MISS GRANSTON HONORED

Miss Helen Granston, who is visiting here from San Diego, California, was complimented in a charming way yesterday when Mrs. Fred H. Brown and Mrs. Lot Clinton Livermore were hostesses for a luncheon for her pleasure. Their guests were asked to the home of Mrs. Brown and sweet peas and Scania daisies made lovely appointments for the affair.

RECITAL IS SPLENDID

In a garden of snowy Shasta daisies, a perfect foil for the occasion, Miss Lois Gornall was presented with a delicate and smoothness, yet firmness of determination, and a confidence and power of accomplishment which bespoke splendid susceptibility to knowledge and elegance in careful direction. Hummel, Schumann, Mendelssohn, Chopin, MacDowell, Leschetzky and Gregor furnished material for the young musician's craftsmanship, her first group winning the audience completely with its wealth of daintiness and fastidious accuracy. Progressing to works of Chopin, she displayed the same refined perception and in response to two encores—"Will o' the Wisp" (MacDowell) and "O Flut Waltz" (Chopin) her ability and poise were delightful.

Tenderness and subtle distinctions were marked in the playing of "To a Waterlily," and in her closing number, "Wedding Music" (Greig). Miss Gornall won a storm of applause for her splendid reliance, critical niceness and finesse.

Adding much to the evening's pleasure Miss Lillian Cully and Miss Jane Murphy assisted the pianist, and their delightful vocal numbers were "The Rose Tree" (Franz), "Bird of Love" (Wood) by Miss Cully and "My Little" (Thayer) and "Little Damsel" (Novello) by Miss Murphy. Mrs. Boyden playing their accompaniments.

Patronesses for the affair were Mrs. S. H. Forsyth, Mrs. E. W. McComas, Mrs. Lina Sturges, Mrs. L. L. Rogers, Mrs. Norborne Berkeley, Mrs. George Hartman, Mrs. Joseph N. Scott, Mrs. S. R. Thompson, Mrs. F. E. King, Mrs. Roland Oliver, Mrs. A. J. Owen, Mrs. J. B. McCook, Mrs. Charles Bond, Mrs. Harold Warner, Mrs. Frank Hays, Mrs. J. B. Bailey and Miss Beth Smith.

A group of maid-servants as ushers. They were Miss Mary Clarke, Miss Mildred Rogers, Miss Catherine McNary, Miss Vivian Estes and Miss Anna Roesch.

Great clusters of Shasta daisies decked the church and showered from baskets while the slides of light fell across the chancel and dainty pianist. Mrs. W. D. Humphrey, Mrs. David B. Hill and Miss Laura Jerard assisted Mrs. Boyden with the decoration.

The affair netted nearly two hundred dollars, so genuine was the interest in the talented maid. Miss Gornall, who is not yet fourteen years of age, has won a half scholarship at the American Conservatory of Music and she is to go to the Chicago institution this fall to continue her study of music.

LOS ANGELES SHAKEN BY QUAKE

Several Injured.

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—(U. P.)—Katherine Varnedoe, 11, was struck in the head by a brick when a chimney at her mother's home toppled over. She will recover. Mrs. Emma Ryan was knocked down and trampled upon when a crowd of shoppers rushed from a department store holding a sale. Mrs. Fannie Pirks, in a hurry to rush from the house, fell down a flight of stairs and injured her ankle.

Reports to the police failed to reveal any serious damage but it is said quantities of glass both in the business and residential sections were broken. One man was injured by broken glass which fell from a window beneath which he was standing.

Panic Fills Jail.
The quake was felt only slightly at Inglewood and no damage was done there.

There was a panic in the city jail here when the building careened giddily. Half a dozen prisoners knelt in their cells and prayed. Others yelled frantically to be released and struggled with the immovable bars of their cells.

The city council was in session and a member in the midst of a spirited address, "I move we adjourn," shouted another member and the motion carried literally with a rush for the doors.

Rocks in quantity rolled down First street hill about into the business district in the vicinity of the city jail. It was there that the nearest approach to a panic was reported.

Volcano Thought Origin.

SANTA CLARA, July 15.—(U. P.)—The Los Angeles earthquake is probably of volcanic origin, local in extent, according to Father Ricard, who inspected the seismograph at the Santa Clara University for the United Press today. He based his theory on the fact that although the quake is of considerable violence, records on his instrument are so small as to require microscopic examination. The quake probably continued half a minute," he said. "It consisted of one major tremor, with four or five smaller ones."

