The Versatile Guinea Hen

Mr. Guinea Hen can speak some fifty-seven varieties of languages and gibberings. When danger is near, he sounds the alarm and all the fowls scold for cover but he flies on the gate and shoots forth his defiance, cusswords and everything. Really when excited, he gets profane and can be heard all over the premises. Mr. and Mrs. Guinea Hen are one when it comes to fighting off the enemy and when they begin to say things even the bull dog considers discretion the better part of valor and beats it.

Hogs and Cattle Steady
White Sheep Waver.
Hogs were in small supply and steady and there was only a fair run of cattle with unchanged values. Sheep and lambs showed fluctuating values.

Lambs gathered weakness in the North Portland alleys at the opening of the Tuesday morning trade. Offerings were from the Willamette valley and a soft tone set in the trade at the opening. Killers controlled the market and their bids of 50 cents less than the previous day were accepted. While the general price of east of the mountain lambs was not changed, this was simply due to the fact that no arrivals of that stock have been shown here recently. Market in general was considered slightly easier, but showed no price change.

General sheep and lamb range:
East of mountain lambs, $11.00@11.50
Valley lambs 9.25@9.50
Cull lambs 8.00@8.00

Medium mixed 17.50@18.00
Rough heavy 12.00@14.50
Smooth heavy 13.50@16.50

War News Hoist Prices
On Everything at Chicago
CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—War news hoisted the price today on every commodity on exchange. At the topmost point, wheat was up 16c a bushel. Profit-taking, though, caused the market later. The close was nervous, 19 to 11 1/2c net higher with December $2.49 to $2.40 1-2 and March $2.42. Corn finished at 2 3/4 to 6 1/8 advance. Oats gained 1 1/2 to 2 3/4 and provisions 17 to 90.

Wheat available for immediate use was in less demand and it was the circumstance that was the outstanding feature rather than speculative buying of future deliveries. The urgent call for cash wheat seemed the more striking in view of assertions that export call was slow and that the British Royal Commission still held off as a buyer. Heavy margins required as a result of wire fluctuations that have been the rule of late was the generally accepted reason of the comparative absence of any unusual broadening of the volume of pit transactions. Scarcity of country offerings added somewhat to the force of bullish sentiment and so likewise did complaints of car shortage.

Crop injury from prolonged dry weather had much to do with higher prices for corn, although the tension over war developments appeared to be the leading influence. Oats sympathized with corn.

Sale of two million pounds of lard supposed to go indirectly to Germans gave impetus to the upturn in provisions. Besides it was estimated that meat stocks in the west had been reduced this week thirty million pounds.

Industrial Stocks Lose
Owing to Polish News
NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Unfavorable foreign news bearing on the Polish situation and renewed liquidation and short selling caused losses among industrial stocks of one to 10 points today. Except for an interval in the first hour, when a rise in railroad shares had a tonic effect, the downward movement was continuous. Conditions in the foreign exchange and money markets were more favorable, but were ignored.

Reports that the banks had called loans on certain industrial collateral attended the decline. The bear faction devoted its energies to driving down individual shares, causing a business among holders of other securities as to where the attack would come next. Oils, steels, shippings, sugars and leathers were targets, and the precipitate decline in these groups drew down the balance of the list.

Resistance was poor against the selling, even investment railroads falling back 1 1/2 to 2 points; of lower stocks Oil crashed from 20 1/2 to 19 1/4 on dealings approximating 250,000 shares. This break was a signal for active selling of other low priced oils and a varied list of specialties. Total sales approximated 1,150,000 shares. The bond market maintained a fairly good tone in face of the weakness of stocks. Total sales, par value, $11,275,000. Foreign issues fluctuated narrowly and liberty bonds were irregular. Old U. S. bonds unchanged on call.

Coffee Futures Again
Show Low Records.
NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—After making new records during today's early sales the market for coffee futures rallied on better late cables from Santos but failed to hold the improvement owing to reports of lower firm offerings. First prices were 32 to 45 points lower on reports of continued weakness in Brazil and the active months at one time showed net
