HER PATIENT HANDS.
(By Frank L. Stanton.)

Her patient hands toll all the long day through—
No gates of rest are won;
Her thought is still: God gave her tasks to do,
And tasks are done.

Tasks, thankless here; but love of Life is lord,
And Love still seems
Not a rewarder, but a great Reward—
The dream of dreams.

For dreams are with her in the unseen hours
And Memory bears
Gifts to her heart—of unfortunate flowers,
Though touched with tears.

Here not to murmur of a life alone
Till toll shall cease;
In the still dark her dreams are all her own,
And Love breathes Peace.

And when shall come the final Peace and Rest,
For all the thorn-way trod,
White as her soul the lilies on her breast
Shall speak to God.

THE PORTLAND OREGONIAN HAS A TROUBLED CONSCIENCE

THE Portland Oregonian is worried about the independent newspapers of Oregon. If the Oregonian must worry, let it consider its own perverted soul. A year ago that paper was an eager champion of the League of Nations and of ratification of the peace treaty. It produced many excellent arguments why the treaty should be ratified without change and why Lodge and his cohorts, including Harding, were wrong. The Oregonian did not dream that the senate would repudiate its chief war aim and betray humanity by rejecting the treaty.

Now the Oregonian denounces the very treaty it once so freely championed. It supports for president one of the senators who put the knife to the league covenant. It upholds that party which in national convention devoted its main energies to libelling and defaming the greatest forward step ever taken for a sadly stricken world. It has now turned traitor to a cause it once upheld, knowing that cause was founded on good sense and national honor.

The East Oregonian could not in self respect do otherwise than support Governor Cox, who stands squarely for ratifying the league covenant without destructive reservations. He backs a great issue that should triumph and the Portland Oregonian knows it. The fact that Governor Cox is a democrat is a trivial matter. The vital fact about his candidacy is that he stands for fulfilling the pledge this nation made to its fighting men and to the other nations of the earth. He stands for the course this country must take unless it wishes to turn its back on civilization and take company with revolutionary Mexico, bolshevik Russia and the unspeakable Turk.

Be not deceived by the Oregonian's talk concerning Tammany and the wets. The Oregonian is howling to ease its own conscience. It knows Tammany did not name the nominee at San Francisco. It knows that Harding also is a wet. Tammany could not even control New York. Governor Cox was nominated through the votes of western and southern states; Mississippi did more for Cox than did Tammany and Mississippi was the first state in the nation to ratify the dry amendment. Cox was named because there was a feeling that McAdoo did not wish the nomination and felt he was not the logical choice. Had McAdoo sought the nomination nothing could have stopped him.

But all that is water over the wheel. The question now is whether those who believe in the League of Nations shall support the nominee who upholds that cause or shall give aid and comfort to the narrow minded cabal that fights the treaty because it was negotiated by a great president who happens to be a democrat.

Skin Eruptions Cause Constant Torture

Disease Germs Must Be Eliminated From the Blood.

Eczema, tetter, boils, pimples, ulcers, irritations and scalp eruptions, as well as all other forms of skin diseases, come from a disordered condition of the blood. They must be cured through the blood, and this explains why local treatment fails so absolutely.

The radical and rational treatment is to take a thorough course of S.S.S., which will root out the disease germs from your blood, your complexion will begin to clear up and you will soon be rid of the disease as thousands of others have.

Get a bottle of S.S.S. today, write to our head physician, who will gladly give you full medical advice without charge. Address: Medical Director, Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

The East Oregonian believes earnestly in the League of Nations and proposes to go down the line for a course it took before the matter became a political issue. The Portland Oregonian in its inner soul believes the same way but lacks the courage to back its convictions. The Oregonian on the league issue has sacrificed its independence and its own respect for the sake of partisan regularity. Proof of this is provided in its own columns. It has been a shameful spectacle and the evidence is complete.

Under existing conditions and in view of the tremendous issue involved in this campaign the Pendleton East Oregonian deems it an honor that on the main point involved it is not in accord with the present attitude of its Portland contemporary. The editor of this newspaper could not do as the Oregonian is doing and look a soldier or a soldier's widow in the eye.

WHERE HARDING STOOD

WHEN the question of submitting the prohibition amendment to the people was before the senate Senator Harding voted for the resolution under protest. The following extract from a speech he made in the senate gives a line on his viewpoint:

"I am in sympathy with the opposition to the resolution about the unfairness of adopting a federal amendment under the provisions of the constitution on a question relating to PERSONAL LIBERTY; and if there were any other method of submitting an amendment, I should be very glad to employ it. I am not a prohibitionist, Mr. President, and never have pretended to be. I do claim to be a temperance man; I do not approach this question from a moral viewpoint, BECAUSE I AM UNABLE TO SEE IT AS A GREAT MORAL QUESTION.

The fact Mr. Harding voted for the resolution while holding such views indicates he voted for political expediency rather than to express his convictions. He voted against prohibition in the District of Columbia and is rated as having owned brewery stock. In view of all this the effort of the Portland Oregonian to elect Mr. Harding on a dry slogan has evidences of absurdity. The Harding record needs an evaporating treatment if he is to pose in the role the Oregonian has chosen for him.

