Renew Chamber Memberships

Two membership cards in the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce for the year 1920-1921 were received today by the Pendleton Commercial Association. One is made out to President J. R. Italey and the other to Secretary C. K. Cranston.

Auto Men Will Be Met

Representatives of the Oregon State Motor Association and of the Oregon Journal, who are coming here on Saturday in the interests of the proposed auto tour from Portland to the 1920 Round-Up will be met by a committee of local automobile men, it was announced today. Clyde McKay, president of the Pendleton Automobile Association, Robert Simpson, chairman of the Commercial Association's automotive committee and a Round-Up board member will take the Portland men to the auto camp grounds and assist in planning for the caravan.

Crossing to be Built

David Glass, project engineer for the state highway department, will in the near future make a survey of the crossing near Saxe station. Plans are to be made for an overhead crossing, which the O. W. R. & N. Co. recently agreed upon.

Cabin Builders to Return

Guy Wzrick left last night for Sugarbowl country to bring back the members of the Sugarbowl Hunting Club who have been engaged all week in the erection of a cabin for their club. The cabin is expected to be completed by the time the men start home today. Dean Sholl, Guy Matlock, Arthur Gibson and Jake Welch have been hard at work on the structure since Saturday evening.

Leaves For Long Beach

Ben Smith left this morning on No. 17 for Long Beach, where he will spend the remainder of the summer at the Smith cottage.

Mrs. Ferguson Dies

Mrs. Louise E. Ferguson, wife of Charles Ferguson, of Klamath Falls, died recently at her home, according to work received today by Pendleton friends. Mrs. Ferguson, who was formerly Miss Louise Sargent, was born in Delta, Ohio, coming to Oregon in 1904. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Minnie Sargent, of Decatur, Illinois, and a brother Thomas F. Sargent of De Kalb, Illinois, and several distant relatives.

Called by Illness

Harry Hooper, of the Simpson Tire Service, was called to Hutchinson, Kansas, last night to be at the bedside of his mother, W. Hooper, who is seriously ill.

Visit West End

Mrs. Jessie D. McComb, state leader of home demonstration agents, and Miss Ella May Harmon, agent for this county, visited Hermiston and Umatilla yesterday in the interests of their work.

Thermometer Takes Leap

The thermometer went up to 96 today, but the barometer is falling and there is a chance of cooler weather, says Major Lee Moorhouse, official weather observer. The minimum was 55 and the barometer registers 29.99.

Lodge Expresses Sympathy

Resolutions of condolence over the death of one of its members, Sheriff T. D. Taylor, were drawn up by the Reda lodge No. 22, L. O. O. F., at the last regular meeting this week and copies sent to the widow and mother of the late sheriff.

New Clerk Arrives

R. W. Thomas arrived this morning to take up his duties as clerk in the forest office. Mr. Thomas comes to Pendleton from Washington, D. C., where he was for three years employed in the adjutant general's office.

Two Building Permits Issued

Building permits were issued by the city recorder today to Mrs. G. F. Minger of 499 Chestnut street, to make repairs to a dwelling at a cost of $199 and to David Cowan, of Garden street, to make additions and repairs to a dwelling at a cost of $250.

Weather Report Arrives

Hot, drying north to east winds are predicted for the next two or three days in a government weather report received this morning at the Umatilla forest office from San Francisco. The report states that there is danger of spread of forest fires because of the winds.

Is New Employee

Robert M. Thomas, formerly with the Great Western Motors Company of Seattle, has accepted a position in this city with the Simpson Auto Co., Ford dealers. Mr. Thomas has for the past six years been selling cars in Seattle and Portland and will devote his time to selling Fords for the local firm. His family will join him later.

Sues for Account of Lumber

The Tunalum Lumber Co., today filed suit in circuit court against R. W. Hamm to collect $150.39 alleged due as the balance on a bill of lumber, building materials and fuel sold the defendant. The plaintiff concern is represented in the action by Peterson, Bishop & Clark.

Grand Jury Does Not Finish

The grand jury did not finish its work today and indications were that it would not be through with its work until tomorrow. It is considered possible that a report on cases so far heard might be made up by evening. The jury is working slowly and carefully as the indictments it returns will be important in the forthcoming trial of the murderers of Sheriff T. D. Taylor.

Finley Hearing May Wait

The hearing by the State Fish and Game Commission of the Finley case, which was set for August 15 in Portland, probably will be postponed, Marion Jack, local member of the commission, said today. Some of the commissioners are absent on vacations and it is not believed possible to assemble the commission at this time. It is thought that the meeting will be put over until in September.

Swimming Classes Continue

Joseph Hodges, swimming instructor for the Red Cross, is continuing the classes today and the instruction will be repeated tonight at 7:30 p. m. Boys between 12 and 15 years of age were instructed this morning, and men are receiving instruction this afternoon. Tonight at 7:30 both men and women will be instructed and tests in lifesaving will be given. Local people are showing much interest in the formation of the corps. Cash Wood, county Y. M. C. A. secretary, is assisting Mr. Hodges.

Sheep Are Shipped

Sheep owned by Tulloch & Smythe, Smythe Brothers and the Pendleton Sheep Company are now being shipped to the Chicago market. Ben P. Smythe expects to go to Chicago Saturday to receive the shipments. A shipment is now on its way east from Idaho, and another went yesterday from Sloan and Meacham. August is a large shipment will be made. It is probable that by September 10 the shipments will be finished, and men the sheep remaining in the Blue Mountains will be collected and shipped to Chicago.

WHEAT CONTINUES

Greece, 1185 and 1190. Roumania, 226 and 230. (From Overbeck & Cook Co.) CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Wheat—Offerings were light and the market showed ready response to active buying led by cash interests. For the first time in nearly three weeks the British commission were in the market for cash wheat, taking a small amount over night and asking for further offers although their bids were several cents out of line. Another feature of less that attracted attention was the reported sale of three cargoes to Argentina and Brazil. Practically all the cash markets, and particularly the north west, enjoyed a keen milling demand and prices were quoted from four to ten cents higher. Early threshing returns from the northwest are very mixed. The market has a much healthier appearance and should continue strong while there is

Think This Over
Here is a statement made to the writer this morning as we were passing the time of day on the street. After one of your prominent businessmen had asked about Astoria.
"The next Big Boom for this country is to be at the mouth of the Columbia river. You can't get away from it." He is absolutely correct and dozens of others feel the same about it. Get late information at 108 East Alta St. from T. J. Baldwin about OREGON'S NEXT BIG CITY.
