BRITAIN HAS 192,000 UNEMPLOYED FIGHTERS

LONDON, July 15.—(A. P.)—Debate in parliament has disclosed that 192,000 former service men are unemployed and have made claim to government aid for that reason. Of these 24,699 are disabled.

Approximately 140,000 disabled soldiers and sailors have found employment among the 16,595 firms which engaged with the government to help them.

Although many trade unions have volunteered to assist the government to reduce the number of unemployed, Field Marshal Lord Haig has bitterly attacked other unions for alleged discrimination against former service men, particularly those who were disabled in war.

Lord Haig has issued an appeal to employers and others to help him find employment for his former comrades in the field.

At a seance after long waiting no sign came from the spooky world. Then the inevitable seer remarked, "Perhaps the table leg has come to sleep."—Karlkatwein (Christiania).

NIGHT IN HONOLULU IS COMING SATURDAY

In "A Night in Honolulu," which comes to the Oregon Theatre next Saturday July 17, the native Hawaiian singers and musicians will be found to occupy a great deal of the spectators' attention. Hawaiian music by the gifted native singers and players has been a great success in America because it is different. The wild beauty of the music seems to carry the American audience across the Pacific to the Island Paradise. The melodious strains of their quaint songs and the accompaniment on native instruments is plaintive and fascinating.

Mark Twain after his first visit to the Hawaiian Islands, said in an interview: "The music of the Hawaiians, the most fascinating in the world, is still in my ears and haunts me sleeping and waking. I can still hear the pulsing of the surf at Waikiki, see the plump palms drooping by the shore, the garlanded crays and the leaping cascades and this music fills me with the spirit of its woodland solitudes."

SHANGHAI, July 15.—Profiteering has hit the uncounted millions of China's poor, and famine threatens. There is a rice shortage here that has created a condition which may be mildly described as acute. It is really to be described only in the superlative. The army officer, came back recently with the discovery of dead bodies of men, women and children, evident victims of starvation, being found by roadsides where they have been left because of families too stricken by poverty to pay for proper burial and trusting to the humanity of the foreign population to conduct the accustomed rites.

New York Journal of Commerce, March 27, 1920:

It is safe to say that while formerly the retail grocery business represented approximately 75 per cent credit and 25 per cent cash, today we observe an almost absolute reversal of this order. 70 per cent is cash over the counter and 30 per cent credit. For this reason you can see the cash store is leading and the old credit systems will soon be a thing of the past.

The real saving is paying cash at a cash store.