EX-TEACHER SOUGHT FOR DISLOYAL TALK

WALLA WALLA, July 16.—(U. P.)—Ex-service men and irate citizens are searching for E. R. Ormsbee, an alleged non-partisan league organizer, said to have made derogatory remarks about American soldiers. A crowd searched Ormsbee's hotel last night but could not find trace of the man. He formerly was a high school instructor.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST RACE HORSE

Being the greatest horse in the world has its responsibilities. The blue-blooded turf star lives like a prima donna of the stage. His eyes are as brilliant as the stars in a midnight sky and his skin like velvet satin of a rose. Samuel D. Riddle of Glen Riddle, Pa., is the owner of the great three-year-old. That's him holding the silver bit as he admires the biggest chattel in thoroughbred. After a gallop his sound, round hoofs are washed free from every particle of dirt. His shoes are forged of the bluest of steel by the most careful of shoemasters. After the mercury-footed colt had galloped a new world's record at Belmont Park—2:14 1-5 for a mile and three furlongs—Riddle was handed a blank check and asked to write in his own figures for his champion colt—but he returned it without the quiver of an eyelash.

PERSISTENT WOOPER TRIES ROUGH STUFF WITH ILL EFFECT

WINSPIEG, Man., July 16.—(U. P.)

George Locke, returned soldier, had been a persistent wooper of Miss Myra Fidler of this city, but had been unable to induce the young lady to "set the date." George had almost given up hope when he read a novel by a Spanish author advocating the "treat em rough" method and immediately prepared to carry out the author's suggestions.

A few days later George was arrested for shooting Miss Fidler through one thigh and attempting suicide. During his convalescence at a local hospital Miss Fidler was a constant attendant upon him. At Locke's trial she said: "I didn't love him well enough before he shot me to marry him, but I do now."

All was in readiness for the wedding in case Locke was freed, but the

PALE-TINTED ORGANDIE, DAINTY COSTUME

NEW YORK—Here is a simple costume that is exceedingly attractive. This particular one is a pale orchid tint. The hat is one of those flare-brimmed shapes that are soft yet have a distinct and distinguished line to them. The underbrim is of organdie a trifle deeper in tone than the soft crown. An organdie band and smart bow complete the hat. The frock has a blouse with a deep roll-over collar, short sleeves and a sash that is cut wider in front to form a girlish effect, then ties in a butterfly bow at the back.

53,554 SHEEP, 9,599 STOCK FEED IN FOREST

Sheep grazing on the Umatilla national forest during the past year numbered 53,554, while the cattle and horses totaled 9,599, according to a report issued today by R. A. Boucher, deputy supervisor, of the local forestry office.

Timber was sold to the extent of 3,153,829 board feet, the value being $7,847.75, and 2,118,060 feet have already been cut. Free use of timber has been granted for cordwood purposes to the extent of 943,000 feet, valued at $15.34. Most of the timber for lumber sold was for the Teel project.

Eleven grazing permits, the report states, were revoked because of non-payment of fees. Crossing permits for 180,000 head of stock were issued. Other permits issued included those for the use of cabins, telephones, etc.

There were 8 cases of trespassing on the forest, two being proved ignorant of trespass and four being convicted and fined for intentional trespass. Two cases are still pending trial. The report shows that eight miles of new road has been constructed within the national forest which is added to the 26 miles already completed and 27 miles of old trail. Eight miles of road were also added by the operation of the 10 per cent fund. One hundred forty-seven miles have been built without the aid of forestry service funds within the national forest, and a total of 195 miles of telephone are now installed in the forest.

To date over 500 miles of fence have been constructed for drifting stock and 28 watering places have been developed.

HUNTER HOME FROM AFRICA

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—(A. P.)—Stewart Hodges, big game hunter, of Chicago has returned from a year's hunt in the African jungles where he collected six tons of hides of elephants, tigers, lions and other wild beasts. Hodges told of a close call with death when he was charged by a cow elephant from the rear he was firing on a bull elephant. The monster arched by with her head covered with underbrush which blinded her, thus saving his life, he said.

FALSE STANDARD OF CULTURE

has gained ground in this country which looks upon the bearing and rearing of children as something coarse and vulgar and to be avoided, but the advent of Eugenics means much for the motherhood of the race. Happy is the wife who, though weak and ailing, depends upon Lydia E.
