FIELD DAY AT FARM SET FOR SEPTEMBER 11

The annual Field Day of the Herndon Experiment Farm will be held Saturday, September 11, says H. K. Dean, superintendent who was in Pendleton yesterday from the west end of the county.

ing team which will enter competition at the State Fair in Salem will occupy the morning hours, with Fred Bendison, county agriculture agent, in charge. Another forenoon event will be an exhibit of the work accomplished by the women of the Farm Bureau of Umatilla, Columbia and Hermiston, under the direction of Miss Ella May Harmon, home demonstration agent. The dinner-hour will be followed by a short speaking and musical program. G. H. Hyslop, professor of farm crops at O. A. C., will have for his topic

"Furnish crops for the Project," and J. T. Jardine, new director of Oregon Experiment stations, will speak on the future of the experimental work of the Umatilla station. The speaker of the day has not yet been chosen, but Mr. Dean says that the best available orator will be chosen. Athletic contests, an inspection of field work by the men and special features for the women will complete the day. Mr. Dean says that big plans for the Field Day are now taking form and he hopes for a large delegation from Pendleton and other towns of the county.
