

FASHION REVUE SHOWS LATEST IN FUR STYLES

CHICAGO—The Fashion Revue, at Marigold Gardens, just starting a three weeks' run, is calculated to make Chicago the "Paris of the Western World." Seventy mannequins are displaying their charms plus $600,000 worth of clothes. The fur shows are luxurious beyond anything dreamed by ordinary mortals. Dark Russian squires and perfectly matched mink were chosen for two of the handsomest creations. The Dolman and most of the more tailored coats with sleeves are as long as the drummer cases. The Dolman style is much in evidence, one especially attractive garment being of Hudson Seal trimmed in skunk.

Jersey Sport Jackets

Up to $26.50 values Special $16.50

Sizes 36 to 44; the colors are white, flesh, navy and brown. A one day special for Friday only.

HELP WANTED

We need six extra salesladies in our Women's Wear Dept., 2nd floor, Saturday. When applying ask for Mrs. Taggart.

T. P. W. PURE FOOD SHOP

In Our Model Sanitary Basement CLEANLINESS ECONOMY SERVICE

3 Main Line-Phones all 15. All Other Depts. call 22.

BUY TOMATOES NOW! Extra Select Sound Ripe Tomatoes 90c BOX. Can Your Tomatoes Now!

THERE ARE A THOUSAND REASONS WHY

1000 Reasons THE Bargain Basement 1000 Reasons

There are a thousand reasons WHY the Bargain Basement has proven such a popular shopping place. THE ONE MOST IMPORTANT REASON is because it was originally established for YOU—to conform to your every whim in shopping, for you who wish to rummage, for you who wish to save, for you who enjoy the most EXTREME REDUCTIONS.

THE OTHER 999 REASONS and a whole lot more reasons WHY are found among just such bargains as these:

- Enamel Wash Basins Dark grey enamel, med. heavy weight, and med. sized . . . . . 27c
Aluminum Percolators Pure aluminum 6 cup capacity, detachable handle, short spout— $1.79.
Cobbler Outfits Complete with all lasts, hammer, awls, tacks, nails, etc. . . . . $1.49
Big Bungalow Aprons Solid blue color, slip-on style, a limited lot. 98c

PENDLETON'S GREATEST DEPARTMENT STORE

The People's Warehouse

PURE FOOD GROCERY WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE BARGAIN BASEMENT

SMALL BOY OPERATED ON FOR APPENDICITIS

(East Oregonian Special) UMAPINE, Aug. 5.—On Monday, Edward, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Weathers of Gardena was taken to the hospital in Walla Walla where he has undergone an operation for appendicitis.
The E. Moore family and Mrs. A. A. Willey spent Sunday and Monday in the mountains where they picked several gallons of huckleberries.
Mrs. Kyle McDaniel returned home on Friday from Pendleton where she has been attending summer school.
Jens Threlkeldsen, former butter maker at the Hudson Bay creamery, had a painful accident last week at his new creamery at Coolidge City. His hand caught in the air compressor and the accident necessitated the removal of one finger.
S. Murray, father of Hugh Murray of Freewater and a relative of H. R. Eason, is visiting the Bacon family at their home here. Mr. and Mrs. Galloway of Milton also are guests at the Bacon home. They are all from Jonesburg, Tenn., and are renewing old friendships.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pogue are visiting relatives at Umapine and are on their way to Joseph where they will make their new home. Mr. Pogue recently disposed of his interests in northern Idaho.
The Bowman family spend Sunday with friends at Kennewick.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kirk accompanied by Edgar Holm left on Saturday for Lehman Springs where they will spend a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Holm drove their car over for them and made the return trip by train.
William B. Musty had a runaway this week which completely demolished his buggy and badly bruised him. A coupling pin broke which let the shaft down and this kept hitting the horse. When Mr. Musty reached the rock crusher the buggy struck loose dirt turning it over. The horse then ran until it reached the Ramo place where it succeeded in kicking the remainder of the buggy to pieces. None of the Ramo children were with him at the time.

