Rain Falls in Mountains.

There was considerable rain in the mountains yesterday, says R. A. Botcher, of the Umatilla forest office. About half an inch of rain fell in the Baker country.

Celebration Ends

Indians at Cayuse, who have been for the past six days celebrating Independence Day, began breaking camp yesterday. The celebration was one of the most successful ever held and was attended by many Indians.

Indians Will Meet

A general council, to ascertain the rights of mixed bloods, will be held at the Umatilla Indian Agency on Friday at 10 a. m. All mixed blood and full blood Indians interested in the new allotment or enrolled as allottees have been asked to be present. Major E. L. Swartzlander is to be present. The meeting is under the general direction of James Kash Kash and Phillip Jones.

Requiem Mass Tomorrow

A requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's church tomorrow at 10 a. m. for the repose of the soul of Mrs. T. J. Hayes (Clementine Mollitor) who died recently in Gillette, Wyoming.

Five Diptheria Cases.

There are now five cases of diptheria in Pendleton. The disease is in a light form and is in the nature of a children's ailment. Anti-toxin is being used freely by local doctors to combat the disease.

Mrs. Ivanhoe to Speak.

Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe, school superintendent of Union county, will speak in Pendleton on Friday at the assembly of the student-teachers at the summer normal school. Her subject has not been announced. She will arrive from La Grande Friday morning.

A. C. Hampton Elected

A. C. Hampton, formerly superintendent of Pendleton schools, now of the La Grande schools, was elected to the directorate of the National Education Association at the convention held recently in Salt Lake City. Hampton is president of the State association.

Patriotism is Theme.

"How to Teach Patriotism" will be the theme of Miss Della Rush in a talk tomorrow, to be given at the summer normal school, in the high school building. Miss Rush, who is principal of the Lincoln school, is a member of the faculty of the normal and instructs in seventh and eighth grade methods.

Attend Funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clarke, Miss Mary Clarke and Billy Clarke, and Mrs. R. W. Fletcher attended the funeral of Marlin Cheshire in Milton yesterday. The boy, who was 17 years of age, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Cheshire, former Pendleton residents and well known here.
