DANCING PARTY SCHEDULED.
Eagle-Woodman hall is to be the scene Saturday evening of a dancing party to be enjoyed by a group of the younger folk. Several young men will sponsor the affair and members of the high school football eleven are to be honored.

DEPART FOR WYOMING.
Mr. and Mrs. William P. Pierce left this morning for southern Wyoming for a month's visit with friends.

PLANS VISIT TO SISTER.
Miss Margaret Joergel will leave on No. 18 this evening en route to Enterprise, accompanied by her nephew, Raymond Sticker, who has been visiting here. Miss Joergel will visit with her sister, Mrs. A. R. Sticker, and brother, John Joergel, who is in business with Mr. Sticker in Enterprise.

TO LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA.
Hoping for fairer weather, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kern, Miss Merle King, Miss Lorene King and Lester King are in fine plans to depart Monday morning for a motor trip to California. Long Beach is their intended destination but after reaching the southern state they may decide to locate at Santa Monica. They plan to remain until next summer and the younger folk will enter school there. The Kings spent three months of last winter at the California beach city.

CONCERT IS DELIGHTFUL.

Pleasing indeed was the concert last evening which afforded Pendleton an opportunity to hear Oswald Olson, basso profundo, and master of voice who sang at the Christian church before scores of delighted listeners.

Mr. Olson's ability in the operatic field was well demonstrated in the rendition of several arias from different operas and ample opportunity was afforded in the songs to prove remarkable range and voice control.

Interesting indeed was the singer's selection of "Dreams," a charming composition by Mrs. Nellie Whiting McDonald, prominent local pianist, who was chosen as Mr. Olson's accompanist.

Another number occasioning delight was "Alone in Love's Garden" (Howett) arranged with violin obligato by Bert A. McDonald, talented local musician.

Mr. Olson is head of the vocal department of the Malen Barstett School of Music in Walla Walla and his work last evening as well as that of his assistants, was marked by power, grace and brilliancy.

CLUB ENJOYS MEETING.

The club room of the library, bright with a lovely profusion of gay golden flowers, was the scene yesterday of an interesting and delightful affair when Mrs. J. C. Snow and Mrs. C. S. Jernoff were hostesses for a meeting of the current literature club. The following program numbers preceded a social hour.

Report of the biennial financial convention at Des Moines, Mrs. J. R. Raley.

Yocal solo—Mrs. E. B. Aldrich.

English Poetry—Mrs. M. O. Bennett.

Readings from Galsworthy—Mrs. James Johns.

Readings from Mayfield—Mrs. E. P. Tulloch.

As the guests enjoyed an informal tea hour, the dainty table was presided over by Mrs. Mary Disonway, retiring president of the club.

CLUB MEETING DELIGHTFUL.

Mrs. Omer Bissinger was a delightful hostess Thursday when members of the Merry-Go-Round Club and a number of additional friends were her guests.

Guessing contests, uniquely arranged, supplemented needle work and chatting as informal diversions, honors being won by Mrs. Gariand Gray and Mrs. Claude Hanscomb. A light luncheon was served during the final hour.

Guests other than club members included Mrs. E. L. Ufford, Mrs. Christena Docktor, Miss Anna Butt and Mrs. John Bannister.

The next meeting is to be held in a fortnight with Mrs. Clarence Tubbs.

MOTOR FROM CANADA.

After an absence of two months exactly, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. McLean, Miss Merle King, Allen McLean and Charles McLean, arrived home last evening from Canada. The journey was made by motor and the party spent the time at Youngtown where the McLeans have farming interests.

WILL DEPART SOON.

Mrs. J. C. Snow, Miss Ruth Snow and Claud Snow plan to leave Monday for Portland, where the latter two are to attend school this winter. Miss Snow is to enter either St. Helen's Hall or Miss Galling and her brother will study at the Museum of Art. Friends are regretting the family's departure but are hoping for the return of Mrs. Snow later in the year. She has taken an active place in social and club circles.

WELCOME LITTLE SON.

Congratulations are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerley upon the arrival of a son September 30 at St. Anthony's hospital.

STAMP OF APPROVAL GIVEN IRISH OFFICERS

LONDON, Oct. 2.—(By Webb Miller, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—The British cabinet, after officially placing its stamp of approval on the administration of Irish affairs by Chief Secretary Greenwood and General Macready, today decided to investigate reports by the Royal Irish constabulary for the killing of policemen by Fein sympathizers, it is learned.

"The government is unanimously and unqualifiedly behind the Irish administration," said Greenwood after meeting. "The condition of internal affairs in Ireland is improving rapidly despite reports to the contrary. The decision regarding MacSwiney and his colleagues taken six weeks ago, is irrevocable."

From semi-official sources it is learned that while strict orders are issued against further reprisals, no retroactive measures will be undertaken.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 2.—(A. P.)—Violators of the federal prohibition act in the state of Washington have brought $125,000 into the United States this year during the first six months in which the act has been enforced according to the report of Donald A. McDonald, federal director for this district. The cost to the government during the same period for the maintenance of the department has been $200,000, the report states, with 113 convictions out of 178 arrests.

CHAIRMAN WIELDS WICKED GAVEL BUT HE SECURES ORDER

NEW ROCKFORD, N. D., Oct. 2.—(U. P.)—Thomas Doyle, chairman of the I. W. W. convention here wields a wicked gavel. "We'll have graveyard quiet on this floor—one way or other," he said, calling the convention to order. Tom tapped the table with —well, it's not commonly called a "gavel," but Tom had order.

MOBS VISIT FACTORY. LONDON, Oct. 2.—(U. P.)—The Evening News reported today that a mob of unemployed assembled outside factories in Coventry, singing "The Red Flag" and listening to speeches urging them to seize industries in the same manner as the Italian metal workers have done. According to newspaper processors entered the Armstrong and Siddeley ammunition works and held a mass meeting but dispersed before the arrival of police reserves.
