DECEMBER WHEAT GOES DOWN

AUBURN 62 and 64.

(From Overbeck & Cooke Co.)

CHICAGO, July 27.—Wheat—Trade was broader, with sentiment decidedly bearish, and new low points established for all deliveries. Reports of export business meant nothing as they were able to secure the wheat at lower prices with every indication that the movement from first hand will be limited only by the ability of the carriers to handle. Cash markets throughout the day were also weak and sharply lower and bids to the country further reduced. Advances from the spring wheat territory were distinctly suggestive of gross exaggeration in the recent reports of damage from black rust, losses were confined to unimportant sections and the crop in the aggregate will in all probability be well up to early predictions. Foreign news is attracting more attention as excellent crop conditions reduce European importations. A supply of nearly 3,000,000,000 bushels of wheat is in country for the coming year, including the carry over from last year's crop, emphasizes the need of an export demand of good proportions to maintain prices.

Corn—Held comparatively steady previous to midday but again became semi-demoralized when liquidation was resumed. Numerous and conflicting explanations of the decline are being given, but a complete analysis will reveal the truth—that the disputed financial situation to which attention was repeatedly called weeks ago—is just asserting itself. The cash market has displayed no more stability than the futures, buyers are indifferent even in face of prospects that receipts will diminish for the time being while the new crops that are now available take preference. We think the decline is being somewhat over-exaggerated, that a rally of good proportions is due, but whether it can be brought about with credit conditions as at present is problematical.

Oats—Weakness in July and cash was the feature. Rallies in the futures were small, and unimportant and aside from reports of an export demand, the first in some time, there was nothing in the developments to revive confidence on the buying side. No. 2 white in the local spot market sold mostly at July prices. The adjustment of the market between cash and July has been completed and the premium over September is now within reaching distance.

Rye—A preponderance of selling orders throughout the day prevented the recovery that must have taken place coincident with the announcement that some good sized quantities had been worked for export. Cash rye was fully as weak as the futures.

THOUSANDS PAY TRIBUTE

vant of the people we will set our faces like flint against every intimation and suggestion of summary dealing with these blood-thirst desperadoes if they are brought living back again to the jail from whence they escaped. And lives like Tilman Taylor's are key-stones to the high note of service backed and bulwarked by a granite manhood never die. They have consciously or unconsciously caught the spirit of the incarnate Son of God who lived in this world not to be ministered unto but to minister and to spend and be spent for the sake of others. We are not asking the question why this awful tragedy should have occurred for there is no answer to that question. We go back in thought to that event the most awful in human history.

Life Is Example.

But through the shining of the years we behold that life as a veritable dynamo of energy quickening men to lives of heroism and self-forgetting ministry even as it inspired the life of Tilman Taylor. What we do know beyond the peradventure of a doubt is that God was in no way responsible for the slaying of Jesus Christ and that his own infinite heart of love agonized in the agony of His Son. We do not know who a brutal and cowardly hand should have been permitted to strike down this faithful public servant, but we do know that while that hand has killed the body it has been powerless to destroy the soul. He lives and will ever live both in the immortality of his imperishable influence and in that personal immortality whereby he shall move forward and onward to higher heights of manhood and character in that tearless and deathless life beyond the stars. In what few calm moments that have been mine since this awful event it seems to me I hear him saying that this is the way "to go. In the full flush of manhood which may hand still at the task given to do, in the rendering of the service to which the people had summoned me and not after weary weeks of sickness and of pain would I elect to take my journey onward to God and home.

Life Just Begun.

A brave life, a manly character, a noble manhood, sweet, gentle, kind, a friend whose circles were almost boundless and limitless has ended eye not ended, but only just begun for that Christ whose spirit of service Tilman Taylor caught has plucked the sting of death and robbed the grave of any victory it may ever have won and taught us that death is not writing the word final to the book of life, but only the words to be continued. By popular subscription or otherwise let there be placed on the walls of our court house a simple but substantial bronze tablet recording the date of his birth, the date of his death and the years during which he served the people in that court house.

Tablet to Honor.

Then let that tablet state the fact that he was a true friend, an exemplary citizen, a faithful public official. He died as he lived, performing his duty. Let that tablet teach our children and our children's children the simple lesson of fidelity and faithfulness to the higher ideals of living even the ideals of service that is rendered out of a full and overflowing manhood. Hall friend and servant of us all. We do not have to say farewell from out from the battlements of heaven we hear sounding clear and distinct as the tolling of a bell the words he thought faithful until death and I will give thee the crown of life. That crown Tilman Taylor is yours because you have nobly earned it and in that fair country we know there will be found for every richer avenues of service and of industry and that when we greet you there we shall find that you have and are wearing that crown of life as you wore it most worthily. Not the defeat and overthrow but the crowning and glorifying of your life is the experience into which you have entered and we shall try to catch your spirit, aye rather the spirit of Him who inspired you that at the end we may be worthy as thou art worthy of a place with those of whom it may be said:

Gray Brothers Grocery Company,

Pendleton, Oregon.

Gentlemen:—Congratulations! We have just noticed in figures published by the Census Bureau at Washington that your city is among those which have enjoyed the greatest increases in population in the last decade.

It seems to us that a growth of 65.6 per cent within the comparatively short space of ten years is evidence of startling rapid progress and that you are fortunate in being both a resident and a merchant in such a thriving community. Let us hope that you are securing your full share of this additional demand, which has been making itself felt in Pendleton and that the good work may be continued.

