Besides the honor guest and the hosts covers will be laid for Dr. Plamondon, Dr. and Mrs. W. D. McNary and Mrs. Rena Addom.

AFFAIR AT MANSE ENJOYED

The Presbyterian manse was last evening the scene of an interesting affair when Mrs. Fletcher Linn, one of the secretaries of the North Pacific Board of Missions of the Presbyterian Church, and prominent matron of Portland, met with about twenty girls and a few other folk to discuss the formation of Westminister Guild circles and to share with them an informal social hour.

Mrs. Linn is visiting in Pendleton in the interest of the organizations of which there will probably be about three in the local congregation. Girls of the classes of Mrs. George L. Clark, Mrs. W. W. Green and Mrs. H. E. McLean in the Presbyterian Sunday school shared the affair last night. Mrs. Linn, who is a charming soloist, talked to the girls and later sang for them. A light buffet supper ended the affair.

A group of young matrons are meeting Mrs. Linn at the home of Mrs. S. R. Thompson this afternoon.

ARTISANS WILL MEET

Launching winter activities after a summer's vacation, the Artisans will meet this evening in Eagle-Woodman hall and hereafter on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Of especial import this evening will be plans concerning the reception on October 12 of Dr. E. C. Eshelman, of Portland, supreme medical examiner, who is to visit the lodge on that date.

DEPART FOR SALEM

MISS SWEARINGEN IS BRIDE

Coming as an interesting surprise to friends is the marriage this afternoon of Miss Daphna Swearingen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Swearingen, and Leslie Emmett Gibbs, the service being read at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Walla Walla with Rev. Bertram A. Warren, rector, officiating. Only a few relatives and friends witnessed the exchange of vows. The service was marked by charming simplicity and the couple was unattended.

The tip to Walla Walla was made by motor early this afternoon and Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs will leave this evening for a short journey to Portland and coast points.

The bride is a member of a prominent Pendleton family and she is a charming girl. After being graduated from the Pendleton High School she attended the University of Washington where she became a member of the Delta Gamma Sorority.

Mr. Gibbs is a well known young business man of Pendleton. He served in the United States Navy during the war, seeing extensive service as chief yeoman. Upon returning to Pendleton Mr. Gibbs resumed his position with the advertising department of the East Oregonian Publishing Company.

The betrothal of the young couple was made known in the Spring and a shower of congratulatory festivities has followed the announcement. Upon their return to Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs will make their home in the Security Apartments.

WOMAN IN CABINET

MRS. A. S. BAKER
WASHINGTON:—"The women of the nation are going to expect the next president to give them representation in his cabinet," says Mrs. Abbey Scott Baker, political chairman of the National Woman's Party. "The next president should appoint a woman to the position of secretary of war or of the navy. Make a woman secretary of war and it would be pretty certain that there would be no war."

CARS AND FOOD

Food prices continue to tumble in the middle west. Potatoes are selling at from $1.50 to $2.00 per hundred pounds, wholesale. Peaches, tomatoes and other fruits are quoted at close to pre-war prices.

The Studebaker corporation today announced a reduction of $125 to $200 in the price of its cars. Chicago hotel men met today to consider reduction of the cost of living. Russel Poole, directing the city's fight to lower prices, will point out to hotel men alleged discrepancies between cost and selling prices of food listed on their menus.

"I think we will have no trouble showing that 50 cents is too much for one cent's worth of tomatoes and that 50 cents is more than two cent corn on the cob is worth," said Poole today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—(A. P.)—Sugar at refineries was brought to New York today at the price of $14 per hundred weight, making a decline of a dollar in two days.

Rents Are Reduced. CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—(U. P.)—J. A. Greenberg, owner of several apartment buildings today announced a 10 per cent rent reduction effective October 1 and similar reduction next May. "We are following the footsteps of manufacturers who have inaugurated a decline in prices," he said.

More Car Prices Cut. DETROIT, Sept. 25.—(U. P.)—The Hudson Manufacturing Company, maker of the Hudson and Essex cars today announced a price reduction on all models of the two cars, ranging from $200 to $450.

Willis Overland Co. Cuts. NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—(U. P.)—The Willis Overland Company today announced a reduction of $100 to $200 in the price of automobiles.

Another Cut in Sugar. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—(U. P.)—Refiners today announced another drop of 25 cents per hundred for sugar. The wholesale price for cane is now $14, the price at which it sold when the government relinquished control of sugar distribution the first of the year.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS MARRIED IN RUSSIA WILL MAKE FOR HOME

MANILA, P. I., Sept. 25.—American soldiers who, while in Siberia married Russian girls and who later brought them here, have been ordered to the United States, where, the army officers believe, better housing conditions for married men are available. Many will sail on the army transport Madawaska late in June.

Owing to the high cost of living here, most of the soldiers were unable to support wives and many of them were cared for by the Red Cross and other organizations.

American women of Manila tonight gave a farewell entertainment to the soldiers and their Russian brides. About 100 couples attended.

HOG MARKET LOWER. PORTLAND, Sept. 25.—(A. P.)—Hogs are lower today at $17 and $17.50. Other markets are steady. Eggs and butter are firm.
