

AT THE THEATRES

ARCADÉ THURSDAY MURDER MYSTERY
PICTURE IN PICTURE
 Can murder, under any circumstances, be justifiable?
 Can a man ever be justified in ending the life of another?

Not A Blotch
 mas the perfect appearance of her complexion. Permanent and temporary skin troubles are effectively concealed. Restores unnatural color and corrects greasy skins. Highly antiseptic, used with beneficial results as a curative agent for 70 years.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream
 LITTLE BROTHERS, New York

ing the life of another?
 Can a man be forgiven by the daughter of the man he killed?
 The above are some of the questions taken up and answered unshrinkingly in "The River's End," the new Marshall Neilan production written by James Oliver Curwood and distributed by First National Exhibitors Circuit, which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre today.

"The River's End" deals with the story of a murder, the strangest on record—one that will play on your every emotion. And well, counterplotting the story of this strange murder, a romantic interest of unusual design gives the production its lighter and less gripping moments.

ALTA TODAY ONLY PRINCE PARTS A PAIR OF LOVERS
 "The Steggar Prince" in which Sessue Hayakawa will be seen at the Alta Theatre today only takes one to an imaginary land where fantastical happenings take place. This is a Robertson-Cole Superior picture, produced by Haworth. It was made in California on one of the most beautiful of Pacific beaches.

The scenes are laid in a fisher village above which towers a castle in which lives a young and dally spoiled prince. In the village there is a poor young fisherman, known as Niki, who is in love with a beautiful girl of the village, named Olala. They are very happy until the day when the prince comes down to the beach and sees Olala, whereupon he becomes infatuated, and determines he must have the girl.

Attacks the Prince
 He never has been detailed anything, and does not think to ask whether the girl has any relatives or friends in the village. So he becomes angry when a young man presents himself, and begs the prince not to take away the girl, who is his sweetheart. His treatment of the poor fisherman, who loves the fisher girl, is so scornful that the latter rebels, and attacks the prince.

This is the opening wedge in a story which tells how the prince and the fisherman changed places, and how the poor fisherman, who had seen enough of life to know the value of kind treatment and justice, and to apply them when he comes into power, renders the country great aid. Hayakawa plays the dual role of the prince and the fisherman, who look so much alike that nobody in the kingdom can tell them apart.
 Beatrice La Plante, Thelma Percy.

Bert Hadley, Joseph Swickard and others are seen in support.

PASTIME TODAY SECOND ANNOUNCEMENT

Once more will Shorty Hamilton appear at the Pastime and on Thursday he will be seen in "The Snail." This time Shorty will be found first as the manager of his father's snail farm in the far off China, and later in his own attractive impersonation of the venture seeking cowboy in our great cattle lands. As usual, Shorty starts things by falling in love and now we have as an object of his affection a charming little half-breed Oriental beauty named "The Snail," who returns his love with all the ardor that is to be found in a little Chinese maiden's heart. This love does not find smooth sailing, however. Shorty's father being bitterly opposed to the union between his full fledged American son and the supposed daughter of his native foreigner, Shorty defies his father and a series of big red blooded action then follows in rapid succession. The little maiden is sold into slavery and deported to San Francisco's Chinatown with Shorty in quick pursuit. Once more a friendly Chinaman of the custom of amusing Chinese girls across the Mexican border and having failed to find his sweetheart amidst the usual haunts of Frisco, enlists the support of fellow cowboys and members of the Texas rangers and awaits the next importation over the line. A thrilling encounter is shown with Shorty ever in the lead and here fate takes a hand and with victory for the American party, comes the rescue by Shorty of his lost sweetheart. With an abundance of events preceding, there is yet a most surprising and pleasing event to be chronicled before the story is brought to a happy conclusion and this is the establishing by Shorty of his sweetheart's claim as the daughter of one of the most influential and wealthy men of that country and which is accomplished in a most legitimate and consistent manner. Their marriage then follows and all ends as any real love story should. Everybody is made happy.

"DANDERINE"

Stops Hair Coming Out; Doubles its Beauty.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After a application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

Heath, Mr. Thoremorton, E. M. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Langley, Lillian English.

Bennett Dohl left Monday for North Dakota. He has been visiting his mother, Mrs. H. H. Hillman.

A crowd of young people formed a swimming party Tuesday evening. Among them were Mrs. J. Roorik, Lillian English, Ruth Ellis, Beattie Heath, Frederick Heath, Carl Livingston, Perry Woods, Max Livingston, Clarence Snyder.

Frederick Heath arrived home last night from The Dalles.

Lillian English left for Helly today for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Eltor.

