Negroes Ordered Away.

C. C. Clark, a negro, was given by Chief of Police Roberts until 2 o'clock this afternoon to make his departure from Pendleton as a result of alleged operations here in the distribution of "dope." The chief alleges that Clark was recently in trouble in Yakima for the same offense. John Morrison, another negro, said to be suffering from the effects of "dope" was arrested last night and is in the city jail recuperating. He will be asked to remove himself from the city as soon as he is straightened out, the chief said.

Captain Conrad is now in Tacoma and will go from there to Settle, while Lieutenant Forest will leave here Sunday evening.

Salaries Vary in Counties

Salaries paid to county officers in the various counties of the state vary considerably, says Representative E. P. Dodd, who with Senator John Bell, of Eugene, is conducting a survey of salary conditions among county officials. Mr. Dodd, who was in Pendleton today on his way home after conducting a survey in Union county, says that the legislature hopes to get at a basis for the salaries of officials all over the state. He and Senator Bell have completed their work in Union, Wallowa and Umatilla counties. Roy Raley president of the Commercial Association, has promised to bring the matter before that body and will interest them in the increase in the salary of officials.
