wandering up to have a look at the democratic candidate. The governor said she is milked three times a day and gives two gallons at each milking.

At the governor's suggestion, the "pasture club" was formed, having for its membership the democratic candidate and the score of news writers and camera men. Miss Marjorie Wilson of Cleveland, the only woman reporter in the company, was unanimously elected president after being placed in nomination by the governor.

STEAMERS READY IN NOVEMBER
SEATTLE, July 9.—Two new 12,500 ton passenger steamers, first ships of a fleet of 12 allocated to the Pacific coast by the shipping board, will be delivered to the Pacific Steamship company in September and November. A. F. Haines, vice president of the company wired H. F. Alexander, president, from Washington today. The two vessels will be placed on the Puget Sound-Yokohama-Shanghai-Manila run.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Will Go to California.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans will leave on Monday by auto for California, where they expect to reside for the next two years in the vicinity of Harper, where Mr. Evans owns a lemon grove. They will travel through Idaho and Washington before going to California.

Macabees to Install.
Installation of officers and initiation of recent applicants for membership will be the order of business at the meeting tonight of the local Macabees. N. O. Christy, organizer for the lodge, arrived today from La Grande, where he presented the lodge with a banner for membership gains. Mr. Christy is to explain further tonight the promise of the organization to expend funds here on a building should the membership campaign locally outstrip that in La Grande.

Will Stop Children From Driving.
Orders were issued from the district attorney's office today that no children under 16 years of age shall drive a motor vehicle. The recent operator's licensing law made it an offense punishable by heavy fine and imprisonment for a child to drive a motor vehicle. No person under that age may obtain a license to drive and in this manner a check is possible on children who operate motor vehicles.

J. P. Walker Returns.
J. P. Walker, clerk of the local W. O. W., returned last night from Yosemite Park, California, where he was a delegate to the head camp of the lodge. Mr. Walker has been absent from Pendleton for four weeks, having been so unfortunate as to be ill during the greater part of his stay. He says that about 150 delegates attended the sessions, representatives being present from the various camps of the lodge in the western division, which extends to Colorado, Wyoming and Montana.

Another Fined for Parking Wrong.

Walter Freeman was fined $1 in police court today for parking an auto at 45 degrees on a 46 foot street.

Two Permits Issued.
Building permits were issued this afternoon to Fannie C. Carney and to Frank M. Griggs. The former will build a cellar adjoining her dwelling at 500 West Tustin street to cost $100. The latter will make repairs to his dwelling at 617 Cosbie street, the cost to be $500.

Doctor to Instruct.
Dr. Ella Terpening will leave tomorrow for Spokane where she will remain for two weeks to study under Dr. Gregory, famous druggless physician. Dr. Terpening is one of 20 chosen by Dr. Gregory to receive instruction, his Spokane class being limited to that number. Dr. C. S. Terpening was also admitted to the class, but as he is visiting in Union with William Wigglesworth, he will be unable to attend. Dr. Ella Terpening will be accompanied tomorrow by Miss Ruth Terpening, a teacher of music in the Sprague schools, who has been visiting here. She will go to Cheney, Washington, to be a guest of Mrs. J. W. Hungeate and later to Priest lake for an outing.

Mrs. Benedict Is Student.
Mrs. P. W. Benedict, one of the teachers in the Pine City schools, is in Pendleton attending the summer normal school.

Gun on Display.
A specially made Marlin 25-20 rifle, owned by Jack Miller and said to be the most costly gun in Pendleton, is on display today at Allen & Knight's. The gun has a 3 power telescope and a 32 inch barrel. The gun is heavily engraved and inlaid with silver. The original price five years ago was $350 and the value is double that now. Mr. Miller has for the weapon a beautifully carved leather case which he made himself, and a cartridge belt aving a hand-engraved clasp made from the metal of Mexican dollars.