TWO ARE INJURED IN RUNAWAY OF STAGE

(East Oregonian Special.)
UKIAH, July 14.—Granville Plant, the Long Creek stage driver, had a lively runaway near Dale last Saturday, when a single tree broke and the horses started to run, throwing the driver and two passengers out, seriously injuring Gus Hale, and for a while it was thought his injuries would prove fatal, as he was hurt internally. He is slowly recovering, however, while Mr. Moore, the other passenger, has an arm severely hurt. Mr. Plant, the driver, escaped without a scratch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kirk and daughter returned Saturday, after spending two weeks in the mountains. They visited at both the Lehman and Hildaway Springs a few days.

A small fire was started on Bridge creek last week, and was supposed to have been started by some one passing along the road and carelessly throwing down a burning cigar or cigarette. The road workers had their camp pitched on Bridge creek below where the fire started and they had to fight fire one afternoon and far into the night to keep it from burning their camp. It burned over about 50 acres, but no serious damage was done. Fred Peterson and Ray Moore, fire guards, went at once to the fire and remained with it until they had it controlled.

S. H. Bowman, of the Warren Music Co., of Pendleton, was in Ukiah Wednesday and Thursday demonstrating the Edison phonograph.

Last Thursday was an extremely warm day in Caspar prairie. Earl Turner and family of Pilot Rock, who have been visiting relatives in Ukiah for several days, returned home Saturday.

Robert Bond and George Caldwell are working on the irrigating ditch which leads to the Bond ranch.

Ben Colvin of Walla Walla, was in Ukiah Wednesday night.

Dillard French and wife of Butter creek, were Ukiah visitors Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mulkey, who were visiting at Ritter were cabled to Pendleton Thursday, on account of the death of Mrs. Mulkey's uncle, Ed Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gregory, who are leading camp for Smythe brothers, were in town Saturday for camp supplies. They will leave this week for Granite for the summer.

Mrs. Andy Rust of Portland, is visiting at the Ukiah hotel with relatives for an indefinite time.

Alison Peterson of Wenatchee, Washington, was visiting with his brother, V. B. Peterson, last week.

Wilber, Walter and Arthur Jones of Pilot Rock, were in Ukiah during the celebration of July 4th.

Walter Allison made a trip to Look-out mountain last week, filling Bert McLaughlin up there to begin his work there for the summer as fire lookout.

Arthur McRoberts made a trip to his homestead on Butter creek last Saturday. He was accompanied by Mr. Surface.

Mrs. Abe Martin and daughter, Edna, visited last week at the Hynds ranch where Mr. Martin has work.

Charley Welch is giving his residence a coat of paint.

A light shower fell about midnight Sunday night but not enough to do any good. Prospects, however, are good for more.

Johnny Mills was a business visitor in Ukiah Monday.

Jim Williams of Pendleton, was a guest at the Ukiah hotel Wednesday night.

Professor Walder, principal of the Fairview school, Tacoma, and Miss Agnes Hendrickson, nurse, also of Tacoma, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Moadie at the Moadie farm for a short time.

Lloyd Rickert of South Bend, Indiana, is here on a visit to Phoen Metzler. Mr. Rickert saw service in France and was a pal of Phoen's, in the engineering corps during the war.

J. T. Huston and grandson, Clarence Huston, made a trip to the John Day river Monday, to move the road-workers' camps, and they will begin working the John Day grade this week and hope to have it in good shape soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin made a trip to Al Janes near Pilot Rock, Sunday for cherries.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman of Butter creek, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mettle.

A surprise party was given at the Monarch hall last Saturday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Martin and family who leave Tuesday for Garfield, Washington. Games and dancing were indulged in, after which cake and ice cream was served to about 50 of their friends. All wish Mr. Martin and family prosperity, and contentment in their new home.

Mrs. Lola Laurence and Miss Frankie Sturdivant returned from Stanfield Monday. Cloyd Sturdivant returned with them.

Miss Helen Meening visited Saturday and Sunday at the Dern ranch, near Alba, the guest of Misses Ruth and Marie Dern.

Alex Shaffer, Roy Marcum, Dr. Schneider, Ralph Burgess and William Glass of Pilot Rock, passed through Ukiah Monday on their way to Big creek, on a fishing trip.

Little Ina Sturdivant returned from Bridge creek Saturday after spending a week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin.

Walter and Clyde Helmick and Trud Jarvis made a trip by auto to Yoakum and back on Sunday.

The Chandler Dispatch Car Has First Preference

The automobile industry has produced no distinctive model more popular than the Chandler Dispatch, a car reflecting in its lithe lines the character of its service. It is the first preference among those who want a four-passenger close-coupled open car. Its comfort, its beauty of line and finish, and its dependability are typical of the established Chandler quality.

The popularity of the Dispatch, which reaches to every corner of the world, is based not only on the grace of its trim design and its beautiful Rainbow Blue finish, but is due quite as much to the standard Chandler chassis upon which it is mounted. It seats four persons with utmost comfort. The driver's position is restful. The cushions are deep, well tilted and trimmed in the best of genuine hand-buffed leather.

With its wonderful flexibility of power, its ease of driving and real comfort, characteristic of all Chandler models, everybody likes the Dispatch.