"TIP" TAYLOR

Portland Telegram.)
 Only west of the Missouri river are "Tip" Taylors developed. The East does not know them except through newspapers, magazines and books dealing with fact and fiction. It has never come into personal contact with the ideal inter-mountain and Pacific coast sheriff—the man who in boyhood and youth learned to ride "anything that stood on four legs," to shoot from the shoulder, or from the waist without sighting, to put a hole through a tin can thrown into the air with a revolver bullet; who was cool-headed and courageous, conscious of danger, but never seeking to avoid it when the emergency came; who was champion of law and order, the hated enemy of criminals and outlaws, and the staunch conservator of peace.

Such a man was Timman Taylor, sheriff of Umatilla county, Oregon, who was murdered in the discharge of his duties. In him were embodied the skill, the bravery, the strong sense of public duty, the social quality and

PASTIME TODAY

Children 5c Adults, 20c

The... Snail

San Francisco's China Town—The Opium Joints—Smuggling on the Mexican Border

This is the Atmosphere of This SHORTY HAMILTON PICTURE

In Addition
CHRISTY COMEDY—"PETTICOATS AND PANTS"

the romance that attach to the western sheriff of earlier days. He was a man among men—all sorts of men. As the supreme peace officer within his bailiwick, he kept on as good terms with the orderly saloonkeeper, before prohibition came as with the circuit judge, and looked upon the least criminal denizens of the underworld as human beings despite their sin and frailties. He held this respect together with the respect and never-failing moral support of the great law-abiding, order-loving majority.

Underneath his service which made him the most conspicuous figure in Umatilla county, if not in Eastern Oregon, lay character, the firm foundation for the best American citizenship. His re-election as sheriff for seven successive terms on the ticket of the minority party, and in violation of the two-term tradition almost universally observed elsewhere, is a just tribute to his many character. Also, it may be taken as a mark of affectionate regard from his neighbors and friends.

Without "Tip" Taylor, what will the famed Pendleton Round-Up be? Not quite the same as it has been in the past. It will still be the unique institution, less "Tip's" living presence, but the memory of him will survive and among his contemporaries his spirit will linger for many years.

WILL ASSIST DOBIE
 SEATTLE, Wn., July 29.—Ray C. ("Mike") Hunt, captain of the University of Washington football team in 1915, has been engaged to assist Gilmore Dobie in coaching the Cornell University eleven this year, according to a letter received here from Dobie. Dobie, former University of Washington coach, was with the United States Military Academy at Annapolis until he went to Cornell last year. Hunt is from Yakima, Washington.

Girls! Delightful New Vanishing Cream

Containing True Buttermilk Must Make You Look Younger or Money Back.

Your complexion from the use of this old-fashioned beauty recipe brought up to date, must quickly show a decided improvement if your dealer is authorized to return your money. Be sure you get Howard's Buttermilk Cream

ALTA Today Only

Children 10c Adults 35c

What You'll See in The Beggar Prince

A Masterpiece of Motion-Picture Art.
 A complete Fishing Village in a Far East Village.
 Sumptuous Settings of the Throne Room of an Oriental Prince.
 Hayakawa in the Dual Role of a Wicked Prince and a Beggar Fisherman.
 A bevy of Beautiful girls in Striking and Original Oriental Dances.
 Graphic Picturization of the Voluptuous and Fantastic Pleasures of an Eastern Prince.
 Picturesque and Beautiful Scenes of Satalina the Paradise Island off the California coast.
 The Gorgeous Palace of an Eastern Prince, such as might be seen in "The Arabian Nights."

Sessue HAYAKAWA THE BEGGAR PRINCE

MOTHER!

"California Syrup of Figs" Child's Best Laxative

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its fruity taste. Full directions on each bottle. You must say "California."

CALIFORNIANS RETURN AFTER VISITING RIETH

(East Oregonian Special.)
 RIETH, July 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Gish left Tuesday morning for their home in California. They have been visiting Mrs. Gish's sister, Mrs. W. W. Snyder.
 Ruth Ellis, Beattie Heath and Walter Holden returned home from Kamela Tuesday.
 Walter Holden came in Saturday from California and surprised a great many friends. Mr. Holden is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ellis.
 Among the Rich people who were in Pendleton Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Gentry Short, Mr. and Mrs. John

ARCADÉ Thursday - Friday - Saturday

Children 10c Adults - 35c

WE PRONOUNCE IT THE BEST PICTURE

We Have Been Privileged to Present for Months

A Romance of God's Country

Hello! Yes—this is Mary Conniston—

His Eyes Could See Through a Boiler Plate

This is John Keith, a fugitive accused of murder.

ESCAPE THE HEAT BY ATTENDING THE MATINEE IN A COOL THEATRE.

and off there? "God's Country" is the answer.

"Why Not White Girl Love Chinaman?"

Marshall Neilan PRESENTS

"THE RIVER'S END"

BY JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD