WEST MAY BECOME 1920 BATTLEGROUND

(By United Press.)
DAYTON, O., July 10.—That the west may be developed into one of the chief battle grounds early in the national political campaign, was the inference drawn from late developments here.

Governor James M. Cox, democratic candidate for president stated that many requests that he open the campaign in the west have been received, and in his talk with newspapermen, he left the impression that he was interested in an early invasion of the west, if not in fact favorable to it. He stated, however, that campaign arrangements are in the hands of the national committee and that he could say nothing definite until he has conferred with the committee.

W. W. Blaine, president of Corn Palace, Mitchell, S. D., headed a delegation that on the governor today urging him to accept an invitation to speak at the festival to be held September 27 to October 7. Charles E. ## JUDGE LINDSEY HAS PLAN FOR LABORATORY TO AID DELINQUENTS

Three Ages of Wayward Girl Will Be Determined by Expert Psychologist Working With Juvenile Court.

(By Associated Press.)

DENVER, Colo., July 10.—A juvenile laboratory is a new addition to the machinery of the courts of Denver through which wayward boys and girls pass before Judge Ben B. Lindsey. Upon the manner in which the boy or girl passes the mental and physical tests depends the ultimate disposal of his or her case.

Judge Lindsey asserts that a wayward girl has three ages. He explains it in this manner. A girl may be 12 years old, have the physical development of a girl of 18 and the mental development of a child of ten years.

Directs Best Course.

"All this, I have found, has a great deal to do with the way of handling cases of delinquent girls," the judge declared. "For example, take the case of a 14-year-old girl who has run away and married a mature man. What to do with her depends largely on her three ages. Chronically the girl may not be old enough to get married, but she has been married and the question to determine whether it is best to send her to a reformatory merely because she eloped, or permit her to remain with her husband.

"If she is biologically three or four years older than 16 (that is possesses the physical development of a young woman of 19) and if her mental development is that of a normal girl of 16 or older and if she loves the man she married, why is it that for her sake she should not be punished for marrying?"

The judge says that whenever a girl comes before his court, the first procedure is to obtain her three ages, through methods developed by medical men and psychologists. He declared he intends to make the juvenile laboratory available to the mothers of Denver so they can obtain the three ages of their children and use this information in providing against indiscretions and possible criminality.

An appropriation has been granted for the carrying out of the proposed laboratory and the judge is seeking to obtain the services of an expert psychologist to take charge of the work.

A Toothless World

In emphasizing the fact that the man or woman who has good teeth has the best chance to remain in good health, the New York Medical Journal declares:

So far as we have been able to judge from medical history, the teeth of mankind were never in such bad condition as they are at the present time.

There has been great progress in hygiene, sanitation and preventive medicine whereby the human body has been built up and protected, but tooth decay has not been arrested. If nothing is done in that direction it will only be a few years comparatively until the race is toothless.

Manifestly the great cause of decay is the lack of use. Soft foods have taken away the necessity of chewing. Therefore it is obvious that a change of diet is necessary by adding those things which are hard to chew and requires vigorous effort to reduce to the proper degree of mastication. Not only is this necessary for a proper development of the tooth structure, but it adds vitality to the gums and thoroughly cleanses the teeth. Raw foods and fruits are beneficial, also.

The man who starts something to bring the tooth back along with the other organs of the body will confer a great benefit on the world and may be classed with the saviors of mankind.
