RESOLUTE SPEEDS PAST CHALLENGER FOR TODAY'S VICTORY

PROHIBITIONIST CONVENTION, CALLED TO ORDER AT 10:05, HEARS OLD PARTIES FLAYED

About 300 Delegates Are in Attendance With Scattering Crowd on Floor and in Galleries for Lincoln Session.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN GIVES KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Chairman V. G. Hainshaw Cites Policies Launched by Drys and Nominees Are Forgotten in Two Hours Speechmaking

LINCOLN, July 21.—(U. P.)—Delegates to the prohibition party convention were called to order at 10:05 today by Chairman Hainshaw. About 300 were in attendance with a scattering crowd on the floor and in the galleries. Aaron S. Watkins of Ohio, temporary chairman, gave the keynote address.

Cites Party's Achievements. LINCOLN, July 21.—(U. P.)—"Haven't we been some party," National Chairman Clegg G. Hainshaw asked the opening session of the prohibition party convention here today.

Hainshaw enumerated the planks the party had sponsored before the old parties had taken them up or they had been adopted without old party sponsorship. Among those for which he claimed credit to the prohibition party were woman suffrage, civil service, direct election of senators, opposition to lotteries, opposition to white slave traffic, child labor laws, uniform marriage and divorce laws and above all, prohibition.

Spears told of the lost plank in the republican platform. Acceding to the testimony of William Allen White and Reed Smoot, he said, "the resolutions committee adopted a dry plank, but it was lost on the way to the convention. The entire convention adopted by unanimous vote a law enforcement plank but that plank was lost on the way from the national convention to the republican party backing press and that declaration is missing from the official platform issued by the republican party headquarters."

Hainshaw also attacked the republican and democratic party candidates, Harding as an "anti-prohibitionist" and Cox as "an out and out wet."

LINCOLN, July 21.—(U. P.)—Aaron S. Watkins, temporary chairman of the national prohibition party convention, today held the republican and democratic party in the scales and declared they struck an exact balance. Declaring the two older parties had produced a stoma when the demand was for bread, Watkins criticised both impartially.

The prohibition party's mission is not ended, Watkins declared. Former liquor selling places are being held intact, he said, until "indifference and tolerance of officials shall have become positive friendship."

FORMER PENDLETONIAN IS DEAD AT WAVERLY

Benjamin Franklin Dashiell, formerly of this city, died at Waverly recently, according to word received here today from Spokane. In 1909 Mr. Dashiell, with two brothers, Frederick A. Dashiell and Robert L. Dashiell, crossed the plains by ox team and settled in Umatilla county, Oregon. In 1872 they came to Stevens county, Wash., which then composed all the territory in eastern Washington lying north of Shuswap river and south of British Columbia settling on lands in the vicinity of Spangle and Waverly.

The late Mr. Dashiell took up the homestead 48 years ago, where he resided until his death. Waverly was located on his land and the old cabin that has stood for nearly 50 years will be preserved by Spokane as a memorial to its founder.

SHAMROCK IV WINS LEAD AT START, PUTTING UP STIFF BID FOR AMERICA'S YACHTING CUP

IN TWO MONTHS CITY WILL BE SEETHING WITH 11TH ROUND-UP

In two months Pendleton will be seething in its eleventh annual Round-Up, and in preparation for the three big days in September, members of the Round-Up board are already making plans to "Let 'er Buck."

There are 45 pieces in the Multnomah guard band and each will play lustily on Friday and Saturday, for Fred Earl, in charge of the non-competitive events for the Round-Up, yesterday accepted the band's proposition to come here on condition that their expenses be paid. Besides the Multnomah tooters, there will be other bands in plenty, says Mr. Earl, who is considering several propositions.

For the first time in the history of the Round-Up, the contract for decorating the city has been given to a local man. Sam Wright, who gained his experience in decorating Happy Canyon for the Round-Up and auto-shows, besides dressing up Pendleton for Fourth of July celebrations, has been awarded the contract. Sam attended the national Signcraft convention in Portland recently and has some new ideas for the city's Round-Up attire.