Yours very truly,

CHASE & SANBORN.

Worked Under System.

Every party that left the court house last evening had a designated chief and every man had definite instructions to take the criminals at any hazard if seen. Disclosures made by Thomson yesterday near Camp D on the Cabbage Hill road led to the following of the hunch that the men would be found in Squaw creek.

Trace of Anderson and Patterson, the two bad check men who escaped in the wholesale jail break of Sunday afternoon, has been partially lost for the time being. Neither is a dangerous man and efforts to find Owen Hart and Rathie, murderers of Sheriff Taylor, are receiving the most concentrated attention.

JAPANESE SUICIDES FOLLOW DEPRESSION

TOKYO, July 27.—(A. P.)—Out of 15 hundred suicides the last two months many have been due to the financial depression in Japan, according to reports here. Among those whose suicide has been traced to the slump in the markets is Lachiji Takeuchi of Osaka, a millionaire, who lost $2,000,000 on raw cotton. Kyotro Morioka, president of the Motosu bank of Osaka, and many others threw themselves before the railroad trains, thus taking their lives.

Raw silk has continued to decline and the exporters' association of Yokohama has strengthened its measures for the reduction of production. These measures provide for the punishment of violators.

The failure of one of the leading dealers in sugar has had a bad effect upon the sugar market.

CHICAGO BANDITS GET AWAY WITH $25,000

CHICAGO, July 27.—(A. P.)—Two bandits and two express company paymasters were shot, one of the latter probably fatally and $25,000 stolen in two payroll robberies within 20 minutes of each other today. The bandits escaped.

Earlier in the day two young men who have been holding branches of a chain store grocery system perpetrated their 15th robbery within a month, escaping with $750.

Five bandits in a touring car fought with three express company messengers in front of the Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothing factory and escaped with a steel box containing $10,000 after two of them were wounded.

More than 50 shots were exchanged while 200 pedestrians and employees of the factory looked on. George Hauback, an express paymaster, was shot through the head, and is not expected to live.

Shortly after the first holdup three armed men drove up to the Peterson machine works and took $15,000 from Abe Nelson, a saloonkeeper, who is a stockholder.

CLAIM LOW BUILDINGS ARE MORE PROFITABLE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 27.—(A. P.)—Low buildings erected on expansive lots are more profitable than skyscrapers towering into the air, in the opinion of various members of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers expressed at their annual convention here. This is contradictory to the generally accepted theory of realty men.

Reading a paper at one of the sessions on "Analysis of the Comparative Investment Value of Office Buildings of Various Heights," Edwin S. Jewell, of Omaha, an advocate of the low building theory, said that since land values are enhanced by the increase in population in a section and not by the size of buildings on it, structures under 10 stories in height were more profitable in that a saving would be made on the tremendous cost of foundation and enormous elevator equipment.

stories high covering the same piece of ground."

Mr. Jewell, who is chairman of the operating experience committee of the building owners and managers association, also asserted that the low office building plan would spread the business districts of cities over wider areas and raise land values, enabling cities to raise more revenue for schools and other public improvements.

"The low building plan," he said, "would prevent congestion, promote safety and good health and by forcing the spreading of the business district over a wider area, provide more stores, which would result in greater competition and lower prices to the buying public."

A low building, Mr. Jewell asserted, can be built for 14 cents per cubic foot cheaper than a tall building of the same quality because cement can be used instead of steel.

Mr. Jewell asserted he had made a study of revenues from a large number of office buildings in more than 50 cities, adding that the receipts and expenditures from 142 buildings in 1919 showed an average income of about $1.41 per square foot whereas it would require $2.54 per square foot to make the investment realize six per cent.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS KEEP OUT OF POLITICS

WASHINGTON, July 27.—All postmasters and postal employees are warned to "refrain carefully from engaging in any political activity during the political campaign, in an order issued today by Postmaster-General Burleson.

Quoting rulings by the civil service commission, the order gave notice that presidential appointees are forbidden to solicit or receive contributions, must not use their office "to conduct political movements or cause public scandal," while employees actually under civil service are forbidden to take an active part in management or conduct of political campaigns.

Employees under civil service, the notice said, "are accountable for activity by persons other than themselves, including wives and husbands. If they are in fact accomplishing through the relationship purposes which they are forbidden directly to seek."

It is admitted in French circles that the Moscow government displayed moderation in dealing with the Bolsheviks. It was stated this moderation was for the purpose of getting the allies to agree to a conference at which it is hoped the allies will be persuaded to abandon General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik commander in the Russian southern front. It was stated that if the soviets agree to recognize Russia's debt to France, Wrangel could be surrendered. AN IMPORTANT LETTER

BISHOP, CALIF.—"About five years ago I suffered severely. I consulted a local doctor and he said I would have to undergo an operation. When I said 'No,' he advised a course of treatments. I happened to think of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, and in it I found my case thoroughly described. I sat right down and wrote to Dr. Pierce. I then tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—took one bottle—also one bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and used the 'Lotion Tablets' and I have not been troubled since. I have had two fine healthy boys since then, and work hard. At that time I was not able to do my own work. I have used the 'Pleasant Pellets' for the liver and bowels for about 20 years, wouldn't be without them."—Mrs. S. G. ALBRIGHT, R. F. D. No. 1.

Write to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., if you want free confidential medical advice, or send 50 cents for the "Medical Adviser."