VILLA HAS PECULIAR WAY OF SURRENDERING

(Standard-GeatlaheddyOac) EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 5.—(A. P.)—Francisco Villa who declined to accompany General Eugenio Martinez by train from Monclova to Torreon following his agreement to lay down arms, is marching to Torreon with his mounted force, according to information received here today by Luis Montes de Oca, Mexican consul-general here.
The distance from Monclova to Torreon is 192 miles and as Villa is not under forced march, the trip will take at least ten days, Mr. Montes de Oca said.
Villa is reported by Villistas agents here to be camped at a point midway between the two cities, waiting for the remainder of the force to join him before proceeding to Torreon. It is said he expects to have 1,000 men with him when he enters the latter city.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Weather Forecast Received Thunderstorms in the mountains today and tomorrow are predicted in the weather forecast received today at the Umatilla forest office. The report states that dry, gusty north to east winds will be prevalent.
Forest Fire at Duncan A forest fire is burning at Duncan in the canyon, says word received today by R. A. Botcher, assistant supervisor of the Umatilla Forest reserve. Latest reports say that the fire is spreading.
Returns From Portland Earl Palmer, ex-service man who recently underwent an operation at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, returned to Pendleton last night. Mr. Palmer is under the care of the U. S. Public Health service having received his disability discharge after service in the navy. He was stationed at Bremerton.
Building In Good Condition The federal building in this city is in good condition, says E. R. Putnam, inspector of Federal buildings who is here today. Mr. Putnam, inspector of Federal buildings who is here today. Mr. Putnam says that the building compares very favorably with government buildings in other cities and that no repairs are necessary. Mr. Putnam's headquarters are in Denver, Colorado, and he has the northwest as his territory.
Legion Not to Meet There will be no regular meeting of Pendleton Post, American Legion, this month, owing to the agreement to take a recess until September. Harold J. Warner, post commander, now visiting in Portland, has been asked by James R. Bowler, commander, to represent Pendleton at the dinner to be given Franklin D'Olier, national commander, at Portland Monday evening. Mr. D'Olier is touring the posts of the coast and will also give an address before the Portland post. His home is in Philadelphia.
The Bootery Will Open "The Bootery," Pendleton's newest shoe store, will open for business tomorrow at 725 Main street, according to announcement made today by J. Winer, the proprietor. Mr. Winer comes to Pendleton from Walla Walla, where he has had experience as a shoeman in the New York store. Prior to that time he was in Rosenthal's, of Portland, the Hubert Shoe Co., of Boise, and the Cincinnati shoe store, also of Boise. Mr. Winer says he will make a specialty of fitting shoes and expects to employ an assistant later. Men's, women's and children's shoes will be sold, as well as hosiery for men and women. The store, which was formerly occupied by Lindgren and Franseen, has been renovated and is finished in gray enamel, and the rugs will carry out the color scheme.

Is New Employee Harry Wright is a new employe at Hotel Pendleton and is acting as day clerk. Mr. Wright was formerly employed at Baker.

Movies of Harvest Taken Moving pictures of harvesting on the Collins and Wyrick ranch are being filmed today. Two million picture cameramen arrived today from Portland to take the pictures.

Trace of Rain Falls A few drops of rain fell this morning, accompanied by cloudy weather. The maximum today is 88, several degrees cooler than yesterday, says Major Lee Moorhouse, weather observer. The minimum was 56 and the barometer registered 29.70.

Chief Provides Cool Place A young negro tramp who persisted in going into a barn in the west end of town against the warnings of the owners, was arrested today by Chief of Police Roberts and confined in the city jail. The negro told the chief that he was "just tired" and wanted to rest. He was told that he would find it cooler and more comfortable if he accompanied the officer. His case will come up in police court late today or in the morning.

UNION OIL WANTS

(Continued from page 1.) The report of Recorder Thomas Fitz Gerald showed that there were 53 cases of disorderly conduct and 25 for traffic violations. There were 43 fines, totaling $439.90, assessed and nine forfeited bail. Four served jail sentences, one sentence was suspended and two others commuted. Eleven licenses, for a total of $484, were issued.

WAR TALK RUNS PRICE UP

(Continued from page 1.) domestic grain. (From Overbeck & Cooks Co.) NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The stock market sagged heavily throughout the greater part of the session as a result of incessant liquidation that emanated from various sources. Heavy liquidation made its appearance in some of the low priced oil issues and the extreme weakness in these shares had a very unsettling effect on the higher priced oil stocks, likewise the oil in general. Constructive features in the market, notably the freer supply of call money were offset by the European news regarding political conditions were given the preference naturally. The situation abroad is now looked upon as carrying quite a little cause for concern and the apprehension fostered is reflected in the dribbling liquidation in the market.

WOMEN FEAR OUTCOME OF TENNESSEE VOTE

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 5.—Governor Cox and Senator Harding were informed today by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage association, that there was a "very real and threatening danger" to the ratification of the amendment by the Tennessee legislature. She asserted that "outsiders are inspiring messages to you signed by Tennessee names asking you to keep hands off."
HARVESTER CHIEF DIES. CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—William V. Couchman, vice president of the International Harvester company and in charge of its European business, died suddenly today at Brussels, Belgium, according to a cablegram received here.
Mr. Couchman had been in the agricultural implement business for 37 years, starting as an office boy for the McCormick Harvesting Machine company.

VIENNA HAS DEFICIT OF MILLION CROWNS

VIENNA, Aug. 5.—(A. P.)—The deficit of this city is estimated at 1,200,000 crowns this year. All sources of municipal taxation have been tried to the breaking point and now the city government plans to cut down the civil list. Younger employes able to get other work will go first and the pruning will go through all departments. It is found that for 190,000 children in the primary grade of the public schools there are 19,000 teachers and many of these must go.
In 1913 the Vienna city budget was 227,500,000 crowns. For the current year it is placed at 2,560,000,000 crowns. A loan of $2,000,000 marks by Germany during the war represents part of this. On present currency exchange this means a loss of 250,000,000 crowns.