PILOT ROCK, July 21.—Ernest Fanning, of Pilot Rock, a brother of Mrs. L. C. Scharpf of this city, was seriously injured last night while fighting a fire which broke out at the George Horn ranch, four miles from Pilot Rock. Mr. Fanning, while sliding down a roof, ran splinters from shingles into his nose and cut the wrist of his left hand to such an extent that it may be necessary to amputate the member. He is at St. Anthony's hospital.

The fire, which was of unknown origin, broke out at 9:30 p. m. yesterday. The barn, garage and chicken house on the ranch were totally destroyed. The fire was fought by many volunteers who went from Pilot Rock to the ranch.

Defender of Title Makes Eleventh Hour Sprint and Stays in Race, Overcoming Eighth of Mile Gain.

BOATS SAILED NECK AND NECK IN FAST BREEZE

Both Contenders Do Much Tackling With Holder of Championship Gaining on Every Hitch Toward Finish.

SANDY HOOK, July 21.—(A. P.)—The American defender Resolute defeated the Shamrock at four today by her time allowance and not a second more. Taking the lead after the start, the American sloop held first place on most of the first leg, and turned the first mark and held almost to a finish line. Within a mile of the finish the Shamrock drew alongside, but the Resolute was granted a time allowance of seven minutes and one second, was safe. Had it not been for the time allowance which the challenger had to give she would perhaps have won, because she finished in 18 seconds ahead of the defender. She crossed the starting line, however 18 seconds ahead of the Resolute and so, boat by boat, by unofficial timing, lost the race by one second plus the seven minutes and one second she had to give the defender.

Is First Victory. SANDY HOOK, July 21.—(A. P.)—The American defender Resolute today won her first race of the 1920 series for America's cup. She must take two more straight victories to prevent the Shamrock from lifting the trophy.

Race Most Interesting. SANDY HOOK, July 21.—(U. P.)—With a wind which at times reached 14 knots, the race today was most interesting of the series. The boats were on their racing lines. The Resolute went into the lead after a hard battle with the Shamrock at the start. The Resolute gradually gained on her rival and as she turned the outer mark the Resolute led by one minute and 45 seconds. The 15 miles back to the starting place was nearly run before the wind.

SANDY HOOK, July 21.—(A. P.)—The Resolute won today's race. Aboard British Destroyer Goldborough, July 21.—(U. P.)—The postponement flag was hoisted for half an hour before the time of the start in the third race of the Shamrock and Resolute for America's yachting championship. Lipton only needs to win one more race to capture the trophy, and excitement was intense as the race got under way at 1 p. m. the Shamrock crossing the line slightly ahead and the Resolute in 18 seconds behind.

Half an hour after the start the Shamrock had a lead of at least an 8th of a mile, going rapidly. When the Shamrock split tacks the Resolute went into a lead of 100 yards. At 2:50 the Resolute was nearly a half mile in the lead. After the Resolute took the lead the two yachts were so close together that a man could have jumped from one deck to another. Work on both boats was fast and smart seamanship was evident. An eight mile breeze made time for fast thinking and faster action.

Race Is Tight. SANDY HOOK, July 21.—(A. P.)—The Shamrock led for several miles, the Resolute coming up and taking the lead after both boats did much tacking. It was a tight race, with the advantage lying with the Resolute, the latter gained slightly on every hitch as the sloops tacked. The wind was about seven or eight knots.

Two Legs in course. SANDY HOOK, July 21.—(A. P.)—Postponement of 15 minute intervals was ordered at 11:30 today by the committee directing the cup races. With scarcely a breath of air, the sloops idled around the Ambrose channel lightship awaiting a blow. The scheduled race was over a 20 mile windward, leeward course of two 15 mile legs.

Shamrock Has Start. SANDY HOOK, July 21.—(A. P.)—The Shamrock today led across the starting line, the Resolute following 13 seconds later.

Resolute Sets Pace. SANDY HOOK, July 21.—The Resolute set the pace in the first half of the third race with the Shamrock for America's cup today. The American boat reached the outer mark of the 15-mile course, commanding the lead, six miles from the finish she was 200 yards ahead.
