

News of Pendleton

Hendrickson Joins Grain Office
 B. Hendrickson, formerly a Helix teacher, today joined the Northern Grain & Warehouse Co. forces here as an assistant to Manager B. M. Hunt. Mr. Hendrickson will be a field man during the buying season.

P. Proctor Sends Wire
 A. Plumbler Proctor, in a telegram to the editor of the East Oregonian today, says he regrets exceedingly Sheriff Taylor's death and extends sympathy for the Pendleton people in their loss. Mr. Proctor, who is a famous upator, spent some time here while riding Indian types and was a personal friend of Sheriff Taylor. Mr. Proctor is now in New York, where he has a studio.

Cars Received
 Nine cars of distillate were shipped to Umatilla county during the past month through the Umatilla county farm bureau. Farmers at Athena, Pendleton, Pilot Rock, Mission, Van Cle and Helix received enough to insure an uninterrupted harvest. Because most of the cars coming in contain 10,000 gallons where 8,000 were needed, an accumulation of about 3,000 gallons more than was ordered suited. In order not to delay handling the distillate, a 30,000 car was directed to Walla Walla, where it was distributed through the county agent.

Prisoners Lined up on Display
 The grub sack of Owens and Hart, prisoners now awaiting trial for the murder of the late Sheriff T. L. Taylor, is on display today at the Allen-Knight Co. Salt, bacon, coffee, tea, new potatoes, sugar and crackers comprised the provisions.

Bank Employees See Mountains
 All the men employees of the American National Bank spent Saturday night and Sunday in the mountains as guests of Cashier L. C. Scharpf at the Elk Horn Cabin. F. H. Moss, of Helix and C. W. Paulos, of Pilot Rock, were also in the party. The men report having had an enjoyable outing.

Vacation Time at Bank
 Miss Olive Gessum and Miss Irene Anderson are employed temporarily at the American National Bank while several of the regular employees are absent on vacations. Miss Gessum, remittance clerk, went for her vacation yesterday and Miss Mildred Berkeley, bookkeeper, is also out of the city.

Advertising Matter Going Out
 A corps of five women is busy addressing tubes in which 12,000 Round-Up posters are soon to be sent broadcast for this year's show. The work is being done in the new Round-Up headquarters in the Stangler building. Several thousand postal cards have already been addressed, stamped and sacked and will be put in the mails in a few days.

Frentzel Buys Out Wallis
 A. A. Frentzel has purchased the interest of Wade P. Wallis in the Frentzel-Wallis Motor Co., and will operate the business alone hereafter.

It was announced today. Mr. Wallis has taken a position as salesman with Clemens & Ebert, implement dealers. Mr. Frentzel will continue as agent for White trucks and Hummobile passenger autos.

Has Tonsils Removed
 Miss Helen Raymond is convalescing after an operation performed yesterday. She had her tonsils removed.

Is New Employee
 Miss Gertrude Hedblum, of St. Paul is a new employee at the Carrier Millinery shop. Miss Hedblum, who is an experienced milliner, will act as designer for the shop.

Becomes Stenographer
 Miss Elizabeth Sutherland, recently from Troy, N. Y., has accepted a position as stenographer for the Pendleton Marble & Granite Works at East Court and College streets.

Want Articles Returned
 All guns, clothing, ammunition, flashlights, field glasses and other paraphernalia borrowed by persons for use in the recent man hunt, are asked returned to the sheriff's office. All articles will be returned from there to their owners.

Gets Drunk on Extracts
 Vanilla extract caused the intoxication of Jack Gebhart, according to his testimony in police court today. He plied guily and was sentenced by Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald to pay $10 fine or five days in jail. So far he has not paid the fine.

Holdman Auto Co. Moves
 The Holdman Auto Co., today took over the ground floor of the Motor Inn Garage, 722 Cottonwood street as a display and salesroom. The company was formerly located opposite the fire department on Cottonwood street. Oldsmobile speedwagons, Oakland and Paige cars are handled by this concern.

Bootblack Stand Robbed
 Between $25 and $30 in cash was stolen from the till at the Minerva bootblack stand last night, the police were notified today. The loss was discovered this morning. The lock on the door had not been tampered with nor was there other evidence of a break in the place. The police believe a pass key was used to gain entrance.