ITALY IS IMPROVING HER AIRPLANE CORPS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Italy is spending $10,000,000 this year on its aviation program, which is mainly of a civil character. The program calls for a complete aerial transportation system for both passengers and goods, a regular air mail service and the establishment of international air routes. Study of routes which will join Italy with France, Switzerland, Austria, Jugoslavia, Greece and the Italian colonies also is being made by the government authorities. Two dirigibles are now operating a successful touring service between Rome and Milan and between Venice and Milan and plans are being made to start the Naples-Palermo route. Four other local routes are in operation and experiments are being conducted on "five others."

CHEATED NEPTUNE IN '52, OCTOGENARIAN NOW FARMS

GRASS VALLEY, Cal., Aug. 5.—(A. P.)—Sixty-eight years after he gave himself up for lost in a shipwreck off Cape Horn, South America, H. B. Nichols is vigorous enough to conduct a dairy here. Nichols was a passenger on the Fannie McJury, a sailing vessel which went on the rocks during a storm on July 4, 1852. After a day spent by the crew and passengers in manning the pumps and in prayer, the craft made port, and, being temporarily repaired, managed to reach San Francisco in September of that year. Nichols is 84 years old.

IMMIGRATION FIGURES GIVEN.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Aug. 5.—(A. P.)—According to figures made public by the department of statistics, 1,015,883 immigrants entered Brazil during the 12 years ending December 31, 1919. Of this number only 2,062 were North Americans while there were 34,246 Germans and 28,282 Japanese. Portuguese led with 386,684; Spanish second, 212,722; Italians third, 65,709 and Russians fourth with 50,632.

"TEAR" FROM GRAND JURY.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—(A. P.)—Federal Judge Alchester returned to receive a report from the grand jury containing indictments against 41 leaders in recent rail strikes. He ordered the jury back into session to investigate the bank by which copies of the report reached newspapers before being presented to him. The strike leaders it was reported, were indicted for conspiracy to violate the Lever act by interfering with the movement of coal, coal and other necessities. Some newspapers had accounts of the indictments two hours before the jury reported.

SUGAR DROPS $1.75 PORTLAND, Aug. 5.—(U. P.)—The price of sugar dropped $1.75 a hundred pounds, dealers here were advised by California refiners.

BOYS MURDERED TO CONCEAL BANK THEFT

MAIDEN, Ill., Aug. 5.—(U. P.)—With their throats cut and heads crushed, both Tony Hemphill, aged 17, and Amel Calcaterra, aged 14, were placed in the morgue. Santos De Santos is held in jail in connection with their disappearance and murder. Squirrel hunters in the woods found the two bodies late yesterday, buried in a shallow grave and covered with brush. A butcher knife, covered with blood, was found nearby. The authorities believe the boys were murdered to prevent them divulging information regarding a recent bank robbery.
The boys were missing from their homes since Monday. According to the police, De Santos admitted he took the boys on the trip but denied knowledge of the murder. The officials learned the boys disappeared after a member of the Calcaterra family had threatened to reveal information regarding a recent bank robbery.

I. W. W. CONVENTION IN WOODS RAIDED TODAY

SPOKANE, Aug. 5.—(U. P.)—Ten members of the I. W. W. are in jail here and officers are scouring the woods north of Hillyard in search of others as a result of a raid on a convention held in the timber three miles north of Hillyard, by city and county authorities. The appearance of an officer caused a hasty adjournment of the convention but ten "delegates" were arrested before they could escape with others.

Crops Very Brief A Southern plantation owner was inquiring of one of his renters the condition of the crops. The renter was true to type in her love for unusual words.
"How is your crop coming along, Auntie," was the question.
"Brifely, Mister Smith, brifely," was her reply. "Fes might 'traid you is going to have to produce my rent this fall."—New York Evening Post.

IS DANCE HOSTESS

NEW YORK—College girls would do well to adopt being dance hostess as a profession. So says Miss Hazel Allen, dance hostess at the summer resort garden of the Hotel McAlpin. "It's extremely pleasant work," says Miss Allen, "and it requires plenty of ingenuity and brain power."

HAZEL ALLEN

BATHING GIRLS FAVOR FEATHERS AND WOOLEN BLANKETS

Feathers are playing an important role among the unique sunshades along the beach. Here in a beach parcel of apricot silk is an interesting example. From a center of tufted wool apricot, a few short, pleasant feathers. Then from underneath the tuft radiate long, graceful feathers that over-reach the edge and curl around it. It is a fitting accompaniment to the comfortable-looking cape of tan and white wool in black pattern. The cape is trimmed with fringe and tassels of brown wool with the edges buttonholed in brown.