Carpenter Dies at Walla Walla
 Lars Stebban, a carpenter, who has been employed recently at Walla Walla, died there last night from brain trouble. He is survived by his widow, who resides here. Mr. Stebban was a member of the local Carpenters' Union and funeral arrangements are being looked after by Sandy McLean, secretary. The funeral probably will be held in Walla Walla. Mr. McLean and Mrs. Stebban went to Walla Walla today to take charge of the body.

Survey Crew Finishes
 The survey crew in charge of David G. Glass which has been working near Meacham on the Old Oregon Trail, has completed its labors there and returned to the city. It was thought the highway headquarters that this crew would be sent to the Ukiah-John Day survey when through in the mountains but plans have since been changed. A crew will be sent to the Ukiah district in about 10 days, however, it is announced.

Sheep Sold at Chicago
 The fourth trainload of Oregon lambs to be marketed by Smythe Brothers at Chicago went on sale yesterday and today there but returns have not yet been received here. The third trainload, disposed of last week, went 50 cents a hundred over the market's previous top. Next week the fifth train will be started from the mountains for Chicago. The market is dropping slightly in the east, and prices are not as good as they were a year ago, according to Dan P. Smythe.

Bids Continued
 Bids for repairs to Field school were received by the school board last night but were continued until more bids are received. Three teachers were selected to grade school positions and three for the grades were: Miss Alberta Eaker, Miss Eva Hane and Miss Carol Wurtenberger and those for the high school were: Miss Mathea Hanson, E. O. Draper in the commercial department and Marlon E. Hays in the science department.

Bank Will Open
 The new Bank of Freshwater will open on Saturday according to R. W. Hatch, architect for the building who visited the east end of the county yesterday. The bank, of which J. B. Saylor is president, has 82 stock holders and a capital stock of $60,000. Mr. Hatch left this morning for Echo, where he will look over the new Bank of Echo building, which is now under construction. Mr. Hatch is the architect and Parker and Banfield the contractors. He will go also to Hermiston on business, and will return here this evening.

Will Harvest Sunflowers
 The sunflower crop at the State Hospital is to be harvested this week and the two 150 ton silos will be filled. It was at first intended that the 10 acres of sunflowers which were planted could be used to supplement the corn, but such a tremendous yield was secured that indications are there will not be sufficient capacity for the sunflowers without touching the corn. Besides the local crop, other sunflowers in the county are ready for harvest. A. A. Bixby of Umpine has an excellent crop. Hampton and Gulliford, Louis Attebury and Tom Boylen report that the sunflowers are far ahead of corn. J. E. Troxer, local dairyman, expects to put up two silos for his corn and sunflowers.

Five Fires Last Month
 There were five fires in Pendleton in July, says William E. Ringold, city fire chief. The total loss was about $5,000. One of the fires was a grass fire near the Pedro residence, and the other fires included a residence on Pine street, the Garrett residence, the L. C. Scharpf residence and the Ben Burroughs shed fire. The loss was unusually large this month, according to Chief Ringold.

INSIST THAT RUSSIA CARRY OUT TREATIES

PARIS, Aug. 2.—(Copyright by U. P.)—France stands ready to recognize the bolsheviks the moment they assume the international obligations of the former Russian government, Premier Millerand told the United Press. He said these obligations include "First, a payment of all debts; second, the acceptance of treaties and the observance of all international engagements."

ments, with the former allies of the imperial Russian government. "We will naturally expect Moscow to present evidence of the sincerity of her intention to carry out her obligations," he said. Millerand's interview is the first clear-cut, categorical announcement of the terms under which the diplomatic relations may be restored between Paris and Moscow. It is the first time the premier, in any public expression has definitely committed himself to the recognition or the narrowing down of conditions to a single credit prerequisite.

MOVE GIVEN SUPPORT.
 SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 2.—(A. P.)—Support for the plan of the Rainier post of the American Legion at Seattle for a national educational campaign by the American Legion was asked of the executive committee of the Spokane chapter by L. B. Schwellenbach, commander of the Rainier post, at a meeting here today. The executive committee passed a resolution for presentation to the state convention of the American Legion here in September to endorse the Columbia basin reclamation project.

CATTLE PRICES LOWER.
 PORTLAND, Aug. 2.—(A. P.)—The cattle market is lower. Good to choice steers are $9.50 to $10. The hog market is steady. Eggs are steady and unchanged.

WAR TALK BOOSTS PRICE.
 CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—(A. P.)—Wheat made a steep advance in price today as a result of increased speculative buying stimulated by European war talk. December wheat opened at 1.17 and closed at 1.23. March opened at 1.20, closed at 1.21 1/2.
